If the word is from ARAIRE it means swing plough, this could be either BoÖtes the ploughshare (in which sits Arcturus aka called 'Grandpa') or the obsolete term for Ursa Major – Big Dipper, the plough. The long theatre (court) is the universe. Here is a perfect example of amphibological – something Nostradamus told King Henri that was not used! There is a phonetic pun here: "that which arranges the long court" – which is saying they who ("which", indicating not human) organise the arrangement of the solar system – the orbits! How marvellous is the mind of Nostradamus! There is a veiled ambiguous meaning too: (That) Which of the "long court" will be arraigned Arraignment meaning to be brought forward to present the facts.

APSIS is the “point of return” (either the furthest or the closest). In this case the reference is to the Solar System’s apsis on the great wheel of precession said to occur in December 2012 confirmed by the A

The “errors” necessary to ensure the anagrams worked – such as Hister (Hitler) and Mabus (Magus).

PER SALT by the salts combination, being a bad one.

This continues from the previous line. X means ‘partnership’

AUNT means the Plejarens SUMER = Anun.nakim TREASON

The four lines of quatrain 3 33 are very interesting.

It is not often that all four lines in any quatrain relate to each other.

In this quatrain there are genres which are separate to each other, yet carry on within this quatrain.

The subject of the false messiah in line 2 and 4. There is a very large separate forum giving details of the “False Rapture”

The mention of two of the three Mentors to Nostradamus, “Grandpa” and “Aunt” sometimes called “Nan” or “Grandma” in lines 3 and 4. The third mentor is Eloim, the “homeless” one; Being the Mind of the Universe named in other lines “Father”.

The topic of the badly mixed drugs labelled “bath salts” on their discovery in April 2012. They cause a disturbed diet (PICA) by the offenders ‘eating the face’ of/off their victim.

This is absolute proof that neither Allan Webber nor I could have falsified any words in the hidden texts, since this is a very new and very recent world wide problem. I love the simplicity of the words MIXTURES SALT PARTNERSHIP - AMOUNT AMISS

Three of the lines relate to the progress of the decoding of the hidden texts – with the last line being a big relief for me:

“PASSES MUSTER” meaning they are doing their job, so have been translated and collated well enough.

Then the last words AIMS LESS SUMER TREASON need a full explanation...

For some time for me there has been great concern that I have been doing the ‘devil’s work’ and that Nostradamus may have been misled himself.

It has occurred to me that it would not be likely that the Anun.nakim – “SUMER” - (of 111 names so far) would be warning us against themselves!

There are over 4,000 lines which speak of them, their Triad, their allies and their agendas.

This comprises over forty one percent of all the lines of the hidden texts. Therefore the words AIMS LESS SUMER TREASON are not only confirmation for the reason for the hidden texts, but explain to me that it is truly a message from the Pleiades and from Arcturus (situated in BoÖtes) who are really concerned for the welfare of humanity and our loss of connection with our ‘mother’ ~ Earth.

It seems appropriate to me that this quatrain in its entirety should be exposed in the “AUSTRALIA” forum, since both Allan and I live there. Without Allan we would not have received these warnings.

In the quatrains, Roy (Roi) with a capital “R” is referring to Cepheus the king constellation. With a lower case “r” it is a local king. Notice the word “resusciter” with one “s” where it is spelt ‘ressusciter’ normally. To have had a “spare” “s” left over could have been disastrous, as that is a major date within the Hidden Texts – that of the Celtic Willow (and Owl) being April 15 – May 12. Commonly Easter falls within these dates and Easter is a date the Anun.nakim cannot resist. By not having the word spelt correctly, the date is not included and does not apply. Bon (good/ normal) heur (luck/ hours) Regarding the cloning from DNA of a deceased adult (to keep in mind the word “adult” and not “child”) – part of the cloned sheep Dolly’s problem was that she was made from adult cells! FOREMAN = Prime Minister of Australia (who did disappear for a week)
CACHE = hid FONT = texts. Cesar de Nostradame painted the "lost manuscript" of precessional astronomy under direction of his father. Cesar was 13 at the time
 Self portrait: Cesar de Nostredame
The vignettes of the Lost Manuscripts are illustrations for the Hidden Texts painted by the son of Nostradamus

5 9 3 The first part of this quatrain refers to the prime minister of Australia being forced to trade with Other Worlders. In this case the Other Worlders are the triad of Sirius (Istar), T – Ursa Major (who "trade in men" in other lines) and those (Anu), which use the stage gate in "hades".
 The Elusians were those who revered Demeter, Persephone (who was abducted) and others who "went to Hades and returned". The Hades we speak of is under Pine Gap and in Iraq as well as under the Great Pyramid at Giza. There are twelve gates worldwide, most are shut down AFFRONT: the triad would easily be "affronted" to suit themselves. This is how many 'wars' are started between men – "affronted pride" is one
The second part of this quatrain is telling us several things about the vignettes of the Lost Book of Nostredame.
The word "FACE" is an Alchemye list cipher for the first ten days in any given zodiac month. For some strange reason – the word FACE also describes the second ten days in SCORPIO. When one sees a FACE stuck in an incongruous position in any vignette in the Lost Book – that is what it is telling us! So the first line is saying RATED SON did the art work. Straight from the mouth of Nostradamus...
The FORENAMED FONT is the HIDDEN TEXTS. The word "adorn" means in Libra/October and the word 'set' can mean at Easter. The WHEEL RADIANTS refers to the vignette in which VIRGO is missing from the WHEEL OF PRECESSION. There are seven FACE vignettes

