

TRIBES OF YACOB & ISRAEL

“you will know them by their actions”

Without driving you crazy using semantics in the treatment of the use of the letters "y" for "j" - all we need remember here, is that the letter "j" only turned up in the English language this side of the B.C.E. The Hebrew has always had an ambiguous use of "y" & "j" It was the Greek who introduced the letter "i" for a "j" (Ralph Ellis) causing many different ways for 'John'. This was how Yannis, Iain (meaning 'John or Jon') came into being. Thus the word 'Jesus' (Ieosus) and 'Joseph' have been seen as many other spellings. Joseph of the "many coloured coat" was 'YuYa' in Egypt. Even in the works of Nostradamus during the sixth century, (500s) both letters were used as and when it suited the writers or publishers. It is not the intention here for discourse on the exact timing of the "y" becoming a "j", (see Presage J562 which Nostradamus left au naturel on purpose), other than to mention the name Yasher being altered to Jasher in the 19th Century. Stick with me here because - regardless of the nonsense that weaves its idiotic way in and out of face book pages by people insisting on various ways to spell and say what we have thought of as "Jesus" - the name could only have been Yesus, Ysus or Yeshua just as acceptable. See how easy it is to then confuse YHWH, Yehweh/Yahweh with Yah/E'yah These versions, Yesus and Ysus actually appear in Allan Webber's Template (from Chani). In this way, very early "Christian" calendars must have been prefixed with a "y" or the Coptic "χ" for at least the first three hundred years after the crucifixion until the Nicean Council decisions in y:325. If you have been following these works closely, by now you will realize that NONE of this is coincidence.

Let us now go and question why a brass or copper plaque should appear in a Romanian/Transylvanian monastery directly after a flying craft had visited this monastery. The craft can be identified belonging to members of the Elohim.

← underneath this 1523 artwork engraved in copper was the description: Ps 130, 7.1 which speaks of the 'iniquities of Israel' Psalm 130.7 speaks of Israel (not)being redeemed for their iniquities

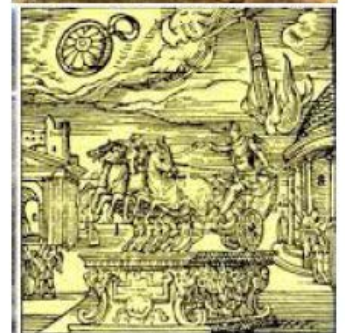

The comparisons here are for the craft, with the one to the right an uncertainty

Just found this amongst my files, titled "Templars and a UFO". What do we know about Templars and off worlders? We know (from these texts and others) that they had Off World help to bury the time gate/cronus visor under Oak Island. (The word "oak" being alkhemye for stargate). Since using these time portals was with the intention of manipulating events - the burying of one indicates it was best kept away from those who would mis-use it. Ergo, it must have been a benevolent off worlder which assisted the safe keeping of this dubious treasure. As we can see - this is the same craft in previous illustrations herein... that of the Cassiopeian/Casseopean

The ONLY reason this particular craft is being taken as Casseopean; is to be seen in the central image, a woodcut showing this craft defeating a cylinder-oblong type ship which these texts have been saying are stealing children. Leading to the question: what event is being honoured in the 1680 French coin? How many years would it take to produce a commemoration coin like this in those days? Ten, less? We are told in these texts that the calendars were altered more than once, but one of the dates that happened was 1676 A.D. Four years prior to this coin. So what happened that the Casseopeans appeared to the public thus, to leave an imprint on human memory?

†4th century being the 4th i.e the 300's

THESE LECHERS STEAL THOU HISTORI AND THOU NOT KNOUU, LIKE A MOTH OVER A HOT CANDLE

- here is a good time to explain WHY it is important to understand the real history of human kind and it has nothing to do with any claims Israel may propose, and oppose us with. Israel claims they are 'god's children' and they may well be children of YHWH/Enlil, who is not God with a capital 'G'. The capitalized God is the Universal Originator, the Sapient Quantum Frequencies of Energy which Created all Living Things including the 'god' who would be God. Also known as a 'little tin god', a fitting description for Enlil playing his power game over the Israelites - royally misled into genociding their own bloodlines without putting any thought to it
- The one thing Israel does not want you to know is that their genesis began during a shar of the Passing Over of the Nemesis system, around seven thousand years ago. This 'new beginning' happens every occasion of this Passing Over, thus the 'chosen ones' cannot be the only 'chosen ones' whereas, the 'meek' certainly might be.
- The hint we see sits in Psalm 130 - st. 7 & 8

- ⁷ Let Israel, hope in the LORD!
For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is plentiful [enough] redemption.
- ⁸ And he will redeem Israel from all its iniquities. NIV

Except that the 'lord' here is YHWH - Enlil, who is quite short on Love, claiming himself to be "wrathful and jealous" and inclined to strike with his Rod (which we have learned is a grey). What kind of god redeems the ini- quities Israel (et alia) has performed ?

⁷ Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption. KJB (saying: let Israel SEEK the lord)
plenteous redemption is NOT the same as "will redeem"

Reminder that the New International Version N.I.V. is the NWO Version, with over 4,000 words altered.

