OUR GIFT, IN HEAVEN

*each of the topnotes

Allan Webber's Template
compiled 1999 to 2008
these ones refer to an event which is related here*

It was not his intent to be full of explanations, this day in January of J333/ 2009.
Enough to demonstrate one, or maybe two things, had she been quick enough of wit.

Shock is shock no matter the circumstance. Being the docteur that he had been, he fully realized a first time for anything so queer as his sudden appearance in such a manner, would not be easy on a mind without some fore-thought, or that of some previous alert.
In which case, this first visit carried with it the intention to become that warning.

Knowing she had been attuned to his works for several decades, it was his hope that she was already aware...

After all, it was she who had performed a heart-felt sincere prayer one April 10th in her decade year of 1980 – and the docteur was here to answer that prayer... almost a full Saturn-cycle later; (29½ years) for the cognisant gnowing ones.
That this in itself was the first hurdle, the first demonstration. The action speaking for itself.
Would she have reached a personal age yet, where facta non verba was a working principle?
The deeds speaking, not the words?

Would she recognise the first of the 7 conduits in activity?

Laid out almost unclothed as she was, on a self-reclining armchair. That which might be called a fauteuil in the times whence the docteur ever used one.

Smiling to himself on seeing her half naked, sprawled under a small buzzing machine suspended on the wall above her, producing a tiny stream of cold air into a stinking hot summer's day flowing onto her wettened towel, draped somewhat over her nudeness.

He did not expect her to understand on this occasion what she was looking at, when his shimmering translucence safely emerged between one moment and the next only a few feet from her dangling right foot. As she would say later :-

*"He just appeared at the one o' clock position".
Yes her expression, her strangled scream caught up short, her heart rate, did match each other.
This conduit today (of January, in the year of J333 / 2009 by the Common Era computerized language) is of the ethereal description. The first of seven instant styles of sudden appearance, most of which are not likely to occur without the Ring.*

Nor without the two-brained che-rod attendant, (of whom the docteur "was quite fond"); he who does have a gender – one of three - who divines the co-ordinates of height above ground, left right or front, thirty four-point-something degrees south and like-wise east or west of the year he came from. A case of "there but not quite there".

For her view, she could not quite see through the docteur, yet he was not in the solid state.
Silvery of colour, feet on the floor, all five foot five of him without his chapeau.
Arrived in shades of grays, rippling shadows lining his long robes but nothing in a colour.
Cognisant thought however needs no colour. IS, CAN BE, SEVEN CONDUITS, SOME USED

Exchange of wide smiles, reassuring her he would be back – her wits were with her, she more surprised than he on that matter. She doubts, yet she does not.
Most people would and do jump to the exclamation of "why me"?

Where is the answer to that query?

It sits in all of us, within our very DNA. To be expressed when the timing is ripe.
As always there is a small devil in the detail which relates to physical health, the chemicals in the environment, and mostly in personal Attitude. Diet. Such as the consequence of eating halal. Or not eating anything genetically manipulated – avoiding any negative consequence of our actions, something some of us never learn.

The first of nine visits to come between 2009 and 2017, and not all of them from Our Gift, the docteur. SHE NEEDS DEMONSTRANCE 4 39 1 and this was the reason for all the visits

Interesting the the quatrain line speaks of "beam me up, or down" with one to witness it – the collator, the the texts hidden in the French quatrain line, taken from Allan Webber's Template (Allan being in the "duet" with Helen) goes on to reiterate details such as "atomiser mist" and seven conduits and "some used", not forgetting that it was in Easter!

The "one witness" detail does have a Caveat or 2. Did they not expect her to find Da Vinci's statement?

"Parca... who has the ears to hear whatsoever amongst our *mandate 'To undergo delivery forthwith'"

Letter #32 – the words broken down – were simply ignored by the 'translators'.

Paucis abhinc diebus, nobilissime Rosenbergi, redditae sunt nobis à te literae, tua (your) iaspide tenia obsignatae (sealed) in cera (wax) viridi, (green) (meaning in a "green seal") ...

"datae (provides) autem (moreover) illae (cost her/unharmed) ad (by) fonts (pelvis/Sagittarius-Scorpio) febriles (fever) prope (close to) tua (f: your) mapalia (bad decision) this paragraph completely ignored by the Nostradamophile 'translators'

"Moreover indication is (in evidence) she is unharmed by infection in the pelvis because of her bad decision"

(caused by the Dalkon shield) The 'bad decision' seems to have been a concern, and the Dalkon Shield did prove the cause of a large class action world wide at the time. However I was "lucky" having just married Mr Mead, and had it removed just in time to prevent permanent damage. This then allowed for Eloise to be born at a later age of 42.

Eloise is named many times in Allan Webber's Template.

"autem (moreover) datae (evidence provides) illae (cost her/unharmed) ad (by) fonts (pelvis/also means Sagittarius-Scorpio) febriles (fever) prope (close to, because of) tua (f:emal: 'your') mapalia (bad decision)." quite so

Then Nostradamus writes:

"I do not know whether to be offended or astonished by so long a delay." [in time']

A mysterious comment to make following directly from the above.

After working on Fixing The Calendars, it seems this reference is made towards the larger gap in centuries between our modern day at 1344 AD (in 2020) and his at – say– 555, the year of first publication.

The difference is now really 789 years, indeed, "so long a delay".

Whereas 2020 minus 1,555 would have been 465 years. But it is not.

The difference is 2020 – the extra 676 years resulting from pope Gregory's plus reset and Prince Otto's minus reset which equals 1344 (C.E.) then minus J555 ed. = 789 years – a large gap indeed.

Continues: (noting the placement of the commas, I wonder if these sentences need to be "worked" in the same manner that those from Da Vinci needed?)

For anyone wishing to have a go at translating Nostradamus – here is a good start for you!

These "books" being the only ones that will eventuate will have many duplications of items already published in previous pdf "forums" – a description provided by the texts themselves. After all – these booklets are really simply a SUMMARY of the most important topics gained over the last seven years – apart from the collection of references that can only prove they refer to one so full of 'hubris' as myself.

These were not going to appear on their own - Someone had to do it!

INTERJECTION from the author

A more modern commentary:

Stating events as they simply were, with no intention of gaining sympathy or pity ~ (do not ever think to yourself that I strive to gain anything from telling you all just exactly how things were) because each and every "event" in one's life is for the very reason of case-hardening one's character!

How I long to have a laugh with Diana Gabaldon – the queen of time travel tales – including the disclosure to her that I was born the very same day her Brianna was! That in the case of Brianna in the series of books that began with "Crosstitch"; and followed thru with Brianna giving her virginity to the one who deserved it and the same night being cruelly attacked by the pirate. All such a parallel to the same events in my own life. The only exception that the rape for me happened first; with me giving thanks to the culprit for doing me a favor December Friday 13th after my sixteenth birthday... in this manner saving my life from the men who it transpired had later murdered victims on the same spot – to be followed two weeks later by meeting the love of my life, a Frenchman, whose birthday was May 1st.

He, in appearance, not much different to Diana Gabaldon's hero who shared that same birthday!

Marduk was taken into custody 18th August 2018 and judged guilty of Contempt of Council. So was Nannar, but Nannar being king, was executed on the spot (exploded). Marduk was placed into house arrest on Mars – yet he still managed to USURP HIS CLEMENCY – he maintained that he was totally repentant and he would prove it given the chance.*

➤ The entire matter of Contempt related to the Anu via Nannar and Marduk requesting permission to return to Earth for plant and equipment they said they needed for repairing their atmosphere containment on Zha.am.i, so they were given permission by the Andromeda Council but renigged on that agreement and dug in at Pine Gap. Did they really think they could cheat The Elders?

VOLTAIRE

In the frontispiece to Voltaire's book on Newton's philosophy, Emilie du Châtelet appears as Voltaire's muse, reflecting Newton's heavenly insights down to Voltaire.

Wiki

Here we have once again – an important message hidden in plain sight. See the globes, the mirror, the sextant and the number of degrees shown in it.

Voltaire used to tell people he "was born February 20 1694" when he was known to have been born November 21 1694.

February 20 would have been his conception date.

(It was mine also)

The looking glass is also known as "cronus visor", and the clues laid around in apparent disarray are telling us exactly the same thing which other well known cronus visor users have told us.