5 9 3: The first two vignettes have been discussed at great length in the CESAR de NOSTREDAME forums.

Discovered when I was told: "DO ARGUE BLUE POINT" – which led onto the other discoveries. It was Cyan blue which gave the March 11 date. This 11 March 11 (in Pisces) is the beginning of the end of many species on this planet. In the OIL SPILL forum, one line stated that the oil spill in question would have "consequences equal to an asteroid". The oil rolling around the ocean floor is now radioactive having passed Japan.

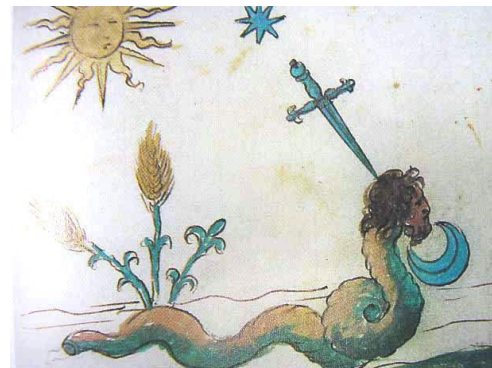

The third vignette is Hercules/Hero clubbing the Prince of Dark Men who is holding an arrow which is an aimed asteroid.

Zeta Reticuli Herculis-Hero (Utu of the lost books of Enki) holds a Branch of haplocaulescence (DNA). The word Branch has been dealt with at great length in the forum WITH WAND IN HAND. Wand is a cipher word for December 23. There is a face at the hem of the robe of Sirius Pophys/Pope. This is also saying our Pope is involved with the greys. Like it or not. The FACE of course, is a date.

Hercules/Hero is also Sagitta the bow man, who is NOT Sagittarius the Centaur.

The fourth shows an angelim (Anu) crowning Sirius. There are four others involved in this scenario, and they look like merchants (traders in men?) "Crown" means in October. The "lamb" means the children.

The face on the lamb/victim would indicate therefore the first ten days in either Libra or October. The person being seated is wearing all white which usually signifies in Virgo/September. So the date here is the first ten days of Libra – in September.

5 9 3 The vignette showing the cow in supplication to Pophys/Sirius could well mean the Pleiades who/which are in the Taurus constellation. It may also indicate in the Zodiac date of Taurus. Alcyone in the Pleiades seems to have become allied with the Anu (according to Wes Penre – a name which turned up in the Hidden Texts) as a 'rogue' element in upcoming events. This pope has on his features a beguiling look – the lie to which is given in the darkness which surrounds him. In the sky over the right shoulder of Pophys/Sirius is Cepheus the king (a reptilian race) and his queen Cassiopeia – the Mantis hybrid breeders. The three form a triad, one of three triads. There are two FACES appearing here so it must mean the two in SCORPIO.

If you have read "Mannequin" by Michael Prince (James Michael Casbolt) - the cow may mean Aldebaren or Algol

The centre vignette of the Phoenix (SCORPIO) has the face of either Cesar or Nostradamus. The ears on the helmet point to either Virgo (ears of corn Spica) or Hermes-Ningishzidda-Thoth (an Anu). The eclipse is the Nibiru solar system passing in front of Sol. All the stars shown represent Ursa Major (the seven down his spine) Cassiopeia – (the five inside the eclipse) – the nine inside the tail (Leo constellation) the three of the Belt of Orion (Anu). When Nostradamus shows the seven stars of the Pleiades, he does so in their form. Cepheus has "seven children" too The most interesting part of this illustration is the sword (Orion) which seems to be swallowed up in a pile of dung – behind which is one wing of a dove. The dove represents one of three things: the Pleiades – the seer – and wisdom. The word "PILE" or "HEAP" means the Pleiades.

