This is what is meant by quatrain 5 98 1:

L'an. mil neuf cens non.inte neuf fept mois.

The year. new centuries one thousand non prefixed new seventh month.

pairs 6 2 3 En l'an [fept cens] & [neuf cieux] feront tef moings, (tes/yours. moins/less... mois could mean "less")

In/made the seventh century <sup>676AD</sup> and new <sup>papal</sup> celestia <sup>calendar</sup> yours will be much less. <sup>324 years removed</sup>

Just to play the devil's advocate ~ let's say, that first "n" might be an accident attached to a period as it is. Go to the other "n"s in the line and compare them. Subtle, isn't it! Although there is only one other "a" in the line; had nonante been the word – look how clear and distinct the first "a" is, meaning there is no reason it would not be just as clear in nonante!

The inside joke here, is that the "t" for the Latin "inte" could be a "j", which we have been learning is an "i" anyway! There actually is another ditrochee in the line, faint, but there nevertheless. Between mo and is. The French for mo means "staff"/clerks in this case, and the "is" is "issu" which means "descended from, produced". It is also a pun on Yssu – which appears in the Template meaning Ysus – Jesus. These are what is called "pointers" in the directives to the collator. The directives on how to find the intended true meaning. One might have begun with "why do it in the English Language?" Allan Webber did write up answers to this most important question, which will be published in the same day as this forum. Allan found that the Quatreins anagrammed worked in any language that he attempted. Compare the clear and concise "a" in L'an to where the same "a" has been taken (presumed) by "scholars" to be in 'ante'. The combination of the words non.inte have been misread all these years to say "nonante" (which in actuality means "not before") but always taken as "ninety", in French it is quatre-vingt-dix. In Belgium & Switzerland nonante is ninety. Taking into account the ditrochee, which is quite clear - the indication is it was never meant to mean ninety. The "non" & the "ante" (ie misread as 'ante') have been concisely divided to say on the one hand: "not before", ie "suffixed" that is, if the "i" had really been an "a".

Therefore the meaning of this line with its huge definitive full stop at the end of it indicating stop here • ('and take note of the other full stop periods in this line acting according to directives the Template provides') .... interprets as:

THE YEAR. NEW CENTURIES ONE THOUSAND NEW SEVENTH MONTH NON- PREFIXED.

No doubt, the reader would at this stage, like to know what this is really about. What the real line is telling us, and NOT in the texts hidden, but in plain sight. The 'authority' of the times had mandated an extra one thousand years be added to the calendar. This was done by clerics simply changing the "i" ("j") for Ysus to a number 1. This was accomplished against their will, as demonstrated in the forum FIX THE CALENDARS. pg 15 Having only just yesterday found the prefixed date in Presage i562 written up as the true date format, that is, "in the year of our Lord Jesus" 562 ... I see a couple of coincidences. For one – i562 was the publication date for the only authentic full Ten Centuries of Quatrains published while Nostradamus was still alive. Centuries 11 and 12 are Centuries of Sixaines, and those refer to the times we are living in now, which is why he "rendered them to Vulcan" (behind his hearth fire). They use such words as "crocodilian" relating to "messiah": quite dangerous words for himself, living in times of awaiting a "returning Messiah". 10 75 long awaited he will never return

That he should date this important Presage displaying the prefixed "j", where a number 1 now appears, is for us, another hint that all is not well with our calendars. Not to mention proof that this concerned him. There is a really good reason for not only the subtle warnings, but for repairing the problem with alacrity. That the year i562<sup>2</sup> should speak of these matters should be noted as prophecy. Somewhere in the century encompassing 350 to 490 or thereabouts, * the matter was not yet set in stone, not until 676, when July was made to be Yule of 1,000 – and the A.D. was tacked on because the prefix had been altered to a number "1". We will see other hints later in a table for a DARK AGE period from the Quatrains under the word BRETON ...

*encompassing Breton age 350 to 490 or thereabouts/ this is mentioned to remind the reader that sixteen years after 1566, (the doc died 1566) the Gregorian Calendar was introduced; in 1582. With a number 1. As far as we know.

10 72 1 Is not the only quatrain hiding hints. Clues are scattered betwixt many quatrains and the only person likely to find them is an analysist-collator, following this hint here:

6 2 1 En l'an cinq cens octante plus & moins, In the [centuries] year five hundred and eighty less and more (1582/1582) C5:80

. The publication Cheetham was working with had it as :

6 2 3 En l'an fept [cens & trois] cieux en tefmoings ... this is still legitimate as a quatrain since "serre" was in I 63 3 of Cheetham's edition published by Chavigny only two years after the doctor passed away; who may have been much maligned by scholars simply because the doctor failed to name him in his will – a will written the very same week Nostradamus died (the July 2nd 1566 date); and I would take it to read "seventh century [676AD] and three [centuries, 324 years] heavens [papal] declared" [by edict].