That the Earth will be "laying down" with a new equator.

I would even hazard that the lady is queen Cassiopeia known as the "seated queen" with "a abundant hair" and the Che-rubs are her Chi he rods

It seems that Newton also knew

VOLTAIRE'S LETTER – CONTACT WITH HUMAN ETS

François-Marie Arrouet (1694-1778), VOLTAIRE, was his nom de plume.

Count Richard Jauffret gave Eugenio Siragusa a strange handwritten letter from Voltaire.

It was addressed to the legendary Count of St. Germain.

The letter has phrases that fit perfectly with the idea of an alleged ET presence in human history.

The date on the handwritten letter was June 6, 1761.

"Your long road through time will be illuminated by my friendship for you – even at the time of your revelations about the middle of the 20th century.....[Being Treaty 9]

Because of time, the talking pictures will not be able to be stored in memory.

May your wonderful flying machines [space craft] bring you back to me."

Same as the "TEN FOOT YETI" and many other cryptids. Including the grey that stood at the window of my friend Judy Clarke. Refer: Grey in The Baby Monitor. The entire time, over an hour, we were on the phone while it was observing her through her elderly mother's window – hence the baby monitor. I said to her to catch a photo of it in that monitor. Then she went outside to confront it! We were still on the phone. It just dissolved from her view but her little dog ran under it barking in frenzy. Six hours later the little dog began to bleed internally and that became a battle to save her.
I sent the two shots she got to Chris Klitz of Before Its News and he had his department clear up the fuzziness, then he published the article. In one shot, when Judy turned on her mothers overhead light, the grey's eyes responded red in that photo.
My own Yeti which I have seen twice, and my relatives living here also had a good lengthy view of it, catching it as it too dissolved right in front of us. A silver-tan colour, its eyes were red at the night time view I had.

❖ FACE RIPPER CARNAGE: if you ever watched CASTAWAY with Tom Hanx – Wilson his little coconut buddy was by intent an actual Method Revelation/Ritual Mocking spell. The face he painted on Wilson was so realistic once one has seen the real thing. By ripping off the faces of little children, their adrenochrome levels become high enough to harvest. It was Tom Hanx who was the Hollywood dealer for this drug. This was the very reason he was the first to be arrested and executed, March 13 2020, in Brisbane Australia. Today, first week September 2020: the media is trying to say he has returned to Australia for whatever his own reason, but more for the reason the media needs to make liars of those who have been letting us know the truth, such as GENE DECODE – after the media having told the world in March he was so ill with corona virus he was placed in intensive care. The charade that Tom Hanx is alive and well in Greece was just that – a charade.

❖ Recall Jim Penniston's warning regarding the "five different media stories ready with differing dates... "

❖ REAPER-QUILL KILLERS: as difficult as face ripping might be to believe, the "sweating the quill" from a juvenile reptilian in order for that reptilian to enter via a particular part of the brain, as a mini lobotomy – and take over the spinal cord fluid to enable it to become a "walk-in", literally. The husk that was human, but all of the consciousness is that reptilian, along with the memories of that human.

❖ The words BRAIN CHAMBER in previous pdf forums tell us more. Always the left eye, bruised, and worn by a large number of famous people lost to us forever.

Explanation: not to keep talking about me, it is not about me, it is about finishing stuff knowing I am running out of time.

THIS is the reason for the little comment in the computerized Template of a truth and one which validates all the other truths:

my first spoken word, at eleven months of age, was "barcarole" when I was jumping up and down trying to convince my grandmother to bring out the wireless. Talking with dad on one occasion I said to him:

"I remember clearly, the act of being born, and learning to walk on grandma's carpet, and once asking grandma (pointing) to get out the wireless and put on the "music". Dad said "you were not saying "music" you were saying "barcarole" over and over." So, when I saw 6 64 4 in Allan Webber's Template...it is no wonder They speak of "coronaries".

■ APPRENTICE to Leonardo is spot on – simply because his script has only just been scratched at the surface and will need an entire lifetime from someone prepared to offer many hours each day for every day possible to discover what other future information and alerts the words of Leonardo enclose. The word APPRENTICE insinuates that there is much more to be taught, so my first guidance to anyone prepared to continue his disguised script is to find the very Originals and not to even look at anyone else's "interpretations". Luckily for this new 'heir' whoever they may be, the Alchemyes list and Celtic Clues have been outlined already. Even though the words from Nostradamus say I have gone from 'lay' to 'alumni' and 'professor' of his work: – if I am a mere 'apprentice' to Leonardo (and I certainly feel that way) – then just imagine what else he has to offer!

The partial intent for providing Allan's Template is only the basis for topic ideas ~ to go back to all the purple highlighted lines in the pdf forums and highlight those lines herein. I say "only a basis" because at a period in time some 21 years after Allan Webber began his portion of the task – it turns out that the "topic" (called "the issue" in rune casting) is gained by first removing the letters describing that genre. This is limited only by the knowledge of the Questioner. If the Query person does not know the word QUBITS for instance – then any information about QUBITS will not be made available by the quatrain line because the letters for QUBITS need to be removed first, before anagramming.

The purple highlighted lines are the ones which came true.

The other reason for providing this Template is because the Collator was asked to (in the Template)

5 71 1 ATTEND UNIQUE QUATREIN LINES VALUED AS FUTURE

HINTS: if you see "OR" it means R.O. the Regency Order of the Andromeda Council. If you see ED it means E.D. Extra Dimensional R.O. and this is not the same is INTER-dimensional or INTRA-dimensional – which these texts were not coded to find.

There are those negative ones which inhabit "between time lines" or if you like "interred dimensional". These are Djinn/Archons and what we call Ghosts. 'Extra' means "outside" and "intra" means "crossing between" such as Che 'Ila [the male] He Rod (in these texts as J-Rod or HEROD) from 52,000 years in our Future Where you see UN it means U.N. in which are seated shape shifters from Alcyone who dwell under Antarctica. The Fallen Ones of AntÉchrist ALWAYS keep in mind that "F" can be "S". So that means "FINE" is usually "SINE".

Understanding this is all about frequencies. The M.E. tool That "Q" can be "K" or "C". You will find the well hidden word CENTURIES this way That "I" can be "Y" and "J" and vice versa and usually relates to the changing of "i", "y" or "J" prefix in our calendars to a number "1". That "V" can be a "U" meaning that two "V"s or two "U"s will be a VV or UU which we have as W. The person runecasting needs to do this. That a bunch of letters making no sense, or have been duplicated, can be put back thru the anagram program again, this always provides more detail. That UX and UXE are U = uranites X = joint or joined/allied, and E means the greys (and only one of thirty three types which affect Earth or humanity)

7 22 4 DOOR PORTAL IN A PLURAL UNDERTAKING IN SPRING EARS DIURNAL IN LEAP ANNUAL e rapaci animali del paese vostro. from Da Vinci 'removing' the words 'vernal date' to create the 'issue' here is the result VITAL LADIE'S CO-OPERATION, OVATION (PLEASES ALL), R.O. AIM DISAPPEAR HER IN CORÉ

The two quatrains 4 99 4 and 7 22 4 along with the Da Vinci disguised script here all gave three topics which were the same, with identical dates and details:

1. apparent death [CIAO] and or disappearance of the collator (which ALSO appears in quatrain 5 65 >>>
2. in a 'man like pad' = "shed" ("queer cave" in many other lines)
3. apparently due to disappearance in a "door portal" which is a "coré/Kore" time gate
4. during a ufo flap = 'profusion' is also "plural undertaking" – the false one of Von Braun
5. the exact same date – in Spring, not only that, but the exact same day as the night Nostradamus really died – September equinox, (2011) DIURNAL/equinox 'EARS'/Virgo/spring in the southern hemisphere – with three mentions of the date (see here "vernal, not in April" which means in September, which means southern hemisphere)

LIFE LESSONS & WHY IS THERE NOTHING WORSE THAN ...
Being Accused of that which we did not do!

Most of us will have heard the saying from Paul in Eph. 6:12 KJV

"for we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of the world, against spiritual wickedness in high places".

... yet not many of us heed what this really means! "During her life she was just as thick as any other, just as ignorant to the hidden realities as the rest of the herd.

