

Visiting the PROLOGUE TO THE CENTURIES only because of the following line in 2 10 4 from the ISON forum...

There is a PROLOGUE to the original Centuries, 15 pages in tight French – with the lines chopped to fit anagrams just as Monstre d'ABUS was. The hidden texts, once again, told me what to do in 2 10 4 here. From the Prologue this collection is only an excerpt, just from the latinised lines in italics here is:

When the eclipse of the Sun will then be,
The monster will be seen in full day:
Quite otherwise will one interpret it
High price unguarded: none will have foreseen it. Or Not caring about expense none will have provided for it (Cheetham)

This Eclipse is the 30 hours [some say three days] of 'sack cloth' and « all colours will be the same » (da Vinci) caused by Nibiru, and this monster is Nibiru

Not caring about expense none will have provided for it is interesting. Those who have the means to "not care about expense" (sometimes called the 'elite') are placed in the same sentence as those which did NOT provide for it!

In mathematics, Fourier analysis is the study of the way general functions may be represented or approximated by sums of simpler trigonometric functions. Fourier analysis grew from the study of Fourier series, and is named after Joseph Fourier, who showed that representing a function as a sum of trigonometric functions greatly simplifies the study of heat propagation.