The same edict of "two laws" of 5 80 3 Of the two laws the heathen [non believer] one will give way

6 2 3 En l'an [fept cens] & [neuf cieux] feront tef moings, doing exactly what he did in 10 72 1 – using "neuf" as "new" but also sending us to look at Centuries 7 Quatrain 9. The same with disguising the actual year of 1582, tells us to go to C 5 Q 80 with the qualifier of "more and less", both as a year "more" than 1580, and as quatrains which surround 5:80. "More" then became 6 2, 7 3 & 7 9 (along with 10 72 1). The "less than 5 80" is 1562 both as a Presage and as a quatrain. We (you and me) had actually been led to look closely at 1562 right here! One can see how easy it is to dedicate one's time (life-time) to delving into these works – the very same which Stephen Fry pontificated on his TV show "IQ" as "a whole lot of rubbish".

Presage 1562 is the ONLY occasion I have seen the doctor use the Yesus prefix. With the Inquisition knocking on his neighbours doors, I find it particularly brave to have done so (publicly publishing a hint – backing up <sup>C+F+</sup> 5 61 4 & 1 62 4).

6 2 3 In the seventh century (676AD) and new (papal) celestial (calendar) yours will be much less. <sup>tes = yours moins = less</sup>

If we hark back to the Preface to Cesar, where Nostradamus is trying to guide his young son in the ways of understanding certain terms – he warns that it is only by the celestial means can we arrive at correct dating.

Being in the days of horse carried mail, the ratification by Byzantine Constantine of an Edict at Rome seems to have taken ninety four years to have reached the rest of the educated world. The public generally is not aware that the Gregorian Calendar was only accepted world-wide @1922– and that included the use of radio!

As a result we can see much overlapping of various calendars for many centuries. The one constant are stars. I did search for that Roman Edict of around 676A.D. It has been well hidden – for good reasons. For one thing, it very likely is ensconded within the Vatican Library – and it is those that run the Vatican which stand to profit from the changing of those calendars. The fiddling with 324 years and the adding of one thousand.

The REAL REASON FOR THIS DATING WAS CONTRACTUAL. BEING THE DATE LIMITS IN CERTAIN TREATIES. FOR EXAMPLE: CLAUSES FOR (say) 2014 'PAYMENT', ARE NOT REALLY DUE FOR ANOTHER THOUSAND YEARS.

Changing calendars from Julian to Gregorian; had pope Gregory XIII really been in 1582, he should have removed 13 days, not 10, said Pr. Hans Ulrich Niemitz.<sup>1</sup> Implying that three centuries were already amiss at that date which makes me wonder if the 676 date (provided by the hidden texts) has been a mistake on my behalf. The fact that it was 325 'C.E.' that the Nicean Council convened to edit works into a New Testament to tack onto the bible seems more than coincidence regarding the number 324 (and a half – to July)

One cannot go to a Wikipedia and search "Prince Otto" since the dates therein are the wrong ones. Same for Psellus' Cronographia of 1055AD. Has there been an error by the simple words "sixth century"?

One other clue is in 1 68 2 that one pope Innocent delivers three (centuries) coming 4 Done in horror by drunken traders.

FRENCH inte = prefix – break – in front of (inte-semester)

DEFINE NON-PREFIXED = prefix removed and or suffixed

Here we have Nostradamus telling us that the former prefix to calendars of the "i" or the "j" was removed and replaced with the letters purporting to still refer to Jesus. The letters of A.D. meant to mean Anno Domini as the "year of our Lord". This A.D. represents to me just another empire form of control, their little joke (if they had a sense of humour). At the time – nearly all of the public could not read or write, much less understand the Latin. Other interpretations of A.D. include Anno Domini – year of being dominated – domained - dominion.**

Or Ante Diem – before the day. This has sinister implications, if you think on it. The hidden alarm right in your face.

- The suffix of A.D. for Anno domini (year of our Lord) see more regarding the definition of A.D. following pages was added by pope Innocent in league with Constantine VII (or VIII who straddled the 1,000A.D. calendar according to Wiki when they together made a public Edict that July "j"<sup>676</sup> will become 1,000A.D. To add the A.D. meant removing the prefix "I"/"j" so this seems to me to be no 'clerical' error, but done culpably, in collusion, between the Empire of Byzantium and Rome. Say the Hidden Texts. When researching these popes and emperors you will find large discrepancies all over the place. That was the Plan.