Is there anything worse than being accused of doing something, when a person never did?

Twice the Copiests had a hand in affecting the course of her "growing awareness".

The first happened while still on her honeymoon five hundred miles from home, with Mr Mead .

His mates had followed along to enjoy the golden beaches of Queensland – sharing the honeymoon, almost, when one of them returned one Saturday evening from a football match with dire news.

He had seen her with his own eyes at the football match, with another man draped around her body. Not for the blink of a fly's eye did anyone question this information. Knee-jerk Faulty Towers reactions were unavoidable, leaving the marriage – all of three weeks old – in tatters.

Shortly after this her sister who had moved to Cairns, also took a photo of a person at a rodeo – who was nothing less than a true doppelganger. Identical in every way – tall, long boned and gawky just as she was.

Life Lessons.

The Copiests had ideas for her that she knew in her heart were Life-Lessons.

She was to learn – a full twenty years before they became a public thought pattern, that reptilian humans do exist.

A co worker put on a bar~b~que at her place bringing along some friends.

One of these held some fascination for her – pretty much like a rat caught and trapped by the gaze of a snake on the prowl.

This fatal attraction continued for over two years and slowly wound down only after she spotted his face one night changing. His eyes turned "like the devils" vertical pupils slitted, he thinking no one watching.

The word "reptilian" had not yet come over the horizon.

The Copiests had not finished with her just yet. Busy moving house and home from one end of New South Wales to the very centre, she is sitting on the carpeted floor sorting tax papers when the phone rings. Surprise surprise, she had just been witnessed loading a palamino mare into a horsefloat out of the stable compound at the Royal Agricultural Showground in Centennial Park Sydney.

The phone call was the owner of that horse screaming his little gay lungs out that he wanted the mare returned forthwith.

He had been given her phone number by the Arab Horse Society – which meant that everyone working in the Arab Horse Society had her painted as a horse thief on the spot.

So, just what were these Life Lessons all about, really?

The first resulted in the loss of her marriage, but in the gain of the name Mead – which is "dame" in the hidden texts.

The second was the realization on a personal level that reptilian humans are for real.

That was a hurdle that would never have been leaped had she not experienced it for herself.

The third and most important :~ comprehending how a copy of one-self can and does do things that are attributed to oneself and with no means of deleting the consequences.

Just this one experience on its own – of being accused of something when all along one might as well be knitting socks on another planet while the deed was in motion – for all the good that explaining things, the truth, would accomplish.

Thus: when someone like Mr. Trump, or the Mantids, have been Copied – and the copies are doing things the public or the media accuses them – how in the world is the original ever going to riposte ?

Reptilian Copiests love Charades:

Icke, Ventura and Jones, pulling the wool over the video watchers' sleepy-head eyes!

Not one watcher commenting on the lack of gravelly voice of Alex Jones, on the bald head profile moving up and down like it was sea-sick; on a baby-faced Jesse Ventura, nor the orange eyed David Icke leaving the auditorium to be confronted by the others...

this event supposedly occurring at Cleveland despite Jesse Ventura himself stating clearly; that he no longer travels out of his compound in Mexico state due to all the metal in his body.

Like the time travel visitors – each and every visit being different yet to display some detail that was very much needed in the course of shadowy events.

Time travel visits, the first few, see

In short, producing a “loner”.

Many who deal with this “task” handed to them happen to be LONERS such as Putin, & Da Vinci, who complained "this is what happens to solitary people.

It was more than fortunate that the times which she inhabited also produced mobile libraries.

They were a style of large van and some even a small truck made up as a pre-cursor to the mobile home.

The arrival of the mobile library at country schools was for her, the Best Friend for Life.

Absorbed, lost, gone, and transported, learning, all at the same time.

No wonder she won all her spelling competitions – a thing which sent her a vocation, and one for the rest of her lifetime. At fifteen she had found herself in a place of employment more like Home to her.

With a printing & publishing firm. employed as a “copy-holder”.

Of a higher impact (for her) being their vocation. They worked at the joint task of Secretaries for an organization called the Flora & Fauna Protection Society of New South Wales. Thus living in tents almost as a permanent holiday everywhere they travelled for the duties of her great-uncle, who was known either in reality or euphemistically as a “Bush Ranger”, one whose duties included checking on National Parks, the continued safety of the rarer flora and fauna and visiting, to protect, the Sacred and always Secret, Original People’s Ancient History.

It was on several of these visits to two differing areas of the State, that she was bitten; trying to comprehend huge flat blue-stone granite boulder arrangements - each covered in what can only be defined as a universe of constellations. The only means by which “true timing can be set”.

Preface to his son Cesar, EXPLANATION OF THE PREFIXES, RESETS

It began right there, at a place called Brisbane Waters at that time, but later named Kariong. Kariong Glyphs

Her uncle did not have any idea what the glyphs were really about, dragging her nevertheless to witness the walls of hieroglyphs for herself. Not needing much in the way of encouragement to have her promise never to mention them to anyone – ever. He having a brother-in-law who was raised with a clan of Original people in the Centre of Australia at a place called Spring Creek. Fully aware of tribal Secrets which must be the best-kept on the planet, running bare foot and bare bummed, this brother-in-law was her grandfather, father to her mother – their only child. Both grandfather and great-uncle having much in common. The grandfather’s aunty had been the pioneer May Brown of the Northern Territory – she the pugalist “Wolfram Queen” herself.

To realize in later age; the synchronicity of that which she was looking at – and that she was to play a very firm part in saving those hieroglyphs and Constellation Stones from greedy, authoritative, mendacious little tin-gods “grubberment and their fracking landgrabbing”...

THE STONES WERE THERE IN 1958 WHEN SHE DID SEE THEM, HAVING KEPT HER SILENCE FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS... UPON THIS STATUTORY DECLARATION ARRIVING at STEVEN & EVAN STRONG Archaeologists, THE ORIGINAL PEOPLE ELDERS CAME FORWARD AND LAID CLAIM TO THEM AND THEIR HISTORY.

THUS BREAKING THEIR OWN RULES OF SILENCE TO PROTECT AND SAVE THE LAND.

...having answered the question asked by the archaeologist: “why a portion of the hieroglyphs were worn away” – a thing she did notice as that child: she answered “there was spring-fed running water over the rock face at the time, sourced from under an Angothera tree above the wall” she told him. Long names like Angothera and “Ornichorynchus paradoxus” (platypus) had never fazed her. There were other details not publicly admitted, relating to the collapsed walls - which she confirmed to him.

In anyone’s life there should be a Mentor... an important crossing of personal life-lines which world-wide home desk computers are robbing youngsters of. In her case, it was the Elevator Man. How did he know to give her some Edgar Cayce books? Having left the printers office to update opportunities at seventeen, she began a new line of employment with The Trunk Exchange where she met The Lift or Elevator man. Daily short conversations with this man of no name were hitting her like arrows. Edgar Cayce should be required reading for anyone interested in a history of humanity, medical science or spiritual involvement. He said the Arcturans gave him the information and we will see later, they are also members of the Elohim Alliances. Arcturus (she-bear) is near Boötes in Libra.

As much as people might say they do not want the gory details – as “it’s too much information” - the weaving of the fabric of one girl’s life would not be complete without those elements which, like wolfram utilized to alloy iron, or heat to temper the steel, hardens the bullet.

NELL ONCE LET NONE TRYANISE 1 75 1

Naïve as any virgin need be, she accepts a lift in a car driven by one of her brother’s mates from school. She did have a perfectly operating push bike with her, which the three boys put into the spacious boot of the FJ Holden.

The day is Friday the thirteenth and two weeks ago she turned sixteen. The drive to “take her home” included a large circle of many miles, out to the local cemetery. Did she know she was in trouble? Of course, yet still placed her trust in at least one of the “boys”. The one which was her brother’s “mate” from school. The other two were around nineteen. Old enough to be flying fighter jets away in some other war. The one nicknamed Blue (due to his red hair) had a firm grip on one arm, the nameless school friend taking his cue from Blue had the other, and black – eyed Steve saying to her “I will go first”.

What was her response? Word for word: “good, I will be sooo glad to be rid of this virginity”.