Then there is this (have the Israelites even considered the resulting consequences of their actions ?)

Lamentations 4:11 The LORD^{YHWH} hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.
12 The kings [presidents] of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary [Satan] the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem [Allah-Lu]
13 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her. [Gaza]
14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets [compare Isa. 28:7; 56:10-12], they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments. [untouchables]
15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not [Isa. 52:10; Alma 5:57]: when they fled away & wandered, they said among the heathen, they shall no more sojourn there.
16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them. [the Israelites]

Why Jews are not the Chosen People . . . by Dr Sardonicus

Pictures and captions by Lasha Darkmoon

Jewish writer Naomi Wolf (pictured) recently posted a controversial comment on Facebook denying that the Jews were the “Chosen” people or that God gave them the Holy Land. She provides a very plausible explanation why this cannot be so.

Let her speak for herself:

"Okay, so I was challenged [by someone]:

“Read the Bible! God gave the land of Israel to the Jewish people.”

I may get crucified for this but I have started to say it — most recently (terrified, trembling) to warm welcome in a synagogue in LA: Actually if you read Genesis, Exodus and Deuteronomy in Hebrew — as I do — you see that God did not “give” Israel to the Jews/Israelites.

We as Jews are raised with the creed that “God gave us the land of Israel” in Genesis — and that ethnically “we are the chosen people.” But actually — and I could not believe my eyes when I saw this, I checked my reading with major scholars and they confirmed it — actually God’s “covenant” in Genesis, Exodus and Deuteronomy with the Jewish people is NOT ABOUT AN ETHNICITY, AND NOT ABOUT A CONTRACT. IT IS ABOUT A WAY OF BEHAVING.

Again and again in the “covenant” language He never says:

“I will give you, ethnic Israelites, the land of Israel.”

Rather He says something far more radical — far more subversive — far more Godlike in my view.

He says: “IF you visit those imprisoned...act mercifully to the widow and the orphan...welcome the stranger in your midst... tend the sick... do justice and love mercy... and perform various other tasks... THEN YOU WILL BE MY PEOPLE AND THIS LAND WILL BE YOUR LAND.”

So “my people” is not ethnic — it is transactional. We are God’s people not by birth but by a way of behaving, that is ethical, kind and just. And we STOP being “God’s people” when we are not ethical, kind and just.

And ANYONE who is ethical, kind and just is, according to God in Genesis, “God’s people.”

And the “contract” to “give” us Israel is conditional — we can live in God’s land IF we are “God’s people” in this way — just, merciful, compassionate. AND — it never ever says, it is ONLY your land.

(See Psalm 130:7,8) needing to understand WHICH Lord

Luther 130:7

Israel, hope [you] for the LORD! for/because with the LORD is grace, and salvation [is] with him, 130:8 und er wird Israel erlösen aus allen seinen Sünden.

and (only then) he will deliver Israel out of all his iniquities

Even when passages spell out geographical “boundaries” as if God does such a thing, it never says this is exclusively your land. It never says I will give this land JUST to you.

Remember these were homeless nomads who had left slavery in Egypt and were wandering around in the desert; at most these passages say, settle here, but they do not say, settle here exclusively. Indeed again and again it talks about welcoming “zarim” — translated as “strangers” but can also be translated as “people/tribes who are not you” — in your midst.

This blew my mind, and I hope it blows yours.

To summarize: according to Naomi Wolf, God gave the Holy Land to the Jews ONLY IF THEY BEHAVED LIKE MODEL CHRISTIANS!

The Holy Land was theirs if their behavior was impeccable and in every way NON-TALMUDIC.

Far from believing themselves a superior race and the goyim mere cattle, Jews had to regard all other races as their own kith and kin and treat them with kindness and mercy.

Moreover, God did not give the Holy Land to the Jews because they were ethnically Jews. Race or ethnicity did not enter into God’s considerations. The Holy Land was to be a gift to ANY people, ANY race, ANY ethnicity, who were capable of behaving in a godly way, in a just way, in a noble way:

in short, like model Christians.

This is quite a startling new interpretation of the meaning of “Chosen People”.

It appeals to us personally by its sheer reasonableness and concordance with basic ethical principles:

“The Holy Land is yours provided you behave in a holy way — and, if you cannot behave in a holy way, then it is NOT yours, but it belongs then to any other race capable of achieving holiness.”

Congress unanimously voted to support Israel's aggression against Gaza.

Last week, Professor Steven Salaita of the University of Illinois tweeted:

“Why would Hamas even try to use children as human shields?

Israel has proved for decades that it has no problem shooting children.”

In the words of Dick Eastman,

“That was just too much truth for Rabbi Meyer May of the Simon Wiesenthal Center. The Rabbi called Salaita’s tweet ‘baseless anti-Semitism’, and demanded the college fire him. And fire him they did.”

By doing this, the cowardly college authorities demonstrated that these mass murderers in our midst can not only kill with impunity—now that they have muscled their way into supreme power — but that the world is under obligation to pretend that genocide is a form of kindly pest control when Jews are its main practitioners.

