

speaking of calendars- would you mind raising the subject of the missing 324 years please – according to the hidden texts, they are saying Michael TELLINGER is the one to let the world know and here are lines today which clearly describes the issue that we are really in 1691AD.

THE REASON for this alteration of our calendar is in the words:

- o UNDERMINES AMERICAN by removing the true history which does include extra terrestrial beings, the one thing the elite did not want to admit to since it is they who made the "trade in men" 'treaties in order to gain technology from which they make a lot of money and which they deny to the rest of us when it suits them.
- o The fact that Teddy Roosevelt suddenly made National Parks 'no go' areas for real estate or industrialization has an underlying reason according to these texts, in that the "Dero" which lives underground is the mutated and inbred remnants of the 'Nephilim'. Recall the Bible says the Nephilim were still on Earth after the Great flood intended to wipe them out? They had merely gone underground. Yet they do need to surface for hunting forays.

- o ODD HERO is the J-Rod52 who returned via time gate appearing as one of the crashed occupants of Roswell. Hero because he volunteered to return in order to repair time lines the industrial military complex had unravelled. The assistant to Nostradamus in the 'stage gate'/stargate was called Uuilliem52 by the doctor.

"The Brain Police" and "The Big Lie"

Any time you allege a conspiracy is afoot, especially in the field of science, you are treading on thin ice. People tending to be very skeptical about conspiracies--unless the Mafia or some Muslim radicals are behind the alleged plot. But the evidence is overwhelming and the irony is that much of it is in plain view.

The good news is that the players are obvious.

Their game plan and even their play-by-play tactics are transparent, once you learn to spot them. However, it is not so easy to penetrate through the smokescreen of propaganda and disinformation to get to their underlying motives and goals. It would be convenient if we could point to a plumber's unit and a boldface liar like Richard Nixon, but this is a more subtle operation.

The bad news is:

The conspiracy is global and there are many vested interest groups. A cursory investigation yields the usual suspects: scientists with a theoretical axe to grind, careers to further and the status quo to maintain. Their modus operandi is "The Big Lie" -- and the bigger and more widely publicized, the better.

They rely on invoking their academic credentials to support their arguments, and the presumption is that no one has the right to question their authoritarian pronouncements that:

1. there is no mystery about who built the Great Pyramid or what the methods of construction were, and the Sphinx shows no signs of water damage
2. there were no humans in the Americas before 20,000 BC
3. the first civilization dates back no further than 6000 BC
4. there are no documented anomalous, unexplained or enigmatic data to take into account
5. there are no lost or unaccounted-for civilizations.
6. The biological sciences today are based on Darwinism.
7. A scientist who opposes the ['government'] theory cannot get a paper published.

Let the evidence to the contrary be damned!