For some reason this comment triggered a limp-dick syndrome in the Arm Holders, and Steve could barely keep his mission under control. He was quite well built in every department, she was dry, it did hurt, and the job was done under a blazing Australian summer sun. With little argument from the boys she asked them to drive by a chemist on the way home and provide feminine articles because she was bleeding and did not want her mother to see. They complied with some alacrity.

The following week, on the news, a girl was found raped and murdered in that same cemetery, and not the first.

Obviously Friday the thirteenth is a lucky date for her.

Her gods had compassion and introduced her to her soul-salve. A mere two weeks later while out riding hired horses with her life-long girlfriend Jackie Swanson, she met Jacques Phillippe fresh from France. At 26, he was ten years older, but she told him she was nineteen.

He was “sent” to show her what real lovin’ can be, and she was a fast learner.

Cars, was the problem. Sports cars.

The cars themselves were innocent, of course, but the boys who drove them were not. One young skinny randy redhead in particular, zooming in on her (can we say she was vulnerable?) won her as a “bet” amongst mates that she would go out with him. How hard was that! All he had to say to her was “want me to teach you how to drive my car”? Of anyone’s idea of a “date” in those days – that one would be the winner. He did a splendid job.

In one foul fell swoop she learned to drive an Austin Healey 100M, and got pregnant to boot.

Clever sports car!

Finding herself as a mother at nineteen, following a harrowing toxæmic pregnancy, forty seven hour hard labor including egotistical young male doctor keen to prove his worth, lording it over the maternity nurses who knew far more than he would ever be likely to learn. Both mother and nurses suffering his decision to forgo caesarian by simply cutting her in half vertically outside and horizontally inside, in order to drag out her unplanned son.

Three months later red headed dad, with new girlfriend and baby son were gone far north.

Good enough reason for anyone to head west. Nothing less than back o’ Burke...

Where, answering “yes” to a date offered by a jackeroo on the neighbour’s property (fifty five thousand acres away) she finds herself in Burke town during the spring race carnival, in the dark, surrounded by nine drunk strangers. Some were there to be jockeys on the day, others merely their simian mates.

For once she is wearing a female form of clothing called a dress, in reality, a piece of pink material more suited as a shirt. “Let’s go to the woolshed dance”! Who is going to say no to that idea!

So, the only female (that should have screamed volumes) with nine strangers, amongst them the Trojan horse jackeroo neighbour she sort of knew ... all piled into two Customline Ford V8 twin spinner sedans and took off. Somewhere. Somewhere northish. About seventy miles northish.

Only stopping at a large campfire, kept fuelled by two “darkies” – mates of these guys.

Some might call this a Plan. An Arrangement.

One by one these fifty-percenter members of humanity (the male gender) piled into the front seat trying to pile on top of her only to be told “you will have to kill me.”

“I am an artist and can and will draw all of your portraits”.

Weilding a pen like a knife, (they were strong pens in those days. Called fountain pens) as she makes this statement - eight times, to eight very drunken would-be-rapists.

The ninth guy was sober.

Not because he may have been the designated driver (no such thing in the 1960’s) but because he did not drink alcohol. He said his name was George and “would she like to get out of here”.

Stupid question.

He locks all the doors and true to his word begins the drive back to Burke. Swapping yarns and pertinent personal details, (like “what star sign are you George?” Pisces was the answer) and phone numbers.

The ‘portrait’ warning did hold weight, since she had won art competitions, one being a portrait of her father.

“Hang on a sec” George says. “Something’s wrong here”, pulling up the car to find four of the drunken idiots each suspended by hanging onto a door handle (lucky they had footboards) because George was not holding back on the petrol. He kicks them off and tells them to “bugger off, follow the fire”, about three miles back.

Waking in the magpie morning with the arms of a nice guy keeping you safe. How romantic was that!

She knew he was a nice guy when three months later, for her twentieth birthday, he telephoned her mum’s house (several hundred miles away from Burke) where she happened to be.

Does anyone know what it takes for a country guy to find a phone in the nineteen sixties and actually use it?

Some might say this was the universe talking. No presence of mind at all. Let that one slip by.

The silly part (still the universe talking?) the next job (not that far from Burke and George) off working at the Cunamulla Gate only to be consistently told there that she was no comparison to the previous jillaroo “Jeanie”.

After one month, four long hot weeks, being manhandled by her boss (such as up a sixty foot windmill in brand new slippery R.M. Williams boots on a tiny wooden platform a crow would look at twice before perching)... supposedly holding the Southern Cross blades steady while he greased them – suddenly a big black hand has a firm grip on one of her boobs and he says “what ya gunna do now missy”. Another Silly Question. Looking down at the concrete bore she says simply “jump of course”. Mr big-ears, the piebald sheep dog trainer, decides she means it and gives up. Sacking her on the spot. She only knew he was piebald when he stripped off his shirt to work on the bore. She realizes he has a perfect blue-white torso with just his arms and neck blackened by the sun. Before that she thought he was black.

Returning to the Trunk Exchange, she was handed an unpopular night shift, amongst over three thousand employees using any one of three floors at any given time - only to find herself sitting next to that one-and-only “Jeanie.”

Firm karmic friends for the remainder of their lives, she becoming mentor to Jeane’s daughter, whose unwitting influence (at the age of two) was to change the course of her life. Having married Mr Mead in the mean-time and finally finding herself three months pregnant – a case of German Measles received from the two year old saw the loss of that child (on her twenty sixth birthday) as well as the marriage. Almost as if that marriage to Mr Mead was merely to gain the name of “Dame”.

Studio of the author of the Centuries & his assistant, Monsieur Scaliger, following an unusual appearance of many lights in the night sky February 1st J554. The strange and overwhelming appearances continued more than hour with with a thousand people gazing up incredulous & open mouthed. Being winter* or at least in a mini ice, age so it had been dark for many hours, and this part of the night was shortly after 7pm. This evening seems otherwise normal:

“Why do we have no warm seasons such as we hear from the south?”

M.Scaliger asks the gout ridden docteur.

“We have been, my dear friend Caesar, living in God’s attempt at a little ice age, good for about five hundred years, and caused by events beginning around J329. In J330, J336, & J352 there were great irruptions of the sea (pausing for breath: I wonder what caused that?). The extreme cold commenced as rivers freezing solid for months at a time... interspersed with occasional and very strange droughts such as J331 to J341 Anatolia, Antioch, Cypress, Syria ^{James A Marusek} followed by snow in the English Isles fifteen feet high for six weeks during the year of our Lord J341. It is as if we are enduring the “dance of our planet” promised by Isaiah! Another great inundation of the sea in J353 with the loss of over three thousand persons and their cattle. Northern Gaul of J355 saw the promise of icy times to come and three years later another eruption of the sea causing the loss of over five thousand people. Compagna* in J368 having a great eruption of the sea with huge losses and great destruction. These are tsunamis, from under the sea floor – precursors of Earthly activity only two hundred years gone by, which can see great famines resulting and what we have today, in J554 [M. D.LIV] ~ and this will continue until the little Emperor fails in the Russe in J812.”

Shrug of his shoulders shows what Scaliger is really thinking – one can always be assured of a good answer from the docteur!

A strange man, given to passing comment on the future as if it were exactly going to happen.

Monsieur the docteur, Michael was well-travelled at fifty one, having spent near a dozen years in the Levant. Not without a visit to Modena to view the giant Artur over the door lintel, nor without siring a petit-fils, base-born son there.

Filippo – lover of horses – and the boy not ignored as a son either, but given alkhemye instruction.

Filippo, dear sad son, forced to change his name to Giordano Bruno, the be burned at an iron stake. How does one know this detail? The answer is simple.

Once a person has received alkhemye instruction – one recognises when others have done so!

Like Michael’s other son (Cesar) soon to be born, both brothers to be well versed during their lifetimes in the foreign knowledge and wisdom Michael had gained while away in Egypt and the Levant.

1 40 3 ONE ASSIGNED TO STUDY ANCIENT EGYPTIAN HISTORY

Running feet, jostling pandemonium out on the streets (too early for second sleep) what can it mean?

People pouring out of their stōeps, hands shading eyebrows even though the darkness was complete – because of the very bright lights making hoariness glitter, casting strong blue shadows rippling along the cobblestones.

From Provence to Marseilles and over to Chavan by Sea...