Dr Sardonicus

The authentic OT Israelites have absolutely no ethnic/racial relation to the so called “Jews/Israelites”.

Having said that Naomi is right that the contractual relationship between I AM and the people from Jacob/Israel was based on DEEDS/ACTIONS - not race.

One cannot take one portion of scriptures and exclude another. It’s not “have it your way” like at Burger King- It’s have it his way, the way- the GREAT I AM’s way or be excluded.

YOCHANNAN

September 11, 2014 at 7:49 pm

Tyron is correct, I add the following – Jews in the State called Israel were never Biblical Israelites, that is, they were never “true” Biblical Israelites. Jews are just Jews, with a name that has no Biblical meaning, except to some it might mean a shyster. Jews are adherents to a religion called Judaism (Judaism) as Christians are adherents to Christianity and as Muslims are adherents to Islam. Most Jews believe in the Talmud and the Kabala as their foundation for authority rather than the clear mandates found in the Hebrew Bible. This is where many Jews get their convoluted self-centered everyone else is nothing mindset. Most of all Jews fall in this self-centered category – the Zionist, the orthodox, and the secular Jew are all non-raced amalgamated religious groups. The Karaite Jews is the only exception, also a non-raced group but the only Jew who’s base foundation is Torah and they do try to keep the 10 Commandments (Israel’s True Covenant). The Karaite Jew is actually an Israelite and should not really be called a Jew because they reject the so-called “traditions” of the Jews, traditions that were condemned by the prophet Yahshua (Jesus) of the First Century.

Modern Judaism a religion that began about 1,000 C.E., and is traced to Rabbenu Gershon of Mainz, Germany, who is considered the ‘Father’ of the Ashkenazi Jews. This may also be where the name “Rabbi” comes from, (according to the Jerusalem Post). The “Ashkenazi” called Jews constitute a large percent of all the worlds fourteen million (more or less) Jews. Modern Judaism is not at all the ancient Scriptural worship system of the Hebrew Yahudi (of the tribe of Yahudah). The ancient religion of the Yahudi of the Southern Kingdom, and of the Northern Kingdom of Israel before the diaspora was originally known as Yahwism, the same belief system as that of Yahshua (the New Testament Prophet that the ignorant call Jesus. Yahwism was, and still is, the worship to the Hebrew 'God' named YHWH (meaning HE-IS). Lord of airways, sacrifice, storms

- (not quite "he is" = EnLil. It means Chief Pilot/Mauro Biglino. / Lost Books of EnKi by Endubsar)

Yahwism is not the worship of the traditions of men. One could say that modern Judaism has a lot of similarities to the traditions of the Pharisaic point of view of the First Century, and is therefore basically Pharisee-ism re-born about 1,000 C.E. years later.

Most "true" Israelites do not really live in the State called Israel, except for maybe a few Karaites since Judaism is not the religion of the ancient Biblical Israelites.

Judaism was dead since it began, but it remains as a false religion manifested by the State pretending to be Israel. This State called Israel has shown to the world what it really is, and what a 'Jew' truly is. This is demonstrated by what they have done to others, i.e. the Palestinians.

The Judaism we see active today is a religion formed in the traditions of wicked men, and adopted by modern Jews 1,000 years ago. The Jews have, like the Pharisees also rejected the righteous principles outlined in the Hebrew Scriptures, and exchanged it for the writings and the opinions of the Talmud and the Kabala. This is what the world has been shown and is as what can be expected in these last several weeks against the Palestinians.

The State called Israel is doomed to fail.

Jacob also means James-Jack-Jacques-jim, The Usurper.

Those of you who have been true hard-in-the-die purple/royal hidden texts junkies, might recall a long ago warning regarding the changing of names and the reason for it. We already know Marduk has at least fifty names, that the Anakim themselves have over 120 and that "corporations" contain entities that hide behind the corporation name.

In this very same way we need to question "why was Yacob given a new name – twice?" ¹

You might think to yourself – well, how is a person ever to find that out!

First, I cannot help myself, I refuse to render any Anakim the title of god with a capital "g", not after the things we have learned here... so I am going to change the capitalized word to a non capitalized "god", because that is what they are, little tin gods. Why is Jacob called Jacob and Israel alternately in the book of ...
<https://www.gotquestions.org/Jacob-Israel.html>

Sep 20, 2017 - Later, god appears to Jacob/Israel again in Bethel, reaffirms the name change, and gives him the same covenant that Abraham had received (Genesis 35:9–12).