If the First Mass Contact drama does take place, as the UIR presently intends (anywhere between 2002 and 2009), they will have already gained full control of Earth's portal systems, and will be able to initiate pole shift precisely when desired via the Nibirian Battlestar, the crystalline installation beneath Stonehenge, England, and their global network of subterranean bases located across the planet. today's find is a MAJOR discovery

The infamous 10 72 KING OF TERROR quatrain which everyone for ever, has thought commences thus:

"The year 1999 seventh month"

Take a look at the Very Original quatrain line from the 1562 edition - published while Nostradamus was still alive.

The image of this line is here for you. there are unusual full stops (periods) in the line which are ditrochees that Nostradamus put there for a reason. There is a full stop immediately after the first word L'an. then there is one immediately after the word "non". followed very closely by the word "inte". The words non.inte are in the Latin.

This is done with great intent using proof-reader's tools (punctuation) as a subterfuge.

One that is explained in the texts hidden by anagram within the quatrains. It appears under the word "ditrochee" in but could also be referring to that event during the Troy Epoch which has left evidence of nuclear warfare scarring the planet across the Arabian peninsular, may have also been the Harrapa event. There is much written in ancient texts about Vimanas and Nuclear warfare. In his Earth Chronicles series, Zecharia Sitchin describes a rivalry between EnKi and EnLil which did not go well for the aggressor Enlilites, the wind having shifted and nuked their own camp. One might say instant karma.

9 85 3. D'ouvrir par foy paroy Phocen tiendra fon trofne Marseilles will hold its throne, to open the wall by faith

THE YEAR. NEW CENTURIES ONE THOUSAND NON- PREFIXED NEW SEVENTH MONTH.

When the previous [to us] calendar was Julian (but current to Nostradamus since Gregorian was not made an edict until 1582, sixteen years after his death) the Julian began in April-spring making the "new seventh month" for Nostradamus as November. In which case: When reading 1 42 – the reader must be fully astonished at his implication with line one saying:

Le dix Kalendes d'April de fait Gotique 1555 publication "The tenth of the April Calends calculated in Gothic fashion"

(the date of April 10 referenced in the rest of 1 42 was about Aleister Crowley writing the "Book of the Law of One" which he misinterpreted.* The Law Of One is actually about quantum mechanics – and this was the "gold"/knowledge sought by the "diabolical gathering" in line three, "seeking the gold of the Ornament (Nostradamus in 3 94) and Psellus (Michael Psellus the Younger who did write about quantum mechanics in his Cronographia published 1055 AD. Whatever year that really was) *This misinterpretation – taken on purpose – IS NAMED IN Presage 1562. This is the only time I have seen the "J" (sigil for "in the year of our Lord Jesus") prefix used by Nostradamus. Look closely. First perception is illusive, which is exactly what Nostradamus was counting on in many such proof-read examples that he had instigated.

This particular "J" font can be seen in many examples provided by Sylvie Ivanova in her videos, at MONOLITH.ORG

One needs to ask, why would he explicitly mention a particular calendar?

The answer must lie in the definition of 'Gothic'. We need to find that Gothic which Nostradamus means and not modern 'Goth'. Fifth century east German - from the name of the Visigoths who routed Rome (and its Kalends) during the 400s. Keeping in mind the sixth century, the "500s" was actually the century in which Nostradamus lived! And King Artur not long gone.

(We have seen the giant king Artur visiting Rome and appearing on the stone door lintel of Modena church with his entourage)

Began March equinox, what is called the Vernal (spring) equinox, when daylight hours and night time hours are equal in number "Middle Ages" which is what "Medieval" means. Only termed "the dark ages" because of the lack of archaeology, with a very good reason for that! There was none. Modern students of arhaeology just cannot bring themselves to believe that the leap from Visigoth taking Rome to the construction of magnificent Gothic Cathedrals could have happened consequentially. There is no evidence of intermediate architecture other than the Romanesque. This is what Nostradamus really meant when he told us that "Breton king aquaint Norman" with hints in 7 10 3, 9 7 4, 9 58 4, 9 59 4 following

Much in the same way the "missing genetic hominoid link" has not yet been found to prove the theory of evolving humans.

Are these two events related?