What a sensation! Many strange and unfamiliar lights coursing overhead turning night into day – travelling in the skies with no sound nor tail wind. One’s icy breath clouding out and hovering in stillness. So many people watching, with their tangible volumes of breath suspended lit up blue grey all over their heads, through which they stood for over an hour.

Michael was not about to admit to anyone he knew exactly what this was, and Who were the occupants, since, yes, these were flying vessels.

Where were they from? He knew that too, having been “huxed” since he went away to medical college, where his father had sent him at fourteen. The docteur is a man of many secrets and careful on sharing them. Several episodes of his own life is now in Their hands, Those above. The most momentous event around the time of the loss of his entire family to a plague, suddenly finding himself standing in an artists studio. The year of J539, [Julian] at the age of thirty six, Michael simply appeared before Leon – and all Leon could comment, in his own shock “he appeared in the artist’s studio, the mentor in hosiery and [then he] drew his face within (the painting)”. ^{Ibid} The timing between leaving in J539 and arriving in J485, some fifty four years earlier means several of those years occurred before Michael was even born! What stockings were to Leon’s century was underwear, but to Michael’s century was high fashion hosiery!

Consequent to this visit, Leon stated "and I painted his face in" [the Last Supper] for people to witness in later centuries.

The other example of time travel proof is the Macca's sigil which appears in the cut off human leg vignette

Michael appeared with a Therses; as the twelfth disciple, pointing up. As he should, being born in December. Yet that makes no sense either. It was Julian kalends at the time. December was the tenth month. #Ten = Elohim group

Leon fans will in the far future, find many artworks of his with one hand pointing up. What does this say? Shortly following the unidentified aerial phenomena – lord Tende (the local mayor) asked Michael to provide a report of the event. The report to lord Tende was dated March 10th J554, just over one year prior to the first edition of the prophecies known as Les PROPHETIES iiii iour de Mai M. D. LV. in which the centuries go as far as number 4 53. Every one of them had been proof-read, and corrected where needed, by the docteur himself.

Take note of the space between the Roman numeral 'M' (one thousand) and the Roman numerals for 5.55

These works having been handed to the docteur to write up, laboriously by home-made ink and plume.

Who gave the works to him? Those in the Unidentified Aerial Phenomena no less.

Why did they send warnings to humanity in this manner?

Why do it several centuries, in effect, eight centuries, before the Main Events?

The primary & most frightening alert is that of Artificial Intelligence, quoted as "the greatest danger to Earth".

Trying to be god in God's world – coupled with defoliating the planet, depleting populations of all living things, manipulating the orbit, and off world entities invading in the most invidious manner.

The only bright light on all of this is that there are three visitors from other parts of outer space with a disparate agenda and between them they have conflicting needs.

For one thing, the artificial intelligence does not need an atmosphere; whereas the others do, albeit not the same as The Living Library does. The other two being reptilian Beings with all their negative hierarchy "orders", and the Elohim Alliances who actually created what was once a greatly beautiful planet they term the Living Library. To be shared and nurtured by all – equally.

from Da Vinci's Riddle 'The Willow'^{Elohim-Branches} 'The Magpie'^{/prophet}

Magpie was the sigil for Provence where the prophet was born and the seeds of the Gourde'/Cup/Casseopea-hybrids.

Allora la sgazza fatto e fermi alquanti capitoli di novo col salice,-

When translating the Medieval Italian, there has been an occasional person "advise" me that my English translation is not correct. They forget, or rather, do not know, that the subsequent context includes the use of the "cues" as Da Vinci prefers to call them.

The ciphers adding to the disguised translation.

This sentence is saying that the Centuries (new chapters) were handed to the "singer" to produce !

Meaning all the Quatrains were given to Nostradamus, & all the Riddles script were given to Da Vinci to WRITE up. The Willow with all its branches and sadness refers to those which comprise the Elohim Alliances for the Living Library.

Maybe this was what the CAPITALIZED word BRANCHES was also referring to C1 Q2 line 1

The disc in hand is placed in the middle of/ from/by the BRANCHES/Willow-Elohim – DNA branches.

Download ... Jesse Ventura Attacks David Icke ..

NOTE: Watch alex jones' eyes in the very beginning of this clip, & ditto Jesse's eyes. also take note of how young Jesse appears, and that there is a lag in synching the speech

Here is part of the clip - the eyes are orange thru-out and no sign of age which you will see in the very first frame when they first do meet... one frame only yet – I see the same with David!

Is this video really propaganda placed by the reptilian faction to guide people towards a way of thinking AGAINST David Icke?

Does this answer the question: "Why is it David Icke has not been "dispensed with"?"

You are the judge

Can you see the eyes?

Watch them closely in the video, they will do the classic double blink of the reptilian

The commentator has some really good observations as well – "do you believe in God? Show me"

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Uk_pudR1kNI

At right on 9:00 watch Jesse's eyes do the reptilian "slide"

Alex Jones complete with no gravelly voice at all.

AND here is part of the double shift of the reptilian Jesse's eyes at the 8:59 mark yet – I see the same with David!

 Here at 8:44+ you will clearly see his eyes are reptilian.
 More clearly than I could catch with this screen shot.
 Is this classic Hegelian dialect?
 Playing you, the video watcher and voter as the idiot?
 So we have E.Yah saying above to vote for Jesse, the real Jesse Ventura and somehow expecting the voters then to have the means to discern from then on which is which? I do have one warning: this is ALSO edited – from when David gets up, which is when Jesse's head had changed shape

Despite being told in advance that a pick-up would be happening March 20 2017, I was not really ready. Being "ready" includes having eaten the right foods. Organic raw corn with lemon zest, organic Maple Syrup. No MSG or saccharine, no refined sugars. No nitrates or sulphides - which salami etc (pizza) contain plenty.

Going to bed with the sun means leaping out of bed around 3am. By 3 45 it was time to let the dogs outside. Climbing the stairs to open their porch gate suddenly my flashlight-free right hand is reaching for the gate and dogs staring at me with questions in their eyes. No torch. Sun is up. It is about 7 15a.m! Where did three and a half hours go? Where did my torch go? Sharp clarity. Recalling burning sensation in the legs, suddenly realizing something wrong with the right eye. Wrong because spectacles are not working. Not working because right eye can see again. It took a little longer to realize the right ear could hear again too. This was the occasion for brain repair, returning with reflexes of a 20 year old fighter pilot.

 The original image is quite dark, so I shot it [the image] with my above the stump, none of which I had noticed until now – a full 20 years later.

Those are not stars - they are in the front of the clouds
 This is the same "camp" which is named in the quatrain 2 44:

The eagle ^[Anu craft] shooting encircling the encampment
 Will be chased from there by other birds, ^{the orbs}
 When noise of cymbals, trumpets and bells ^(the announcement)
 Pronouncing the lady/dame makes sense of the senseless.
 "encampment" consisted of a silver train carriage and a caravan dame = Mead

[Anu craft] the "SPHENOID" craft other birds the orbs – silver ones same as in this photo – taken using roll of film (the announcement) this is the timing of selling this property to move to where we are now, where the Hidden Texts really began

Posted this to fb to show the dance of the orbs over the top of the stump when more observant people than I am spotted the object inside the dome – a mystery of its own.

Thank you King Kay! He enlarged it to show it seems to be a mobile planetoid, with the possibility the dome is a form of force field shield.
 There seems to be orbs on this side of the dome too. This is the same "camp" named in 2 44, where "the eagle is chased by other birds..."
 These orbs are the same my 10 year said two landed on the hill above the huge dam, and how very pretty they were. I slept through this.

Here is one of these orbs as David

The hidden message in these crop circles is the same as Da Vinci's in his Last Supper and Nostradamus in a vignette

- proof we are in I344CE:
 to gain the big picture regarding timelines being changed behind our back via calendars you partly also need to know why.
 Therefore it took me four different angles of approach to pinpoint it properly.
 1) all the old evidence on maps about dates that start with a "J"
 (for Julian prior to January in J583) and one in particular which described journeys of four explorer-privateers, one of which none of us was ever taught in school,
 but the main one being
CHRISTOSPHERE CELUMBO returned to Spain in J499 and yes, how ironic he who thought earth might be flat had a sphere in his name
 2) the Resets of the Ages due to a passing comet half the size of our sun, named in different "bibles" and clay tablets

Fuse Event also known as Wave event: with all the goldencubes aggregated together to shield us. Large planet is Zha.ami, tiny one is Earth

If you were ever wondering why each of the pdf forums peak out around the 40 pages limit – it is due to the size capacity of emailing them, first to the website man, second the mailing list.