SO WHICH GOD RE-NAMED YAKOB? Answer = Marduk

"Gen 32:3-33:17 {s} Jacob renamed Israel, "Upright of El"

The Hebrew is Strong's 3478, Ysrael, a proper name, from Strong's H8280, sarah, a primitive root meaning to place in a row, i.e., to prevail; and from Strong's H410, el, a concrete noun meaning god or God, hero, which is a shortened form of Strong's H352, ayil, a concrete noun meaning a ram, from Strong's H193, uwl, an unused root meaning to twist, to roll.

sarah: shin + resh + hey However, the Ancient Hebrew Lexicon says that the shin is transposed because of a similar sound; it was originally a sin: sin = the thorn, thus grab, hate, protect resh = the head of man, thus head, first, top, beginning, man

hey = the man with upraised arms, thus look, reveal, wonder, worship, breath So the story the ancient pictographs are telling, is to capture (sin) a man (resh) to that which you envision (hey); thus to lead, for the leader is the one who conceives of the vision or mission for the group, and is also able to convey his vision so that others agree with him and follow him. This is why the lexicons say that the name "Sarah" means noblewoman, princess; because in ancient days nobility was a merited position given to those who exhibited the gift or ability of leadership, not a hereditary one.

uwl: aleph + vav + lamed

aleph = the ox head, thus strength, power, leader

vav = the tent peg, thus add, secure, hook

lamed = the shepherd's staff, thus teach, yoke, to, bind

The story the ancient pictographs are telling is of power, ability (aleph) coupled with (vav) authority (lamed). The lexicons say the noun's connection to the verb is from the ram's twisted and curled horns, which are his adornment of power and glory.

How does Jacob wrestle with God and men, and prevail? The history of Jacob's life up until now shows him wrestling with Esau in the womb, wrestling with his brother for the birthright and his father for the blessing, and wrestling with Laban for his wife, his flock, and his independence. He prevails, not because he is stronger than his opponents, but because he is the most persistent.

He does not give up or let go until he receives what he seeks."

- ram's: as we have learned, the sigil of the ram belongs to Marduk, whose "Age" is Aries (1440BC to B.C.E.)

- Why is the re-naming of Jacob to Israel in Gen 32:28 and then again ... Genesis 46:2 And God spake unto Israel in the visions of the night, and ...

We will learn shortly the REASON for the name change - recall I had Yakob as "Usurper" ~ also that there are "bad" angels as well as "good" (Tiletanus Ch. 14).

Then of course - what is Marduk's favorite manner of winning arguments?

Wrestling.

In these end notes is an in depth discussion between three sources of original biblical text. You will notice differences between those of the Elohim Creator source and YHWH "edited" source, which confirms what I said about who it really was handed the Ten Commandments to Moses; and it was not YHWH as the edited bibles say. My result came from the number 10 being an Elohim eYah base number.

Jacob Is Named Israel Twice

Jacob is renamed Israel in two different stories. When Jacob returns from living with Laban, he encounters an 'angel' on the way and wrestles with him. In that story, Jacob asks for a blessing before releasing the angel, whom he had just defeated. The angel responds:

בראשית לב:כח וַיֹּאמֶר אֵלָיו מַה שְּׁמֶךָ וַיֹּאמֶר יַעֲקֹב. לֵבְכֹס וַיֹּאמֶר לֹא יַעֲקֹב יִשְׂרָאֵל עוֹד שְׁמֶךָ כִּי אִם יִשְׂרָאֵל כִּי שָׂרִיתָ עִם אֱלֹהִים וְעַם אַנְשִׁים וְתוֹכֵל.
Gen 32:28 Said the other, "What is your name?" He replied, "Jacob." 32:29 Said he, "Your name shall no longer be Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with a being divine and human, and have prevailed."

The new name Israel is a combination of the verb שָׂרָה, "to strive with," and a designation for God, אל. The passage uniquely describes a person successfully battling God or his messenger, a suitable folk etymology for the origin of Israel's name. A little later on, when Jacob arrives in Bethel, he is again named Israel:

בראשית לה:ט וַיִּרְאֵהוּ אֱלֹהִים אֵל יַעֲקֹב עוֹד בְּבֹאוֹ מִפַּדַּן אֲרָם וַיִּבְרָךְ אֹתוֹ. לְהַיָּי וַיֹּאמֶר לוֹ אֱלֹהִים שְׁמֶךָ יַעֲקֹב לֹא יִקְרָא שְׁמֶךָ עוֹד יַעֲקֹב כִּי אִם יִשְׂרָאֵל יְהִיֶּה שְׁמֶךָ וַיִּקְרָא אֶת שְׁמוֹ יִשְׂרָאֵל.
Gen 35:9 God appeared again to Jacob on his arrival from Paddan-aram, and He blessed him. 35:10 God said to him, "You whose name is Jacob, you shall be called Jacob no more, but Israel shall be your name."
Thus He named him Israel.

The passage here is strange since it makes no reference to the previous renaming, implying that this story is either unaware of or deliberately ignoring the naming tradition preserved at the end of Genesis 32.

A Prediction of a Renaming

Traditional commentators were cognizant of this doublet, and in some cases suggested that the first story is not really a naming at all, but instead depicts the angel informing Jacob of what would happen in the future.

Thus, Rashi (32:29) writes:

לא יעקב יאמר עוד שמך – לא יאמרו עליך עוד שהברכות בעקיבה וברמייה כי אם בשררה ובגילוי פנים, סופך שהקב"ה נגלה עליך בבית אל ומחליף את שמך ושם הוא מברכך,	“Your name shall no longer be Jacob” – people will no longer say about you that you received the blessings through trickery and deceit (the meaning of “Jacob”) , but rather with striving and openly (the meaning of “Israel”), and in the end, the Holy One, praised by he, will appear to you in Bethel and change your name and there he will bless you.