Whoever appeared on the scene to provide the stunning architecture of Gothic Cathedrals hot on the heels of nothing-much-like-it-immediately prior? Always thinking the word "Mason", as in Stone Mason (which it seems the real Yesu actually was - with the adjective of "Carpenter" really meaning he was from Carpenter (constellation, which is now the Compass and Divider constellation of the Freemasons, in Leo Minor area). The connection between the burying of the cronor visor under Oak Island by the Templars assisted by Off Worlders with Good Intentions happened in the i4th Century (the i300s. It was in the same "300s" that the Nicene Council edited a Bible to suit their agenda - the "New" Testament, including Revelation - a collection of prophecy gained using the cronor visor).

Months determined by the event in that month, in the same way native Americans - such as the ten days of falling leaves is Fall, which some would call "Pagan" - in tune with Nature. In those days if one was not in tune with the world around, one died.

An interesting detail, if it is true, that the Medieval day began at sundown. This is also during the times of the "two sleeps" during the night.

"What von Neumann was working on was nothing less than Godhood itself. The fulfilment of (FALSE) prophecy made by the Goddess to a German order of the Knights Templar at the gates of her most ancient city of Nineveh during the reign of Frederick II, over seven hundred years ago".

If we are actually in IO18 right now, "over 700 years ago" makes Frederick II reigning in the 4th century, the 300s, which would be pertinent but on minimal research Frederick II (The Great) reigned from 1-740. That is not even about "700 years ago".

(1000 minus 324) would equal the "Breton king aquaint Norman". .. minus the 600+ years we have been taught the gap is.

How clever were those off worlders! Add 1000 years by changing the prefix from "i" to a number "1".

Then have prince Otto bring forward the centuries in July 676AD by 324 years calling it One Thousand A.D.

Giving foundation to the words "no man shall know the hour".

"was nothing less than Godhood itself." - Von Neumann was working on time travel.

It took me a while to realize why they picked on this forum. The title was intended to remind me more than the readers that I had plucked Da Vinci lines out of the ADRIATIC forum because it was becoming too large, and had not worked with them, which they needed doing. To anyone else (in an alphabet group) they must have thought the texts hidden were about Da Vinci being picked up by time gate out of the Adriatic. Nevertheless – notwithstanding, he actually had been, calling the event "being huxed". IE "fished for".*

(1000 minus 324) would equal the "Breton king acquaint Norman"... minus the years we have been taught
HAD Breton begun ca 366 say, (but recognised as 350 to 490 defeated by Saxons) and Norman begun i066 (but really i742 conquering Saxons) the gap between Breton at 366 and Norman at i066 is around 700 years. I say around because the king said to have begun the Breton dynasty came to the throne 350 but never sired children until his 70th year in 420 the founder of Brittany Conan Meriadoc king about 350 <sup>born?</sup> died 421 C.E. according to the source, fathered 2 children 420 & 421 C.E. given the kingdom of Maximianus/Roman France 4th century, <sup>the 300s</sup> (the 300s [ i350 ] to end of 400s/5th century) – by tradition, the founder of Brittany– <sup>(Cumberlandfamilysoftware www.cft_win.com)</sup> summarizing the Breton to Norman table supplied later:

BRETON 350/421 to 490 = 150 or 187 years being the last king the other king Artur who was killed at the siege (battle) of Badon in 537 (The "Strife of Camlann") names him "pershing alongside Medraut" (Mordred).
This would take the Breton age to 537 C.E. overlapping the Saxon "age" by nearly fifty years, and Conan took the reins in 350
BRETON <sup>Dynasty</sup> 421 to 537 C.E. = 116 years (I say "dynasty" because Conan never produced children until he was 70 (!)
SAXON 490/537 to 742 = 252 years or around 205 years according to the siege of Badon. Saxon might include Tudor NORMAN i066 /742 to 891 = 149 years <sup>Until king John and the Magna Carta JUNE 1215- = 891 C.E.</sup> supposedly there is a bit over 3 centuries [324 yrs] between Breton/dynasty 116 +Saxon 205 = 321 years and Norman kings at 742 C.E. minus 321 years = 421, the beginning of Breton progeny. We know the kings of Breton, and we know the kings up to Harald/Harold at Hastings. The Saxon kings never covered a period of 529 years 537 C.E. (defeat of Artur) to i066 A.D.
TABLE OF KINGS:

Breton: just playing with numbers here – if Hastings was really 742, and Breton 417 – then the difference would be 325 years
Saxon to be defined as "better ACQUAINTED with NORMAN " says Nostradamus – encompassing Tudor (i500s) since Henry VIIIth just happened to die the same year Henri Valois II was born, he of Nostradamus' Epistle (short history) and I am beginning to suspect the word NAVARRE we see throughout the quatrains will rear its ugly head as well.

Ephesians 6:12 "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

What are Reptilians? What is their origin?