Chrono – means no progeny. Apron shaped banner = Capricorn as is the Stag. Earth breaking away in Sagitta (just prior Capricorn) Pisces will reverse and Sagitta is already reversed. The banner there has one final half turn. Our spin.

false "messsiah" from Sirius
 the coronet means "Prince" and Prince means Sirius
 Even Edgar Cayce unwittingly said the Prince returns-with bear-lion claws, Ash or Rowan.
 Known also as the Dragon tree.
 Pisces, Sagitta facing wrong way tectonic plates – Earth moving
 "the great translation in an October"
 Last line Jno Sol = Saturn, a new sun, again

crown of thorns, empty book, one eyed stag/Orion, Bent banners childless chrono, matriarchal, empty millwheel, perched owl.
 In Giroux book I Am Darius, it was always an owl that signalled a visit when he was airlifted to the "moon ship", on which was Parvechal and others "making the weather", in particular, bad weather.
 Both the stag and the Apron shape
 refer to in Capricorn

3) the Chronologic Weather Events of the World since before C.E. by nuclear physicist James A Marusek paired with items world wide with strange dates on them (many photos I took myself) 4) and Nostradamus wrote J562 (a presage) dating it that way, he wrote on the very front of his book PREDICTIONS (and that word is in the English) that one thousand years was "made" and then... in 10 72, it does not say:

"In the year 1999 and seven months", not at all, it talks of a change to the PREFIX to new calendars (seventh month in the Julian year for him was October, the very month of the year Gregorius changed the Julian kalends to 'Gotique' - a word only used until 600AD. so I will put the pdf links here - filled with pictures that one thousand years was "made" in "five hundred eighty three"

DNA Responds To Frequency

The Russian biophysicist and molecular biologist Pjotr Garjajev and his colleagues explored the vibrational behavior of the DNA. The bottom line was: “Living chromosomes function just like solitonic/holographic computers using the endogenous DNA laser radiation.”

This means that they managed for example to modulate certain frequency patterns onto a laser ray and with it influenced the DNA frequency and thus the genetic information itself. Since the basic structure of DNA-alkaline pairs and of language (as explained earlier) are of the same structure, no DNA decoding is necessary.

This finally and scientifically explains why affirmations, autogenous training, hypnosis and the like can have such strong effects on humans and their bodies.

It is entirely normal and natural for our DNA to react to frequency. While western researchers cut single genes from the DNA strands and insert them elsewhere, the Russians enthusiastically worked on devices that can influence the cellular metabolism through suitable modulated radio and light frequencies and thus repair genetic defects.

Garjajev's research group

succeeded in proving that with this method chromosomes damaged by x-rays for example can be repaired.

Garjajev's research group They even captured information patterns of a particular DNA and transmitted it onto another, thus reprogramming cells to another genome. So they successfully transformed, for example, frog embryos to salamander embryos simply by transmitting the DNA information patterns! This way the entire information was transmitted without any of the side effects or disharmonies encountered when cutting out and re-introducing single genes from the DNA. This represents an unbelievable, world-transforming revolution and sensation! All this by simply applying vibration instead of the archaic cutting-out procedure! This experiment points to the immense power of wave genetics, which obviously has a greater influence on the formation of organisms than the biochemical processes of alkaline sequences.

"" the former Minister of National Defense of Canada Paul Hellyer giving full disclosure within parliament about the UFO coverup stories and ET contacts we have made. He explains in front of a room of government officials that there are over 80 species of aliens we are aware of, and 4 of them in particular that we have made direct contact with on earth:..."

Early in the writing of these texts a table of Extra Terrestrials was drawn up that resulted in the pdf forum titled 84 EXTRA TERRESTRIALS. When I saw Paul Hellyer trying to say we had four ET here in contact, I sent him this pdf. That was either 2010 or 2011. He then made public there are "over 80" and since has whittled that from the 84 to 82 – in which he is fully correct. Of the 84, I had included two groups, whose members are also named in the list.

To leave this article hanging stating "the five main Extraterrestrial Races In Contact With Earth Right Now... " would be quite remiss of me for one thing – those behind the Military Industrial Media Complex do not seem to have one mention in his article – and THAT would be called MISinformation!

Naturally, the table which was taken from the Template, refers only to those which have an affect on Earth. The "four" Hellyer was speaking of were the SAMAROBIN "insane four" in the texts. Those which made false treaties with the cloned FDRoosevelt and the unknowing Eisenhower.

Those which has also made agreements with Teddy Roosevelt regarding making National Parks national. The word "national" refers to off world nations. In the instance of the Parks, includes off world cryptid creatures.

One of which is a form of "ten foot yeti" described by the Casseopean as their forest nurturer.

Does this paint a new picture in your mind regarding the "United Nations"?

When reading the words in this UNCATEGORISED article please keep in mind both Billy Meier and Fred Bell stated the Pleiadians – the real ones, cannot contact we humans by any means at all.

Our "auric stench" damages their aura. Also note, they have no king and do not need any kings, because they all use telepathy. No one "needs" a king

April 10 1980. Sitting eating lunch in the office, reading (a rather 'dry') old publication – old as in about twenty years before – by Erika Cheetham titled The Phrophecies of Nostradamus. Not much else occupying her mind (let's not suggest it was totally empty) she ponders on the "Monaco from hunger, place captured, captivity" 3 10 3 followed by "The great one caught crunching in metallic cage." 3 10 4 When, like every one else, the thinking here re-referred to Grace Kelly and her death caught in a car wreck rolling down a cliff.

There were questions sloshing around in her head.

The first two lines were speaking about “from blood & starvation greater calamities” and “Seven times abreast at the sea shore”. What type of “blood, hunger, captivity,” would princess Grace refer to? Was the quatrain a divided warning? Was she murdered because of this place being captured? Was it really about Grace Kelly? Sighing deeply, sick of reading what appears to be nonsense – she closes her eyes and asks out loud: “Dear Father in Heaven – please help me to understand these quatrains more deeply”.

There is a major difference in Knowing there is Someone Up there in Heaven than just guessing about it. She already experienced enough events which spoke louder than megaphones regarding “Them Up There”... That very morning, on the way to work (the date was a 13th again) she had been riding her motor bike (a 650cc Kawasaki with front and back disc brakes) along the main road through Kellyville. On the left is a major turn off to Blacktown. A hand-painted grey Kombie van stops in front of her to turn left leaving her to overtake, a necessity at the speed she was travelling.

With Great Fortune, this particular VW Kombie sported a row of windows down both sides – through which she could see the traffic on the Blacktown Road left hand turn off.

That traffic moving and turning across her bows onto Kellyville Road. Best thing to do – lift the left leg over the bonnet of the Valiant, which banged loudly into the fins of her engine, and ride on as if all was hunky-dory. Didn't even apply the brakes.

When she arrived at work she was amazed at the mess the motor and the exhaust pipe displayed.

Completely flattened all the way along its length. The bike did not even ricochet off at the impact, not like her leg would have!

This was the period in her life concerning unnatural memories and a strange physical scar.

All in the one week, very soon after the motor bike incident, she lost both her grandmothers seven days apart.

As if mother's mum and father's mum had agreed between them to leave together, with the poorest of timing; such as the end of a fiscal year and she unable to attend either funeral. And what boss would ever believe her?

Coupled with being picked up by Them Up There (T.U.T.) and receiving an implant in the front of her thigh which left a sort of shallow scoop a few inches above the knee. This was almost the exact spot she managed to hit the corner of her desk every time she rounded it, so she explained the scar to herself with that thinking.

The memories of beaming up went something like this.

Dogs barking – Kahla and Sasha, two beautiful German Shepherds. A strange sort of barking, cut short mid yelp.

A brightness, eye burning in its strength and clarity, with a hint of blue within – shooting through the window much like the movies show – on the other side of the front door – seeping through any weakness allowing it.

