SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER

With no completion of ABBA BOOK FIVE expected in time for a couple of the 2023 SEPTEMBER and OCTOBER alerts...

I thought I would pluck those out of the works in progress to get them published before any of them might come to fruition.

Hopefully I will have the wrong year, wrong month and be a complete Waster of the reader's time...

Centuries 1 Quatrain 5 Line 1 has 3 different words & spellings, in j555/2013 j557/2015 & j562/2020 versions...

I think these are three different struggles.

In October 2013 Earth began her larger elliptical orbit battling the pressures of the dead comet sun Nemesis solar system, along with seven planetary followers. One of them 14 times the size of Earth. The dead comet sun seen in infra red only is just under half the size of our old sun.

The 2015 period was when the agenda to begin population implosion using flu needles was planned... hence all the Hidden Texts pdfs for 2014 held flu needle warnings - but a spanner was shoved into that idea because the elite had it all arranged to set off Yellowstone too, while they simply jump-roomed to Mars. In October 2014 Mars Jump Room Base was demolished by sasar from the (give-a-good-dog-a-bad-name) Black Knight. You can find this event on youtube under Comet Coma On Mars or Meteor hit Mars Oct.2014. www.youtube.com/watch?v=Sx3WdyOihH8

- Feast of Tabernacles 2023 from September 29th
- R.O. Regency Order of the Andromeda Counsel
- There are three different versions of this quatrain line, one of which says the opposite to the others

Chafses feront fans faire long combat j555 Made driven away without long battle, the orbits shuffled Oct 2013
Chaffez feront pour faire long combat, j562 Made chased will be for long combat, the May 2020 Nemesis carved up in order to prevent it hitting Earth, like it did to Mars once. The consequence of carving parts off Nemesis is the reason for ongoing alien intervention, for land grabs, for injecting population with non-human entities and for child CARGO.

Recall Phil Schneider's warning "NEW WORLD ORDER AND ALIEN INVASION ARE ONE AND THE SAME THING"

One thing about UFO disclosure – it will begin full Technological disclosure, and vindicate many such as Bob Lazar. Google has the patent for Anti Gravity, as it does for using time as a method of travel. The trouble with the ersatz false invasion is that it is real. We will all be looking up at holograms by the Bluebeam Project ; meanwhile those underground deep down off world grayles of Phil Schneider combined with the Anunna from above and under the oceans... will take us all by surprize. Fortunately, Earth is too valuable as a Living Library, and the Galactic Elo'im Alliances who have been "appraising" Earth and her problems longer than we can count, are assisting Trump & Putin's intelligences.

Because Isaiah spoke of Earth "dancing" to and fro - I have been saying the lying down will be slow when all along, knowing what Nostradamus told Henri II in his Epistle, "that it will be in October that everyone will think she has lost her gravity" continuing with how mauseous this will make people. Yet - ISON & WORMWOOD came j689 - and the asterisms did reverse, so would that have been this occasion, seeing as j689 as a date sits between Nostradamus and us?

is the same as my visitor (they both were) only a bluish colour.
I have recently learned just how blue-green colour blind I am, so the Scheatt grey may have been greenish. I have been saying 'bluish' all along.*

Allan Webber's Template of Quatrein Lines anagrammed
 the pound sign £ was placed in front of the numbered lines sequence to prevent its auto-count

I never did publish the DIRECTIVES TO ALLAN & THE COLLATOR ~
 Which derived from two weeks sitting down reading each & every one of Allan Webber's Template of Anagrams; taking from 1999 , full two years before Sept. 11. 2001 finishing the very month I found him – August 2008. Then compiling the directions delivered in his Template of Anagrams for each Quatrein line of the Centuries, having to put them all into context first, not just the collator's but Allan's too!
 So I have just put the Headings here as chapters, for those directives to the Collator:

ALL the Quatrein lines with a pound sign reference, such as £ 1082 can be found here:

BULLETIN: IN HELLBENT BIDET EARTH ROLLOUER DIIE ADORE NOBLE I DRAGON IEAR

➤ GREGORIUS^{affric} Pope Gregory, whichever one it really was, who in October i582 removed ten days of the Kalends (TABLE) to bring the iulian months into a lineup with lunar ('pagan') Kalends. Who, in January of i583 – (according to these texts) – exchanged the initial prefix which read as Iulian/Julian (and by 583, the J had just been established as a letter) to a Roman number i/1 . Ever seen that? The numbering shown as lower case i, as ii for 2, iii for 3/ and iiij for 4. The latter was changed to read iv by 598. Yet for legal purposes these numbers appearing as a suffix, required what was called a SWASH – an extension to the base of the last digit in order to prevent fraud – for example iiij. This number is still a legal four today; or a iiij /3 or a ij /2.