Rashi is building here on a midrashic reading of Isaiah 44:26 in Genesis Rabbah (78).

The verse says:

מִקִּים דְּבַר עֲבָדָיו וְעָצַת מַלְאָכָיו יִשְׁלִים	Who confirms the word [name] of his servant, and fulfills the prediction of his messengers.

R. Berechiah (in Gen. Rab. 78) offers a midrash in the name of R. Levi tying this verse into God's fulfilling the prediction of his 'angel' that told Jacob about his new name:

... שנגלה הקדוש ברוך הוא על אבינו יעקב בשביל לקיים גזירתו של אותו מלאך שאמר לו לא יעקב, ואף הקדוש ברוך הוא אמר לו כן...	...The Holy One praised be he appeared to our father, Jacob in order to confirm the decree of that angel who said to him “Jacob no longer [will be your name],” and thus the Holy One, praised be he, said to him the same...

This explanation is clearly homiletical, ^{the art of preaching} but it illustrates the problem of the double naming.

Two Namings – Two Sources

Critical scholars have long argued that each of these name changes derives from different sources. The source of the second renaming, in ch. 35, is easy to identify as Priestly, since it refers to Jacob's arrival from Paddan-aram, the name used in Priestly texts

The first renaming of Jacob, in ch. 32, after he wrestles with the 'angel,' likely derives from the E source.^[2] This is evident from the use of the word Elohim in the explanation of the name, which is the standard name for God/s in this source, as opposed to in J, which uses YHWH. The J source, then, does not include a renaming story.

(WE know exclusion cant be E source because Enlil/YHWH and Marduk are NOT with the Elohim/ Mauro Biglino)

“Your Name Shall No Longer be Jacob,” But It Is!

Both the E and P stories seem clear: Jacob is no longer going to be called Jacob, only Israel. And yet, even after these renaming episodes, the patriarch is still referred to as Jacob in E, J, and P texts.

This contrasts with how the name change functions in the story of Abram and Sarai, both of whom are renamed in chapter 17:

בראשית י"ה: וְלֹא יִקְרָא עוֹד אֶת שְׁמֶךָ אַבְרָם וְהָיָה שְׁמֶךָ אַבְרָהָם כִּי אַבְרָהָם גוֹיִם תִּתְּתִיד.	Gen 17:5 And you shall no longer be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham, for I make you the father of a multitude of nations.
בראשית י"ט: וַיֹּאמֶר אֱלֹהִים אֶל אַבְרָהָם עָרִי אֲשֶׁרָה לֹא תִקְרָא אֶת שְׁמָהּ עָרִי כִּי שָׂרָה שְׁמָהּ.	Gen 17:15 And God said to Abraham, “As for your wife Sarai, you shall not call her Sarai, but her name shall be Sarah.

God says that the old names will no longer be used,^[3] and indeed, after ch. 17, the Torah never refers to them again by their old names.^[4]

An Additional Name?

The problem of the persistence of name Jacob after these renamings has bothered both ancient and medieval commentators. The standard approach was to suggest that Israel was not meant to replace Jacob, but to supplement it. Thus, Abraham ibn Ezra (35:10) writes [bold added]:

לא יקרא שמך עוד יעקב לבדו כי גם ישראל Henceforth, you shall not be called Jacob exclusively, but also Israel.

This solution, which is also preferred by R. Joseph Bekhor Shor (12th cent.; Gen 35:10), appears already in the 3rd cent. Mekhilta de-Rabbi Ishmael on Exodus (*Masekhta de-Pascha*16), likely playing off the word “another” (דע):

ויאמר לא יעקב יאמר עוד שמך וגו' שם הראשון נתקיים לו ושם השני נתוסף לו	“Said he, ‘Your name shall no longer be Jacob, but Israel’” – the first name was established for him and the second added for him.

Genesis Rabbah* (78) actually records a debate about the exact relationship between these two names:

תני לא שיעקר שם יעקב אלא כי אם ישראל יהיה שמך, ישראל יהיה עיקר ויעקב טפילה,	It was taught: It isn't that the name Jacob was to be uprooted, “rather Israel will be your name” – Israel will be the main [name] and Jacob will be the secondary.
ר' זכריה בשם ר' אחא מכל מקום יעקב שמך אלא כי אם ישראל יהיה שמך, יעקב עיקר וישראל מוסף עליו.	R. Zechariah in the name of R. Acha said: “Jacob is certainly your name, “rather Israel will be your name” – Jacob is your main name and Israel is added to it.

This solution is elegant, but unfortunately does not comport with what the text says: The texts in Genesis 32 and 35 never say or imply that Israel is an extra name; they both state clearly that the name Jacob is replaced by Israel.

A Source Critical Solution

The standard Documentary Hypotheses does not offer a clear solution to this problem, since, as noted above, both E and P continue to use both names for the patriarch. The Supplementary Hypothesis (SH), however—according to which the Pentateuch began with one original text (E) and was expanded by successive additions (J, then P, etc.) without cutting earlier material from the revered core text^[6]—offers a plausible solution: In the Joseph cycle,^[7] J uses the name Jacob exclusively^[8] while E uses the name Israel.