I will begin with the simple basics and move on into a more detailed explanation. I think for many reading this, it will soon make perfect sense as to why Reptilians are the way they are and why they are so blood thirsty.

Reptilians are not angels or demons. They are what they are.

They are a dominion power of another realm. Some Reptilians exercise control of another realm and operate out of that realm as a home base.

They are pirates of a sort. Some have ties to Venus, Orion, Sirius, and Pleiades.

Reptilians have the ability to operate inter-dimensionally and are able to manifest physically.

Reptilians have their own agenda, their own type of plan, however, as I explained earlier, Reptilians are very much under the management of [a] Satan's spiritual hierarchy.

Were do Reptilians come from? Were they created by God?

No, Reptilians were not a creation of God. They are an off shoot of another species, a renegade group.

They don't want to believe in their beginning of how they came into being.

Their beginning took place in another realm. They were an experiment gone wrong. They, the Reptilians took over.

They were created for a specific purpose, but something went awry.

They don't want to think that they were created. They want to be considered as the master race.

Reptilians are a by-product of the Nephilim. They are a super soldier type being created to do battle against the enemies of the Nephilim. They turned on their creators. They were more than their creators could handle. They quit taking orders. They decided that they were not going to do battle for the Nephilim. They considered themselves to be better than their creators.

The reason they are blood thirsty warriors and fierce looking is because that is what they were created to be.

They were multi-dimensional and could go to different dimensions and realms and were mainly used on earth.

They have the ability to shape shift or change their form.

They harness energy from our physical earth.

They are vermin like rats that take over an area if left unchecked. They are like blood thirsty vermin. They are what they are. They do what they do because that is what they are.

REPTILIAN REPRODUCTION

How do Reptilians reproduce or replicate?

They hijack other life forms. They prefer to use humans.

They use a method called "twinning" which they learned from the Nephilim. Twinning is kind of like cloning. They create a type of clone from a piece of the original Reptilian, but upon birth, it begins to gather to itself it's own experiences.

Life is in the blood. Blood cells are like a slice of themselves and are the type of cells used for twinning.

Their blood cells contain the blue print of everything they are, including their genetic memory, life force, intellect etc. This can be switched on for full memory or partial. Full memory would be a replica of the complete memory of the original. They don't like to have a complete twin made because there is an identity competition. One would kill the other.

Reptilians are very competitive. A clone would kill the original because the clone would want to BE the original.

Reptilian Replication: The 11 Point Process

- 1.) Done by a process called twinning.
- 2.) Twinning has to do with the blood.
- 3.) Their life is in their blood.
- 4.) Their blood cell contain the blueprints for everything they are including intellect, spirit and memories, a type of genetic memories. These memories can be switched on if necessary. This is not desirable because the twin may try to kill the original.
- 5.) A single blood cell which has connection to the bone marrow is separated from their body.
- 6.) They use some type of energy maybe electricity that activates the part of the cell that is the life force. The life force is connected to every thing that is in the cell.
- 7.) This area of the cell that is the life force begins to direct the cell to form another entity. The life force is connected to everything in that cell. This process involves magnetic qualities. It activates everything to begin working. This life force contains spirit, memories, and intellect. All characteristics to be expressed are contained in the cell.
- 8.) This cell must be deposited into another life form as the preferred method of replication. The preferred targets for hijacking are humans. Although they find humans detestable, it is a necessary element of the process. The cell itself at this point may be in another dimension or any where else.
- 9.) The cell is in some way joined to a human egg. The Reptilian cell is a viable thing, and can go in different directions.
  - a. The Reptilian cell is joined to human egg fertilized by human sperm in the womb.
  - b) in a laboratory.

c. Less desirable, the Reptilian cell is joined to an unfertilized human egg.

They are using science. They learned this through the Nephilim.

10.) The Reptilian cell is able to combine into the life form to the extent that it has the ability to project the physical characteristics of the human while remaining in charge. They can not kill the human spirit, but they subdue and subjugate it.

11.) They rule the host from this point forward.

- At times they impose their form on the host body such as at rituals where they eat human sacrifices.

They prefer the Reptilian form over the human form.

Because a Reptilian can be replicated, memory and all through one blood cell, if a Reptilian is killed, it can be completely replicated along with it's original consciousness. In that sense, they never die. It works like the above explanation, but the part of the cell that contains the full conscious memory is not shut off.

Replication is being done in laboratories across the US.

Reptilian people working in labs are the ones motivated to make the replicas.

Another manner the Reptilians reproduce:

When 2 infected humans procreate, Reptilians consider that offspring to be theirs and of Reptilian bloodline.