➤ THIS is how Pope Gregory "changed" the prefix i of iulius to a "Roman number i = 1"

➤ Nothing to do with Jesus/Ieosus, since the prefix to Julian Kalends began 46.B.C.E - Before Current ERA. EVEN following crucifixion in i79-80/1 Anno Domo, the SUFFIX became I.C. which much to Catholic Church horror stood for Incarnation of Christ.

❖ SUUASH/SWASH = iiij BASED ALONGSIDE meaning prefix or suffix. This set of Roman numerals is still legal today; with the definition of the word having changed somewhat since the j 500s. "Denoting ornamental flourish on a written character in writing or publications since j301". In the case of Greco Roman Numerals of the Lower Case i in a series, the last character containing a tail to distinguish it is the final i.

➤ DEADLINES another pun , meaning timing limits –

➤ DEAL OBLITERATED evidence for the 1933 FDR "treaties" can no longer be found online. You will see much regarding the GREADA Treaty some 20 years later. However, in one of the earlier pdfs – I did publish links.

I do have in hand a large number of images showing the directed energy field weapons being used onto homes and business - KNOWING there were CHILDREN home that day. The images are horrific and include people taking refuge on their boats in the bay and then those boats being targeted. I simply cannot bring myself to publish these illustrations.

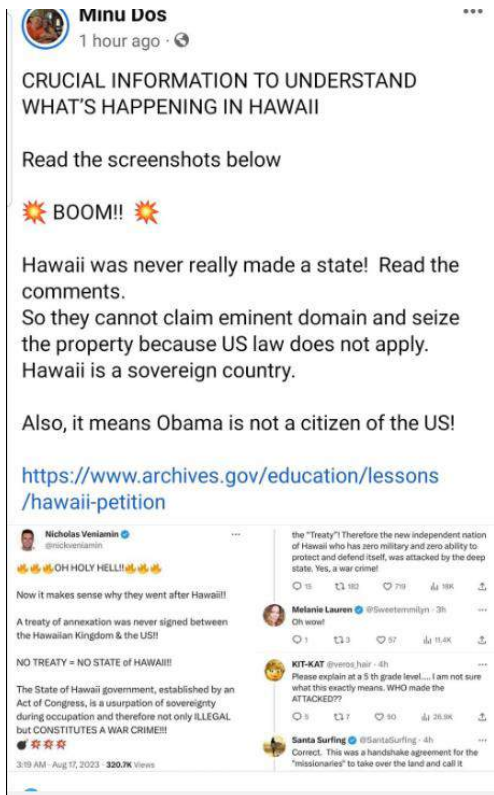

Am I just a coincidence theorist, or does anyone else find this strange? Let's play a game of connect the dots... #hawaii #hawaiilife #maui

Oh my god... so that's what the sheriff from the Vegas shooting was there... heading up the sniper team. Just like Vegas.
 You now they drug prisoners out to the swamps right after Katrina and shot hundreds of them. Fed them to the crocks.
 Wonder if that sheriff had anything to do with Katrina?

Additional Background Information

For centuries the islands of Hawaii were ruled by warring factions. In 1810, King Kamehameha unified all of the Hawaiian Islands into one royal kingdom. Later, the traditional Hawaiian monarchy was overthrown in favor of a constitutional monarchy. Eventually, the monarchy itself was abandoned in favor of a government elected by a small group of enfranchised voters, although the Hawaiian monarch was retained as the ceremonial head of the government.