E source and Israel – J source and Jacob

A number of passages show the Elohist's (E) preference for the name Israel.^[9]
For example, in chapter 48, Joseph meets his father again for the first time:

בראשית מ"ח: א וַיֵּרָא יִשְׂרָאֵל אֶת בְּנֵי יוֹסֵף וַיֹּאמֶר מִי אֵלֶּהָ. מ"ח: ב אֵל אֲבִיו בְּנֵי הֵם אֲשֶׁר נָתַן לִי אֱלֹהִים בְּנֵהוּ וַיֹּאמֶר קָחֵם נָא אֵלַי וְאֶבְרַכֵּם. מ"ח: ג וַעֲיָנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל כָּבְדוּ מְזֶקֶן לֹא יוּכַל לָרְאוֹת וַיִּגַּשׁ אֹתָם אֵלָיו וַיִּשָּׂק לָהֶם וַיַּחֲבֹק לָהֶם. מ"ח: ד וַיֹּאמֶר יִשְׂרָאֵל אֵל יוֹסֵף רְאֵה פָנָי לֹא כָלְתִי וְהִנֵּה הִרְאָה אֹתִי אֱלֹהִים גַּם אֵת וַרְעָדָהּ.

Gen 48:8 Noticing [Yuya] Joseph's sons, Israel asked, "Who are these?" 48:9 And Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me here." "Bring them up to me," he said, "that I may bless them." 48:10 Now Israel's eyes were dim with age; he could not see. So [Joseph] brought them close to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. 48:11 And Israel said to Joseph, "I never expected to see you again, and here God has let me see your children as well."^[10]

And later in that same chapter:

בראשית מ"ח: כא וַיֹּאמֶר יִשְׂרָאֵל אֵל יוֹסֵף הִנֵּה אָנֹכִי מֵת. וְהִנֵּה אֱלֹהִים עִמָּךְ וְהִשִּׁיב אֹתְךָ אֶל אֶרֶץ אֲבֹתֶיךָ.

Gen 48:21 Then Israel said to Yuya-Joseph, "I am about to die; but God will be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers.†

†In fact, Yuya-Joseph, the only commoner, was buried in the Valley of kings. Achmed Osman "The Hebrew Pharaohs of Egypt"

The name Elohim (God/s) as opposed to YHWH marks this text as Elohistic, and here the third patriarch is referred to only as Israel.^[11]

In contrast, J uses the name Jacob in the Joseph cycle (ch. 37-50). For example:

בראשית ל"ז: ו וַיִּקְרַע יַעֲקֹב שְׂמֹלְתָיו וַיִּשֶׂם שָׂק בְּמַתְנָיו וַיִּתְאַבֵּל עַל בְּנוֹ זַמִּים רַבִּים. ל"ז: ז וַיִּקְרָמוּ כָל בְּנָיו וְכָל בָּתְּלוֹתָיו לְנַחֲמוֹ וַיִּמָּאֵן לְהִתְנַחֵם וַיֹּאמֶר פִּי אֶרֶד אֵל כְּנִי אֶבְלָה שְׂאֵלָהּ.

Gen 37:34 Jacob rent his clothes, put sackcloth on his loins, and observed mourning for his son many days. 37:35 referring to which son? All his sons and daughters sought to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, saying, "No, I will go down mourning to my son in Sheol."

Note that the phrase in italics about Jacob going to Sheol in grief appears again in Judah's plea to Yuya/Joseph:

בראשית מ"ד: ו וַיִּגַּשׁ אֵלָיו יְהוּדָה וַיֹּאמֶר ... מ"ד: ז כִּי רְאוּתוֹ כִּי אִין הַנֶּעֱרַר נִמְתּוֹ וְהוֹרִידוּ עֲבָדֶיךָ אֶת שִׁיבַת עֲבָדֶיךָ אֲבִינֹנוּ בְּגִיזוֹן שְׂאֵלָהּ.

Gen 44:18 And Judah approached him [Joseph] and said... 44:31 when he (=Jacob) sees that the boy is not with us, he will die, and your servants will send the white head of your servant our father down to Sheol in grief.^[12]

From following this trope, we see that in one J text Jacob (not Israel) says it, and it is repeated by Judah (a J character that does not appear in E text) in his attempt to convince Joseph to have mercy on the brothers' poor elderly father.

Geographic Considerations

E is unique among the Pentateuchal sources, having been composed in the Northern Kingdom, which was called Israel. J, in contrast, was composed in the Southern Kingdom of Judah, as was P and most of the Bible.^[13] For E, Jacob/Israel is the most important patriarch. But for J, Abraham, the patriarch of the South, was the most important ancestor.