Sometimes a person's exercise of will can prevent the Reptilian part from fully expressing itself or taking over.

People with Reptilian DNA in them are unconsciously attracted to those who also have such such DNA. It is like being attracted to a scent on an unconscious level.

Why humans are the preferred host:

1.) Humans because similar DNA.

- Reptilians don't like to acknowledge it, but they already have human DNA in them because they were created by the Nephilim with Nephilim DNA and Nephilim are part human.

2.) To have an anchor on earth.

- Using any terrestrial creature gives them an anchor to the physical plane because a terrestrial creature is made of the substance of the physical plane (earth), but humans have a spiritual authority above all creatures. Even unredeemed humans.

3.) Our intelligence is desirable over other terrestrial life forms.

4.) For spiritual authority.

- Hijacking a human body gives them use of a spiritual authority here on earth that belongs only to humans.

- The spirit of humans are different than all other creatures in creation. We have what I call "the God particle" which is the stamp of the Creator Himself. Mankind was created to be co-rulers over creation with God.

(There is a huge reason spiritual beings are seeking out humans. They need us to agree with them so they can use us to have access to things on earth as well as in the supernatural. There are places that these beings don't have access to unless they use humans to get access for them.) Carolyn Hamlett

See the "j" and the "j" as the heading? Now look at the full stop after the number one in the date. All pointers contain eight or 16 'spokes'. Set in stone.

add to which : Nostradamus = every quatrain or mention in his work of the word tercentenary often attached with "Byzantium" in one form or another and the word "edict" relates to the added hundreds of years – then again in the hidden texts – much more and numerous explicit mentions and see Presage J562 which is proof positive that Nostradamus knew of the 1,000 years added to calendars

Pg 16 Fix the Calendars

- 1066 Minus 676 A.D. [composed of minus the edict 324 plus the clerical 'error' 1,000] is 390 C.E. "Breton age"
- EXCEPTING IT WAS NOT IO66 making the 390 Conan Meriadoc date a pure coincidence (?)

i390 we know 'W' was not in use* in France at 390 C.E because Nostradamus did not have it in J555 A.D./C.E. but it was in use 590 C.E. even after pope Gregory in I582 A.D. Adding that even tho the "A.D." was not supposed to be instituted until the 676 alterations, we have seen Nostradamus use it ad liberatum, in the i500s. This detail was my own sticking point, that Nostradamus was using 'A.D.' before it was made edict. While working with this forum, I was sent to a place (unwittingly of course) where a quatrain hit me in the left eye (my good one). That quatrain is number 62 (once again), but in the i557 Prophecies. <sup>C+F+CYRILLIC</sup> I do hope you are as amazed as I was.

"W" came into use very late in the "i500s" possibly brought from Wales, Waroch II used it in 590

"W" was not used by Celt-Saxons from Germania - they used "V" and it is still pronounced "wa"

WILLIAM was written with two "V"s intersecting in the signing of the treaty at Hastings in i066 (really i 742) in one panel and as WV in the very next frame. If one looks at the first "W" it looks exactly like the person stitching the letters was running out of room and had actually overlapped the two "V"s to create the "W".

so 1066 = i742 * removing 324 years. Removing 1000 = 66 add 676 - 742)

*where did I get 390 from? I066 - 676 = 390 - PROBLEM IS THIS - IT WAS NOT IO66

THE GAP BETWEEN "BRETON KING AND NORMAN" = 742 minus 324 Otto "called 676" as "1,000"
 324 is the gap
 = 418 AD = 5th C (reconciles by 742 - 66 = 676AD)

Arthur's grandfather, had crossed the Channel from Brittany and established his dynasty early in the 5th century.

The Breton King Aldrien ...

The Breton King Aldrien had been asked to rescue Britain from the turmoil in which it found itself after the Roman administration had departed. (The date for this event taught to us is around 412 AD early in the 5th century)

He sent his brother, Constantine - Constantine appears to have been the historical self-proclaimed British Emperor who took the last Roman troops from Britain in a vain attempt to assert his claims on the Continent in 407 A.D early in the 5th century

Early Breton rulers. Conan Meriadoc (4th century) - by tradition, the founder of Brittany...

IN THE 300S ... CANNOT BE CORRECT IF THE ROMAN AUTHORITY DID NOT DEPART UNTIL CA 412 AD UNLESS IT MEANS VERY LATE IN THE 4TH CENTURY INTO VERY EARLY IN THE 5TH CENTURY (which Conan 1 was)

the founder of Brittany

Conan Meriadoc king about 350+ died 421 AD according to the source
 (Cumberlandfamilysoftware www.cft.win.com)

To complicate historical matters, search sites such as Wikipedia have other Kings named Conan 1, II and III reigning around the tenth century and into the 11th. A long way from the 4th and 5th centuries.