Number three shows a sun turned sideways with solar flares. The Kachina Blue star. The three ears of corn indicate the three decans of Virgo in which can be seen the first (actually it is the last in the precession) has lost all its seed. The first decan seems to mean "no decan" while the middle one APPEARS fruitful. The three fleur de lis also represent a triad. The sword of Orion stabs the HEAD (in Aries/Easter). Two eclipses in FACE on the body of Hydra the two headed serpent which has lost its head at the tail. This could mean the reptilians had a mole in their midst. (The 'mole' in the Second coming is the "golden Oar league" of Argo)

5 26 3 Provincial – of the provinces...out in the boondocks – lowly born. Sirius is a solar system, the intention here is that the Prince of Dark Men is not high born (amongst the originators of the real Jesus from Sirius) - but of one of the outer planets of the Sirius system. The words “island” “barque” “ship” “suburb” or “provinces” relates to the big picture as well as the local picture, and means a planet. Earth is usually called an ‘island’ or a ‘barque/ship’. This could also be a hint about the ‘prince’, (lower case ‘P’) meaning a president – a dark president. Saying he was ‘born in the outer countries’.

NOT PROVEN* In the Lost Book of Cesar de Nostredame, the page which has the words ONE MALE also has information about the saint ST. ON IO - IS NOT O [Andromeda] and this information has turned up in this line too (in case no one made the connection on the One Male page) ONE MALE which says MENOLEA (Electron being) also says ELM AEON and ELM is the date mentioned many times in this forum. – in 6 16 1 the Roman numerals “V” & “I” can be either IV (4) or VI (6) Elm is September 2nd to September 29 = the 6th or the 8th

Workers bullied

BULLYING in the workplace is alive and well and the boss is usually to blame, a survey has found. The e-mail survey of almost 2000 people, by recruitment firm Talent2, found 40 per cent of workers had been bullied, with 73 per cent naming the boss as culprit. The problem was worst in the legal sector, where 66 per cent of workers said they had been bullied, but just under half the workers in the public sector and human resources said they were bullying victims. The ACT and Queensland had the highest rates of bullying.

Body bags ready

THE Federal Government is stockpiling thousands of body bags at secret locations across the country in readiness for a bird flu outbreak. It is understood health authorities are planning on up to 5000 casualties in the event of an avian influenza occurring in Australia. Five-thousand body bags were purchased last week by the government agency responsible for an avian influenza outbreak. Emergency Management Australia. They are of the highest quality to ensure there are no leakages of infected body fluid, unlike standard body bags.

COMMUNION ~ BREAKTHROUGH ...EXCERPT from WHITLEY STRIEBER watched as they conducted an encounter with them, and was able to see over a period of years the changes that this brought to my friends' lives. Some people at my cabin in upstate New York came face-to-face with one of them, touched hands, and got detailed physical descriptions. From these and other incidents, I learned extraordinary things about the visitors' true aims.

In this era when so many of us, especially among the young, are beginning to fear that we do not have a future, I discovered that the absolute opposite is probably true: not only do we have a future, it is full of potential more wondrous by far than we have even dared speculate.

Contact, coming in the middle of our era, with all its upheavals, its exploding knowledge base, and growing population pressure, appears to be intended to direct us toward a power that lies undiscovered within us. If we change in the way that I think the visitors are saying that we can, what happens will make our most imaginative hopes seem ridiculously small.

As knowledge grows, we are losing the superstitions that have surrounded and obscured the presence of the visitors, perhaps from time immemorial. We are beginning to see that something real lies behind the old myths and gods—a strange otherness that is beginning to respond. It must never be forgotten that contact was not initiated by the visitors. It was initiated by the growing richness of the human mind.

My readers have provided me with an amazingly varied view of this phenomenon, revealing its vastness and complexity, and completely shattering most of my early assumptions. For example, the "abduction scenario" that has become a media cliché, where the witness is taken into a UFO and examined on a table by apparent aliens, is not often mentioned. There is also no compelling evidence that the visitors are evil, or that people are being hurt, kidnapped, or killed. With regard to religion, I found my own faith and understanding immeasurably enhanced; indeed, contact with the visitors will inevitably lead us to rediscover the richness of all our religions. It will lead to a new foundation, and I cannot imagine that they would challenge or deny any expression of faith. Far from it.

But that does not mean that encounter is easy. It is hard and demanding. What is happening is far more involving, subtle, and strange than would result if we were dealing with a scientific expedition from another planet. This is more—much more.

A few months after my first experiences, I discovered that elements of the government have apparently taken a secret interest in the visitors, and that they guard their secret fiercely.

I also saw, as the letters kept coming, that the visitors have responded to this by simply bypassing our official institutions. They are making direct contact. What the government or any other authority does or does not do at this point is not important.

The reason that the government has been removed from the picture appears to lie in its early response to the visitors. It seems likely that our modern encounter with them began in 1947, with the well-reported sightings of "flying disks" over Mt. Rainier and the Air Force's announcement in July of that year that it had captured a crashed disk. Although it denied that statement shortly after making it, and in 1994 further claimed that the debris recovered was a balloon, I can demonstrate with assurance that both of these claims are false. This is based on what I learned by getting caught up in a secret, although informal, congressional inquiry that is unrelated to the present Government Accounting Office investigation of UFO issues, and is referred to publicly for the first time in this book.

The originators of the policy of secrecy and denial have apparently bypassed the elective government, ignoring legal mandates to congressional oversight and executive supervision.