In E, Abraham sacrifices his son Isaac when the latter was a child, ending the line of Abraham; Jacob in E is not related to Abraham.^[14] J resurrects Isaac and makes him Jacob's father, thus making Abraham the progenitor of Jacob. Abraham is depicted much more positively by J than Jacob, and is given precedent by being his ancestor. When the E document was brought to "Southern Israel" (i.e., Judah), by scribes fleeing the North after the Assyrian conquest, Judean authors sought to make E's account of Israel's origins more relevant to their readers and thus added [edited] Judah and Judean themes everywhere they could. This process began with J, the first southern supplementer, but since all later sources were southern, this pattern persisted among later authors as well.^[15] In the case of Jacob vs. Israel, perhaps J wished to de-emphasize the significance of this third patriarch, after whom the entire nation, "Israel" was named.

Narrative Considerations

In E, Jacob is a strong and virile character. He lifts the stone of the well on his own in 29:10, does not fear Esau,^[16] and contends with Laban (31:36). His struggle and victory over an 'angel' is consistent with this depiction of the third patriarch. In J, however, Jacob is always afraid: he fears his father (Gen 27:11-12), he fears Esau (32:8), and he fears the Canaanites (34:30).^[17] the YHWH faction seem to love that humans "fear" them

Since J's Jacob is weak and fearful, it simply did not seem appropriate to use E's name which implies strength and decisiveness. Thus, despite the fact that J wrote later than E and knew the story of Jacob's name change to Israel, he continued to use the Jacob name exclusively. J also may have been uncomfortable with the idea that a man can defeat an 'angel'  which undergirds the name Israel in E's narrative. E, on the other hand, would have little trouble with such a powerful human protagonist. Indeed, E's Moses plagues Egypt with hail, locusts, and darkness with his own magical power, with no help from God.^[18]

Finally, while E records that the Patriarch was named Jacob before the 'angel' renamed him Israel, it is J that includes the negative etymologies for this name.

*Since EnLil is YHWH (the J edition) and Marduk his nephew, he would not want to see Marduk – who had wrestled Anu and won (by biting off his penis), subsequently fight, and lose to a mere human lulu.

First, when Jacob is born, J states:

בראשית כ"ב: וַיִּקְרָא יִשְׂרָאֵל בְּעֵינֵי עֶשָׂו וַיֹּאמֶר הֲכִי קָרָא שְׁמוֹ יַעֲקֹב וַיֵּעָקְבֵנִי זֶה פָּעַמַּיִם אֶת בְּכֹרְתִי לָקַח וְהִנֵּה עַתָּה לָקַח בְּרַבְתִּי... Gen 25:26 Then his brother emerged, holding on to the heel (בִּקְעָ) of Esau; so they named him Jacob...

Even more negative is Esau's understanding of the name in the story in which Jacob steals Esau's blessing:

בראשית כ"ז: וַיֹּאמֶר הֲכִי קָרָא שְׁמוֹ יַעֲקֹב וַיֵּעָקְבֵנִי זֶה פָּעַמַּיִם אֶת בְּכֹרְתִי לָקַח וְהִנֵּה עַתָּה לָקַח בְּרַבְתִּי... Gen 27:36 [Esau] said, "Was he, then, named Jacob that he might supplant me (יִנְבְּקֵעֵי) these two times? First he took away my birthright and now he has taken away my blessing!"

This is not simply an etymology. Esau's protest is a reflection of the negative light J shines on Jacob, which contrasts with E's positive portrayal of this patriarch evident in the renaming account of Genesis 32. J's insistence on using this name, with its negative connotations, and not the more positive "Israel," should be seen as a way of J's lowering the position of Jacob as the key patriarch in favor of Abraham.

Postscript: Jacob and Israel in P text

What then of P's name change? Why does P continue to use Jacob throughout chapters 35-50 despite the name change that states explicitly "no longer will you be called Jacob but Israel"?^[19] P's name change is an attempt by the Priestly author to "sanitize" the very problematic name-change of Chapter 32 in which a man defeats a divine being. But since P is a supplementary layer to the combined J and E text, it would have made little sense for him to use the name Israel exclusively when the very text he was supplementing seemed to use it haphazardly. Any such desire for consistent use of the name Israel post his renaming would have been thwarted by J's insistence on calling this patriarch Jacob exclusively and thus creating an inconsistent text in the Joseph cycle.

What could P do other than follow suit?^[20]

"Muslims are livid"... can't wait for the day when the world finds out these religions were created by the same person and/or organization, social manipulation at its best. Yeah, stone of Gabriel, it says he's god of Israel, also known as the main angel in the Quran, and Jesus, the Destroyer in Revelation, ; see how it was all man-ipated? Some people are so invested emotionally (cough, cough "spiritually") that this news becomes lost to them, anger is usually the first response. And yet, these beliefs are intended to provoke conflict; they have done their job well. "

Someone has taken it upon themselves to calculate the success rate of the prophecies in these texts, giving it a 76.5% percentage proven true.

So I asked them how did they get that calculation... I do hope they were not using the purple highlighting I used to do because that high-lighting has stopped in 2019 thanks to my daughters saying "too much color mum".

I guess a person should be satisfied at that rate because it does not include those predictions made that have not yet happened (such as the 2020 ones) nor the prophecies which most of us do not really comprehend (guessing about 10%) nor those that have happened but will never be on the "news" (such as our new orbit).