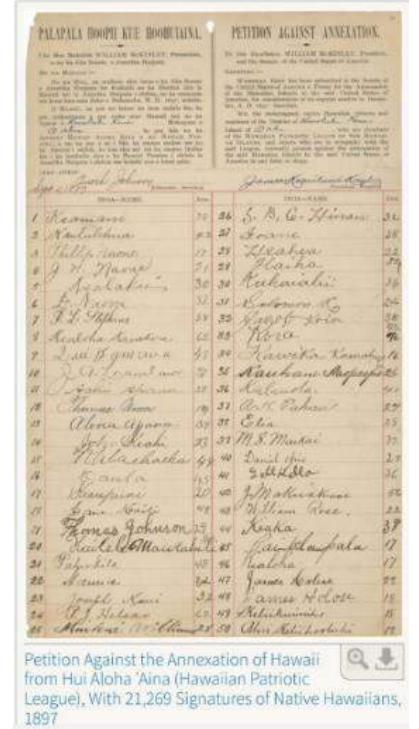

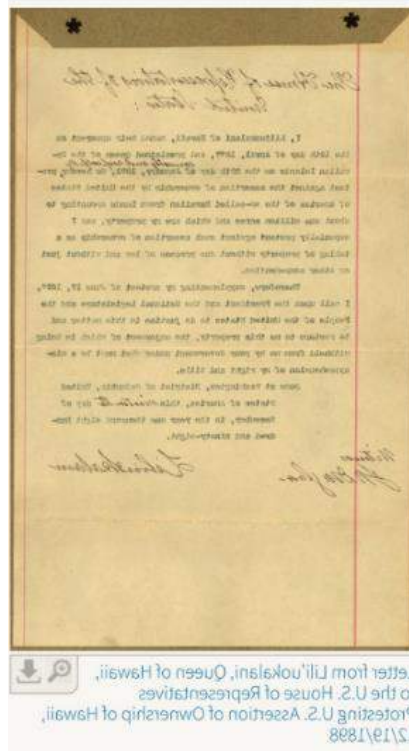

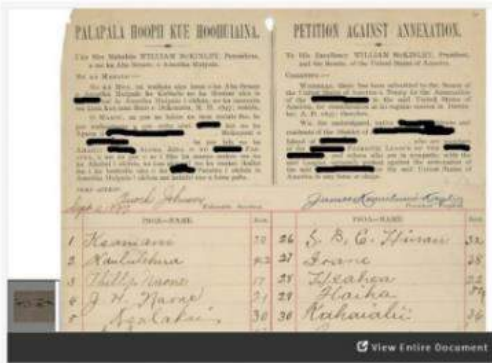

During the 19th Century, Western influence grew. David Kalākaua was the last king of Hawaii, ruling from 1874 to 1891. In 1885, following a tradition of treaties favoring the United States, he signed a trade reciprocity treaty with the United States. This free-trade agreement made it possible for sugar to be sold to the U.S. market tax-free.

By 1887, when the Reciprocity Treaty was renewed, the Kingdom of Hawaii was overrun by white landowners, missionaries, and businessmen. The king promoted Hawaiian culture and traditions, but Hawaiian sovereignty suffered. U.S. sugar plantation owners came to dominate the politics of the islands. Their presence imparted social and

The Petition Against Annexation of Hawaii on DocsTeach asks students to explore the petition signed by over 21,000 native Hawaiians against a treaty that would have annexed Hawaii to the United States. Students need to figure out what potentially annexed territory the petition is about.

Joint Resolution of Congress to Provide for Annexing the Hawaiian Islands to the United States, 7/7/1898

The pro-annexation forces in Congress submitted a proposal to annex the Hawaiian Islands by joint resolution, which required only a simple majority vote in both houses. This eliminated the 2/3 majority needed to ratify a treaty, and by result, the necessary support was in place. House Joint Resolution 259, 55th Congress, 2nd session, known as the "Newlands Resolution," passed Congress and was signed into law by President McKinley on July 7, 1898 — the Hawaiian islands were officially annexed by the United States. Sanford Dole became the first Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

In a last, unsuccessful attempt to return control of her homeland to native Hawaiians, Queen Lili'uokalani sent a letter of protest to the U.S. House of Representatives. She stated that her throne had been taken illegally, and that any U.S. efforts to annex Hawaii without the due process of law would be unacceptable.