Her arm seen moving towards the door handle, with a mind all its own. Watching her own hand turning that door handle... feet not touching the ground from that moment. No fear. Full of fearlessness – one part of the mind saying “this is stupidity” the other part entirely open to the Wonder of floating up.

Asks herself “do I have two brains?” Confronting the worst part of the trip arriving; is the Smells.

Vomiting, spewing, perking, whatever description comes to mind will fit. The atmosphere there leaves much to be desired. It teems with life with T.U.T. Just as David Huggins' paintings show. Little cute hairy guys, who knows what they are capable of doing as young Sasquatch, little hooded dark scary guys (she does not want to know what their task is) see-through folk very tall, twice the height of an Earth human, very thin looking like they would fall over if hit by a hankie. Light green, bluish, grayish, creamish, pinkish and all colours in between.

She suspects that most real-time memories are denied her. Yet T.U.T. are happy to let her see out the spaceship windows which are kind of oblong. Looking at the beautiful round blue, white and green yellow-red planet.

She not thinking to ask the more important questions – or at least, she thinks she did not ask. Maybe They just answered, then buried the answer for a while, until she is ready to deal with it.

Does she know why she is there? No. Her best guess has been the idea of egg-harvesting, just as Bridget Nielsen states in her videos. Knowing there are many thousands of Earth born women providing this same service. Some even being returned to see, hold, and share love with the “fruits of their loins”. GET THE VIDEO LINK OF A LADY HUXED

What does this breeding program tell her?

That there is hope for future humanity? That there are people being born on Earth (and above) which will carry on in the progress of a Higher Thinking Hu-man? That ideal which we have all been born to fulfil and so few manage to accomplish?

Have you ever seen a WalMartian? Is that what T.U.T. had planned for humanity every time they must needs tweak the human DNA? Do you doubt it? She did.

Raising the other questions for her.

Why does humanity need assistance every time an Earth catastrophe wipes the slate clean?

When major ice ages arrive, they seem to “clear up” problems left behind by a non-thinking humanity which preceded it. Noting it (the Problem) seems to be caused by leaders of that humanity and not necessarily the folk themselves.

What is the Answer? She Knows the Answer, & returns from the last Beam-Up-Trip bolstered with the Answer.

They (T.U.T.) told her they can only beam-up in very recent centuries, rather than land a craft due to Opposition taking over the western hemisphere and shooting all their little guys and their scout craft-orbs out of the skies. This becomes one method of recognising (via "astrionics" 7 12 3. 7 13 3, 4 72 4. 6 78 1) almost all space craft wit-nessed by folk belong to the Opposition, simply on the grounds that if it were a good guys craft it would be eliminated. Only by using time gates, can T.U.T. come and go safely, with two exceptions – the orbs which are seen working amongst chemtrails clearing out biogens, and those seen at the Twin Towers Deceit. These use time gates too, as do the Golden Cubes.

There are Twenty eight videos of "orbs at 9-11" Three orbs flitting in and out of the smoke.

She was later to discover that one held NostraDamus, One contained Da Vinci and the third was St. Germain.

In the very beginning of the anagram idea, I must confess I pooh poohed the very idea – not even willing to investigate! Accidentally finding Allan's blog was no accident. Especially his Runic Skies. In August 2016 I did send the "LIKE A PIANO" line to Allan, he merely answered with a brush-off about 'no longer doubling up the lines being fed into the computer', plus he is still using the non original books of Centuries which his own Template said not to do.

Friends have asked "how do you feel about reading of your own demise"?

Well, relief, is the word that first comes to mind – but mostly the second thought immediately following that thought is this:

In the latter lifetime of Nostradamus, he is most remembered by the public for his famous after death prediction with the exact date, that his grave would be broken into and that the thieves would not survive the event. Not forgetting what he answered his assistant the night before he was found dead standing up. The assistant had said "see you in the morning" and the doctor had answered "no you will not". See the forum ONE SENT TO DIE, UNIQUE OF ALL DEATHS

If the only thing that comes out of all of this is that the prophecies in these three lines come true, then my own work is done.

A FREAKY FRIDAY NIGHT

codes within codes

To date the subject of "codes within codes" has not been explained.

There are two relatives of mine who have some involvement in these works, with which they were born.

One is my last daughter "adroit Eloise" and the other is my niece whose Native name is Lehelani, but who was named at birth by my other mother as Stella Heap.

Anyone who has been reading these works will know what the word Stella means and also now, what the alchemye word Heap means. That of the Pleiades. Yes, weird, I know.

Just proof that there is no such thing as coincidence.

On the same Friday night (around September of 2010) three events happened simultaneously.

My phone rang with Stella saying 'I have a message for you, something about codes in capitalised words'... Immediately the phone called again and it was my 'adroit' daughter seated at a restaurant with the sudden urge to let me know pop had come to her and pointed at words that were capitalized, saying 'recode them'. Pop was Stella's dad.

All the while this was happening – seated watching my television – from my right – a shadow came thru my front window idled over above the t.v. did a spin around, three times, then went out to my left and into the laundry. It returned from the laundry (door was closed) and over to the t.v. doing its three-way arabesque, leaving out to my right thru the front window. This was all about 7 pm.

The latter entity would have spooked many people who would have seen it as a demon or bad omen and entirely skipped over what it was doing. Yes, it was not in this dimension fully – but the first tenet all my life has been to see what anyone is doing. As in facta non verba – my school motto. Deeds, not the words. It had hovered over the main source of "information" which our populations have these days.

All the capitalized words had been collected (quite a while ago) not knowing what to do with them.

On working with just the capitalized words in the quatrains- some of the most important information has been derived.

This is why some town names and others such as Roy as 'roi' have remained with no capitalisation!

They are not needed in the "codes within codes".

The greatest angst I have suffered (and I do not use that word lightly) throughout the term of these works has been the repairing of that which non thinking 'decipherers' have done. Whoever they are and were – to have the temerity to sift thru the very words laid by Nostradamus and to change them for whatever reason has been the greatest bane of the prophecies themselves. Almost like the conspiracy (conspire to piracy) which the Bible has suffered – again and again. Right at these times, the bibles have very little similarity to the verily original words. The people who read them for the first time have no idea they are false words.

It is like those who have been born since the advent of chemtrails (in the 1980's) – they know no other sky.

Another form of codes within codes: anagram the English words back, and you receive more details...

Five Things To Know For Better Aquaponics

Aquaponics is a combination of fish farming (aquaculture) and soilless agriculture (hydroponics). Fish are kept in a water tank, and above it is a growing bed. Water from the fish tank is pumped up to the growing bed where it filters through a growing medium and the roots of your plants, then back into the fish tank below.

The process filters the water for the fish, and the filtered fish waste provides nutrients for the plants.

While it seems simple in concept, when people finally try their hand at it, they may confront several common problems. This guide hopes to shed some light on a few of them.

1. Be Patient You have your fish tank, you have your plants. Next, you must wait patiently for two things. First you have to wait for your fish tank to "cycle." As the water flows through your system, bacteria will begin establishing themselves in the upper grow bed among the growing medium. This bacteria breaks down ammonia in the water emitted as part of fish waste into safer nitrites. Before this happens, toxic levels of ammonia can build up, killing your fish. Therefore, put only a few fish in at first, and fish you can afford to lose. It can take up to 1-2 weeks before your water will be balanced and safe for your fish.

Next, a second variety of bacteria, when nitrite levels first begin to rise, will establish themselves, turning nitrites into nitrates, the substance that plants in your aquaponics system need to survive and thrive.

The entire process could take up to a month to complete. Once it begins, you will see your fish and plants begin to thrive. But before that, you may see disappointing results, including the loss of fish and droopy looking, sickly plants. Knowing that there is light at the end of the tunnel can help beginners hang in there and keep going. Wait patiently for the necessary microbiological activity to take root in your system and you will be rewarded.

2. Water Pump and Tubes Your water pump is the heart of your aquaponics system. Without it, the water will become stagnant, your plants will dry out and die, and the entire system will collapse. The tube you use to take water from your fish tank to your grow bed is very important. Make sure that it is secure and cannot under any conceivable circumstance come loose and fall out of your grow bed. If this happens, your system will empty out onto the floor, your fish will die, your plants will shrivel, and your water pump may burn out.