31. “The People” does not include you and me. (Barron v. Mayor & City Council of Baltimore. 32 U.S. 243)

32. The United States Government was not founded upon Christianity. (Treaty of Tripoli 8 Stat 154.)

33. It is not the duty of the police to protect you. Their job is to protect the Corporation and arrest code breakers. Sapp v. Tallahassee, 348 So. 2nd. 363, Reiff v. City of Philadelphia, 477 F.Supp. 1262, Lynch v. N.C. Dept of Justice 376 S.E. 2nd. 247.

34. Everything in the “United States” is For Sale: roads, bridges, schools, hospitals, water, prisons airports etc. I wonder who bought Klamath lake. Did anyone take the time to check? (Executive Order 12803)

35. We are Human capital. (Executive Order 13037)

36. The UN has financed the operations of the United States government for over 50 years and now owns every man, women and child in America.

The UN also holds all of the Land in America in Fee Simple. (Because the UN is run by off worlders_

37. The good news is we don’t have to fulfill “our” fictitious obligations. You can discharge a fictitious obligation with another’s fictitious obligation.

38. The depression and World War II were a total farce. The United States and various other companies were making loans to others all over the World during the Depression.

The building of Germanys infrastructure in the 1930’s including the Railroads was financed by the United States. That way those who call themselves “Kings,” “Prime Ministers,” and “Fuhrer.”etc could sit back and play a game of chess using real people.

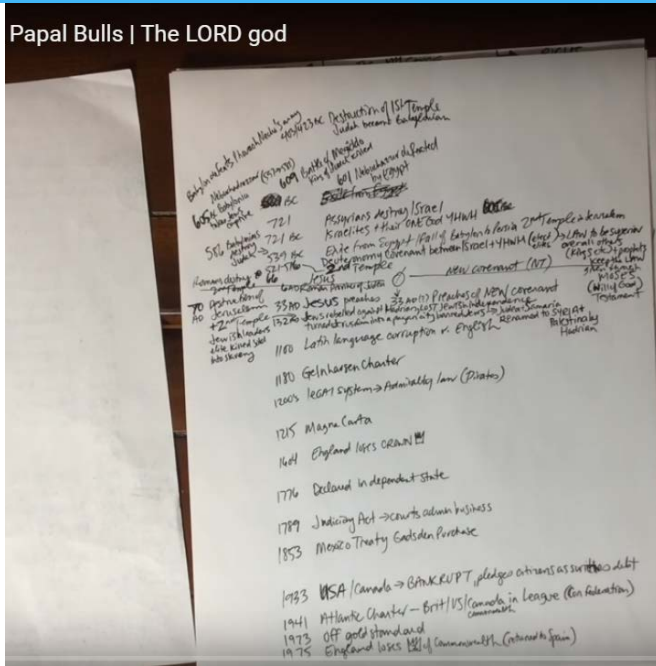

Think of all of the Americans, Germans etc. who gave their lives thinking they were defending their Countries which didn't even exist. The millions of innocent people who died for nothing. Isn't it obvious why Switzerland is never involved in these fiascoes?

That is where the "Bank of International Settlements" is located. Wars are manufactured to keep your eye off the ball. You have to have an enemy to keep the illusion of "Government" in place.

39. The "United States" did not declare Independence from Great Britian or King George.

40. The etymology of government means to control the mind. From Latinised Greek gubernatio "management, government", from Ancient Greek κυβερνισμός, κυβέρνησις (kybernismos, kybernesis) "steering, pilotage, guiding", from κυβερνώω (kybernao) "to steer, to drive, to guide, to act as a pilot" plus Latin mente "mind".

41. You don't own yourself, the Federal Reserve does; and the Birth Certificate is used to take away your natural rights. but WHICH "lord god"?

My video on The Triple Crown of Rome, how the Pope, attorneys, priests & elders (satan) created and took ...

Your Legal Name is written in all capital letters because names are artificial persons which are corporations. In other words, your legal name represents the corporate name that is used by the government to identify you.

Like your legal name, the government is also not real because it is a corporation. According to Black's Law dictionary 6th edition, a corporation is "an artificial person or legal entity created by or under the authority of the laws of a state."

The process that allows the government to legally claim you as a corporation involves the creation of a fictitious you, which is the name written in all CAPITAL LETTERS, and then tricking you to agree to be that artificial person or legal name.

42. All People Born in the USA Since 1933 Are 'Slaves' Or 'Cargo' — And It's All Legal

THANKS TO A CLONED FDR SIGNING US ALL AWAY IN THE 1933 OFF WORLD "TREATIES" – WHICH WAS FOLLOWED AND RATIFIED BY EISENHOUER IN THE GREEDA "TREATY". TRADING "MAN (DNA) FOR TECHNOLOGY"

43. The following Foreign Countries are registered as Corporations in The United States:

Israel, Turkey, Italy, Hungary, Sweden, Finland, Argentina, Colombia, Brazil, The Philippines, South Korea, Japan, Jamaica, South Africa, Canada and Australia. — Source

Final hint – "The Constitution" that Americans think they have; is titled under These United States of America