As a territory, Hawaii had little power in the U.S. government, holding only one, non-voting representative in the House of Representatives. The territory status allowed rich, white plantation owners to import cheap labor and export their products to the mainland with low tariffs. These landowners used their power to keep Hawaii in territorial status.

Lili'uokalani never regained power, however. Sanford Dole, leader of the Committee of Safety and the president of the Provisional Government of Hawaii, refused to turn over power. Dole argued that the United States had no right to interfere in the internal affairs of Hawaii. The Provisional Government then proclaimed Hawaii a republic – the Republic of Hawaii – in 1894, with Dole its first president.

The overthrow of Lili'uokalani and imposition of the Republic of Hawaii was contrary to the will of the native Hawaiians. In fact, there had been a series of rebellions by Native Hawaiians since the imposition of the Bayonet Constitution in 1887. On January 5, 1895, during the "Wilcox Rebellion," an armed revolt was suppressed by Republic of Hawaii forces. The leaders of the revolt were imprisoned along with Queen Lili'uokalani.

In March of 1897, William McKinley was inaugurated as President of the United States. McKinley was in favor of annexation, and the change in leadership was soon felt. On June 16, 1897, McKinley and three representatives of the government of the Republic of Hawaii – Lorrin Thurston, Francis Hatch, and William Kinney – signed a treaty of annexation. President McKinley then submitted the treaty to the U.S. Senate for ratification.

In the 1950s, Congress combined Hawaii's statehood bid with Alaska's. Congress ultimately decided to first grant statehood to Alaska, a then-Democratic leaning territory, in early 1959. With this new Democratic state, Congress was now open to granting the then-Republican leaning Hawaii statehood to restore political balance.

Finally, in March 1959, a Hawaii statehood resolution passed both the House and the Senate, and President Eisenhower signed it into law. That June, the citizens of Hawaii voted on a referendum to accept the statehood bill.

On August 21, 1959, President Eisenhower signed the official proclamation admitting Hawaii as the 50th state, marking the end of over half a century of work for Hawaiian statehood.

Queen Liliuokalani and her fellow citizens successfully protested the annexation by petitioning Congress. Two Hawaiian groups, Hui Aloha 'Aina and Hui Kulai'aina, one group for men and one for women, organized a mass petition drive. They hoped that if the U.S. government realized that the majority of native Hawaiian citizens opposed annexation, the move to annex Hawaii would be stopped.

Between September 11 and October 2, 1897, the two groups collected petition signatures at public meetings held on each of the five principal islands of Hawaii. The Hui Aloha 'Aina (translated as the Hawaiian Patriotic League) petition - clearly marked "Petition Against Annexation" and written in both the Hawaiian and English languages - was signed by 21,269 native Hawaiian people. That was more than half of the 39,000 native Hawaiians and mixed-blood persons reported by the Hawaiian Commission census for the same year.

Four delegates, James Kaulia, David Kalauokalani, John Richardson, and William Auld, arrived in Washington, DC, on December 6 with the 556-page petition in hand. That day, as they met with Queen Lili'uokalani, who was already in Washington lobbying against annexation, the second session of the 55th Congress opened. The delegates and Lili'uokalani planned a strategy to present the lobbying against annexation, the second session of the 55th Congress opened. The delegates and Lili'uokalani planned a strategy to present the petition to the Senate.

The delegation and Lili'uokalani met Senator George Hoar, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations on the following day, and on December 9, with the delegates present, Senator Hoar read the text of the petition to the Senate. It was formally accepted. The next day the delegates met with Secretary of State John Sherman and submitted a formal statement protesting the annexation to him. In the following days, the delegates met with many senators, voicing opposition to the annexation. By the time the delegates left Washington on February 27, 1898, there were only 46 senators willing to vote for annexation. The treaty was defeated in the Senate.

Other events, however, immediately brought the subject of annexation up again. On February 15, 1898, the U.S. Battleship Maine was blown up in Havana Harbor in Cuba. The ensuing Spanish-American War, part of which was fought in the Philippine Islands, established the argument that the Hawaiian islands would be strategically valuable as a mid-Pacific fueling station and naval installation.