Designing a tubing route in your grow bed that is secure is one approach. Other approaches might include a device or tie that fastens the tube into place securely.

3. Drains and Overflow Another common problem, particularly in mature systems, is your grow bed's return drain becoming blocked. This can happen because your growing medium obstructs your drain outlet for whatever reason, or when roots become well developed to the point where they are blocking your system's drain.

This system's grow bed has an overflow notch designed into it (left). If for whatever reason your normal drainage stops, water will overflow through this notch (right), safely back into your fish tank until you unblock your drain. Without such a notch, water will flow out in all directions, including onto the floor, eventually emptying out your entire system!

When drain blockage happens, water will backup in the grow bed and flow out wherever the path of least resistance so happens to be. Once again, your project may empty out onto the floor, with similarly disappointing consequences.

Designing an overflow feature into your grow bed can be as simple as drilling holes near the top edge of the grow bed, directly over the fish tank, to ensure that if water reaches the holes, it empties out back into the fish tank until you return and remove the primary drain's blockage.

Another feature could be a notch designed into the grow bed if you happen to be building yours from scratch using a material like ferrocement.

Test your overflow provision with your growing medium placed in the grow bed. This is necessary because many kinds of aquaponics growing medium are buoyant to a certain degree and may overflow with the water, emptying it into the fish tank below. You must devise an overflow system best suited to the growing medium you are using.

4. Automation Little is needed day to day to take care of an aquaponics system once the fish are settled and plants are growing. Fish must be fed once or twice per day depending on the species; and once per week or so, water may be added as needed. It is possible to feed your fish automatically, meaning that only topping off the tank once in a while will be necessary. If your plants are not exposed to direct sunlight, you may use artificial lighting set on a timer such as off-the-shelf LED floodlights (30-50W, 6500K).

Timers, plugs, and outlets should be kept above the water level in both your fish tank and your growing bed (including in case of a possible overflow incident). Plugs and outlets should be kept so that if they fall they would not plunge into your system.

Despite whatever level you automate your system to, it is still a good idea to check it as often as you can, including checking drain outlets and the health of your plants and fish. Remote monitoring systems, where you can check in on your project over the Internet using a webcam, are also options you can include with your aquaponics system, but are still not substitutes for a first-hand assessment.

5. Start Small, Then Expand The temptation to start big should be resisted. Start a small system and meet all of your goals with it first such as raising fish to a certain size and number as well as raising plants to the point where they bear fruit or produce vegetables suitable for harvesting and use. Once this is accomplished, then move on to larger, more challenging systems.

Aquaponics is the creation of an artificial ecosystem that requires a good design, a careful balance between all of its working elements and, above all, time. A small, simple system will allow you to quickly gain the experience necessary to understand and control the variables involved in running any aquaponics system. Starting on a larger system and running into failures and setbacks will require larger amounts of time, money, and resources to correct and overcome.

Final Thoughts

There are so many different ways to run an aquaponics system depending on what you are trying to accomplish, under what conditions, and with what available resources. Failure is nothing more than a challenge to reassess what you have done, what mistakes you might have made, and what improvements you need to make in order to successfully cultivate an aquaponics system. Find success stories that mirror approximately the same sort of set up you are thinking about and use that as encouragement to reach your goals, then exceed them.

Like all gardening, maintaining an aquaponics system can be tremendously rewarding once these challenges are overcome. Once you've succeeded, feel free to share your experience with others. Maybe you will have an article titled, "5 more things to know for better aquaponics!"

CULPABLE chemical industry and the government

9. President Roosevelt became paralyzed over night while on his farm in the summer, which contained many crops, including apple orchards. He also swam the day prior in a bay that was heavily polluted by industrial agricultural run off.

10. Dr. Ralph Scobey and Dr. Mortind Biskind testified in front of the U.S Congress in 1951 that the paralysis around the country known as polio was being caused by industrial poisons and that a virus theory was purposely fabricated by the chemical industry and the government to deflect litigation away from both parties.

11. In 1956 the AMA (The American Medical Association) instructed each licensed medical doctor that they could no longer classify polio as polio, or their license to practice would be terminated. Any paralysis was now to be diagnosed as AFP (acute flaccid paralysis) MS, MD, Bell's Palsy, cerebral palsy, ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease), Guillian-Barre etc etc. This was orchestrated purposely to make the public believe polio was eradicated by the polio vaccine campaign but because the polio vaccine contained toxic ingredients directly linked to paralysis, polio cases (not identified as polio) were skyrocketing...but only in vaccinated areas.

DINOSAURS HARNESSSED IN TARTARIAN ART

seen also in the ICA STONES and in some little statuettes and on a column at Angkor Wat.

this one painted by Pieter Bruegel the Elder in 1562.

Somewhere in my old files there is a photo of Roman Baths tiled with dinosaurs as a feature
 If that dinosaur at the very bottom actually had white patches on it – this would mean these animals were being not only bred, but inbred, just as the incestual breeders of Mink found to their horror

We then need to consider that this year of 1562, one in which Nostradamus lived, becoming a pivotal period. Just 20 years later pope Gregory found the need to alter Julian calendars & we have now learned not many decades following there occurred a Reset.

Did this Reset ring the final dinosaur death knell ?

There is one illustration that comes down to us, from the privateers of the 1600 and 1700s at Patagonia depicting giant peoples there, not only people, but everything else, including a dinosaur in background.

Having recently fallen backwards off the steps onto the arm of the lawnmower resulting in both torn rotor cuffs.

Had the lawnmower not been there the sharp corner of a besser block wall was sitting waiting to do great harm.

Unable to drive or look for work, was forced to apply for an invalid pension. Sitting at the Centrelink office desk everything just stopped. No sound and not much movement – the lady interviewer was struck immobile as well.

Then out of an office to the right glided a tall elegant graceful person, glowing as she approached me. She leant over the public servant and said to me "Helen you have been invited to receive one full year disability pension".

❖ July 16 2016 a direct warning arrived, so the more people who know about this the better. It is called "empirical" evidence (how apt, a bit of a pun there). Recall the helicopter ? And the texts with it ? In the photo it looks like a toy – but this was no toy, although it may have been a drone, but I did not realize they make drones twice the size of Bell™ style helicopters, those which the likes of aerial police and media journalists use. This line does have a pair in the quatrains

If you had seen this and had done a little studying of the things that seem apparent here – what would you conclude? S---E S---’s post on fb Sept 15 2020, Which according to fb is a “product”, and not an “ad” nor a “post”.

So let us include that detail in a summary of the Overall “coin” “minted”.

Top is Saturn- so this is definitely from the ‘Saturnins’ As the docteur puts it.

Second is a rocket ship – so – still trying to hide from All Of Us that we have anti-gravity. An Elon Musk Deflection too. Deflection as in “lie”. Musk is a Satanist. His entire agenda proves that.

Do we still keep in mind who is the Accuser? What that means? It means the one pointing the finger, The Adversary, we live in an “adversarial” system. The Accuser. Who is the Accuser? Satan’s entity, Ala-Lu aka Lucifer/Allah. He who owns the black cube.

This coin has the APPEARANCE of being signed off by the ‘enemy’ of the Accuser – Trump. So here in effect, is the ACCUSED. At the bottom. All those agendæ shown on the coin are exactly What Trump is really fighting against. I strongly urge you to consider this coin as total DISinformation, in the very same manner of the 1985 Vatican coin with its chemtrails plane RITUAL MOCKING – which is now defunct, BECAUSE Trump has taken it – the entire vatican, over.

How do we know this is a truth? Trump got the Library too, and now Vatican books from the Library are beginning to see sunlight.

THUS, in this way we know this coin is a form of REVELATION of the METHOD. And nothing more. This is how the saturnine entities are retaliating Trump’s activities of pulling the rug from under them. The more we can spread this word of RITUAL MOCKING (and the Hidden Texts say so) the less power it RECEIVES.

Surely, this cannot get ANY clearer! The case of the Bushes dropping the Twin Towers to prevent NESARA – a thing we have only just learned in the previous forum ST GERMAIN with the ADVENT DATE being 9-11, which is how we refer to it! The Sirius IV/4 refers to SAMAROBIN of 6 5 3. SAAM, RIB, ON and R.