Conan the 2nd being the very same who handed "the keys to William" according to the Bayeux Tapestry.

Since I do not know how to "fiddle" with images, I will just have to rely on you to supply your own imagination.

This fashion here is 6th century, meaning the 550s. Described as "Middle Saxon" where I found it Viz: that of the times of Nostradamus.

All you need do in your mind is change the outer cape to a lovely deep burgundy-maroon colour, unclasp it at the throat (this might be the feminine version shown) – give it a fairly broad leather style of belt (about two inches wide) and we then have exactly what Nostradamus was wearing on his second visit to me.

"The visit in Easter 2009, where he had said "she berates her vertebrae in Easter"<sup>182</sup> when, while trying to clamber out of her recliner she almost put her head into his belly button. He had been standing behind her chair, observing." From the upcoming book ABBE – Father in Heaven

In this picture I have cut off the footwear, simply because I did not see his feet and do not know what shoes he was wearing.

In nine years of hind-sight, I realize what that visit was really about. It was exactly so I can compare the fashions since they always provide a true date. Mankind has never ever sat still and stagnated within one fashion – and certainly not for over 300 years. Not even the Greeks and the Romans did that!

AISE AGENTS SELL VAINEST SEARCH

The "vainest" search is when people who do not want to know (lepers) are finally "sold" on the off worlder problem AYSE agents includes Alex Collier (named in the texts), Nostradamus, and those doing the work of "selling" the warnings in the texts hidden and supplied by the Casseopean and Andromeda Council (Regency Order)
 The "agent" who had a tractor accident just before Easter 2009, only to have Nostradamus turn up to check on her, he was in full body and in colour on this occasion, whereas the previous time (the very first visit in January) he was more ethereal.

"Between Antiquity (1 AD) and the Renaissance (1500 AD) historians count approximately 300 years too many in their chronology. In other words: the Roman emperor Augustus really lived 1700 years ago instead of the conventionally assumed 2000 years."

"However, the whole well-known historiography of the Middle Ages contradicts this assertion!

The easiest way to understand doubts about the accepted chronology and 'well-known' history is to seriously systematize the problems of medieval research. This will lead us to detect a pattern which proves my thesis and gives reason to assume that a phantom period of approximately 300 years has been inserted between 600 AD to 900 AD, either by accident, by mis-interpretation of documents or by deliberate falsification (Illig 1991).

This period and all events that are supposed to have happened therein never existed. Buildings and artifacts ascribed to this period really belong to other periods.

Art historians and architects explain and describe artifacts and buildings of this period as anachronistic – but they never follow up on their assessments."

" In 1582 Pope Gregory XIII started the so-called 'Gregorian calendar', which is basically a corrected version of the old Julian calendar of Julius Caesar. The Julian calendar, after being used for a long time, no longer corresponded with the astronomical situation. The difference, according to calculations by Pope Gregory, amounted to 10 days. Now please calculate: how many Julian years does it take to produce an error of 10 days? The answer is 1257 years. The question – at which date was the Julian calendar correct – can be calculated with the following amazing result (Illig 1991):

$$1582 - 1257 = 325 \text{ Niemitz}$$

(The year in which the "Gregorian" calendar began minus the years necessary to produce 10 days of error in the Julian calendar equals the beginning the Julian calendar.)>>>

Discussions at length regarding dendochronology and C14 dating methods and errors in their results, then:

"The few existing stratigraphies of [various] German towns give evidence of the phantom time. In Frankfurt am Main archaeological excavations did not find any layer for the period between ca 650 and ca 910 AD."

"Otto III didn't live accidentally around the year 1000 AD; he himself had defined this date! He wanted to reign in this year, because this suited his understanding of Christian milleniarism. He defined this date with the help of his famous and well-versed friend Gerbert de Aurillac, later Pope Sylvester II. In reality they lived approximately seven hundred years after the birth of Jesus Christ, but never until then had the years been reckoned 'after Christ'. [A.D.]

Perhaps unaware of their error and without intending to falsify they defined one special year as '1000 AD' (Illig 1991). Consequently chroniclers had to invent 300 years of history.

To fill up empty periods – what a great occasion for dynasties and kings! You can design the planned future as a construct of the past, and this apparently happened.

It is not important to explain the motivation of the emperor Constantine VII. I only want to demonstrate, that an action of rewriting and faking like this has happened. If it could happen in Byzantium, it might have happened at any other place, too. Moreover Theophanu, mother of Otto III, came from Byzantium and was a niece of the emperor Tzismiskes (emperor from 969 AD until 976 AD), a descendant of the same dynasty as Constantine VII. As to the question of who faked and why, there could be many speculations. It seems that in this question surprises are ahead which could create trouble for many academic institutions as well as other social groups.".....

(Collator interjection here:

What are the chances of the Hidden Texts and or the Quatrains telling us (you and me) details that are then followed up by these gentlemen listed above from over two decades ago. Such details as "between 600 AD to 900 AD," [seventh century to 10th] and that number 325?!

which for us has been 324 ½ (hence the reminder of JULI AS YULE)

I have to tell you – when I opened this NIEMITZ article which I have not looked at since working with THE SHROUD IS REAL (June 20 2013) I had not ever recalled seeing the number 325 in it. My heart began thumping to the point of pain when my eyes lit on that number just now.

Somewhen, a person needs to collect all quatrain lines that relate to a calendar, compile them, and see what the result is. Here in this forum which was intended to be a "quickie" (laughing at that) a commencement has ushered in the mind-map required by beginning with the words BRETON ACQUAINT NORMAN. Key search words would include ASTRONOMIQUE, CELESTIAL, CENS - CENTURIES. GRAINS. HOURS. LANES, and I will think of more as we go.

from climax, = astrological rung, critical point, yet in this case also climate:

the texts hidden gives 2023, as the beginning of the ice age in Aquarius month but the astrological rung refers to our orbit too...

noting the word "progressions"

and Letter #34 which continually mentions i562 within it, under "five solar progressions" [amongst others,] i561, i562, i563, i564 (add the cipher of 458) as the clue. = 2019 to 2022

Interesting that in the Epistle to Henri, Nostradamus wrote the following :

first :

"La plebe se levera soustenant, déchassera les adherans des legislatureurs, & [et] semblera que les regnes affaiblis par les Orientaux ...

- the ordinary folk risen up, legislators sticking to hunting [them] = [Orion] E.T. resembling those that reign via the Orient...

- that the Creator God having delayed Satan in [his] infernal (from inferno) prison, (Satan) made born of the great Dog (Sirius) the Dogon E.T. (Noting the word Dog is spelt in English). I have left the miss-spelt "P" altered to 's' here
- And this is EXACTLY how the "fallen angels" have been described within these hidden texts! With emphasis put on the words "made born" – as in genetically cross bred and en vitro. Thus describing both the Alcyonese and the Dero. then
"après commencera le peuple Romain de se redresser, & [et] def chasser quelques obfcures tenebres recevant
- after commencing cordoning/roping (off) the Roman folk for adjustment, (FEMA style camps) & as soon as hunting some [the] obscure darkness gathers few in the texts hidden many alerts have been about people being hunted during a world event, but the "obscure darkness" here could also mean the "shadow government"

" "WHY AREN'T WE TOLD?

“Radiometric dating?” snorted Ray. “It’s useless in dating the past!”

“What do you mean... useless?” I Johnathon Gray asked.

“Look,” said Ray. “I’ll give you an example.

Human remains found deep in the delta deposit near New Orleans, Louisiana, were dated at 57,000 years – but when wood from the gunwhale of a Kentucky flatboat was found deeper, the 57,000 years shrank to 200 or less.

“You’re kidding!” I Johnathon Gray exclaimed.

“No, that was true. And do you know, C-14 dating of Egyptian pharaohs’ tombs have registered mummies

500 years ‘older’ than their sarcophagi!

And grains older than the containers in which they were found.”

A field archaeologist must not take anything for granted.

This was something I had to check out.

During many years of living in Australia, I made several visits to the island state of Tasmania.

I know of a farmer near the town of Burnie who was removing some fence posts on his property.

These had been set in the ground less than 100 years earlier.

He discovered that the in-ground portion of each post had actually opalised.

The farmer mischievously sent samples of the petrified wood to two Australian institutions, asking them to date the wood.

The institutions were La Trobe University in Melbourne and the National University in Canberra.

The two labs dated the two specimens at two vastly different ages – one insisting that the wood was 100,000 years old.

When the farmer protested that this was definitely not so, he was assured that this HAD to be the age of the wood!

These kind of things began to get me worried.

What was going on here?

Can you see? Something is wrong – drastically wrong.

This kind of evidence should be enough to discredit the system.

WHO IS BEHIND THIS DECEPTION?

I won’t bore you with how dating systems are worked out.
