INTRODUCTION to The CRONOGRAPHIA by Michael Psellus the Younger publ. j55

Begins with the words from Professor J. M. Hussey 1952

1017-1078 - Michael Psellos - Chronographia

PREFACE

Any "dates" under '1583' automatically need the number 1 removed

"1952 SOME three years ago I reviewed an excellent little volume written by Professor Norman Baynes, The Hellenistic Civilization and East Rome. In it he mentions Michael Psellus's famous anecdote about the Byzantine Sclerena and Constantine IX.<sup>1</sup> Being curious to know more of Psellus I bought the Bude edition and read the Chronographia in full. That is how this translation was born, for it seemed to me a pity that English scholars who knew no Greek should be deprived of the opportunity of reading this admirable work in their own language. Students of medieval history<sup>2</sup> in parti-cular should benefit. Certainly no other contemporary author gives so vivid an account of eleventh-century Byzantium.<sup>3</sup> I hope that this pioneer effort may inspire others to read and enjoy him.

Herein, we will see that the X has been added to fool us all into thinking we are a thousand years further than we are.

Since there was no "medieval", that this term contains phantom time in which so many have studied. With Prof. Ülrict Niemitz becoming the closest. He quizzed an amount of "three hundred twenty four and a half" missing years. <sup>ILLIG came close</sup>

Recall Nostradamus stated many times that "three hunted would never be published again" - by which he meant, never be re-placed where it should be - tacked onto July j676. Niemitz, Dr. Hans-Ülrict - Did the Early Middle Ages Really Exist? PDF www.cl.cam.ac.uk/~mgk25/volatile/Niemitz-1997.pdf

Removing the extra 1000 years added in j583 by Pope Gregory assists us immediately. It was taken by Gregory as a Roman Numeral i. As in i, ii, iij. When in actuality it was the prefix for iulus/julius. The letter J having only been recognised in i524.

"John, both from Psellus<sup>2</sup> and from other sources, is revealed as a single-minded scholar and a man of great integrity. He evidently coached a number of clever young men, all of whom later made their mark and remained firm friends with each other and with their tutor. John Xiphilinus became Head of the Faculty of Law in the University of Constantinople, then monk and Abbot of a monastery in Asia Minor, and finally Patriarch of Constantinople.

Constantine Ducas, another well-known member of the group, eventually succeeded to the throne as Constantine X.<sup>1</sup> Constantine Psellus - he later changed the name of Constantine for that of Michael by which he is usually known - managed to make his way in court circles and the story of his rise to power can be read in his Chronographia and filled out from other contemporary sources."*

Accordingly, Constantine the "IX" was ACTUALLY CONSTANTINE THE FIRST SOMEONE SIMPLY ADDED AN X

* A 1951 short summary of Psellus's career see P. Joannou, Psellos et le monastère Ta Narsoà, Byzantinische Zeitschrift vol. 44 pp. 283-90.

<sup>2</sup> Michael Psellus the Younger monk did not live in Gregorian 1017-1078. He was formerly a Constantine!

He lived in Julian 17 - 78 (the year before Crucifixion.) When Julian j80 became 1 a.d. That is; 1 ante diem.

Anti pope (in the Greek meaning of "anti") : and this does refer to 'antechrift' too.

Because John of Revelation was Greek. So, why was Dolores Cannon misled? Because it can mean shape shift...

Or means one standing in place of, instead of or in another place at the same time or waiting for ...

this often happened according to popularity at its papal votes... The Greco/Byzantine and Roman popes.

For instance 11th Century/ = 2nd century Wondering how could Charlemagne/Karolignian be in the 2nd century, (11th minus 1000) 3rd & the 8th. By taking hypothetical 1000 off his hypothetical 800 a.d.? The 1000 comes off dates prior to 583. After that it is usually 676 that needs removing. In this case not the 1000, nor 676, but 324. Someone in current times got their maths back to front. Google used the same image with three differing dates (j4 and j42 and A° 800) As it turns out, there IS a way to come to a conclusion, which we will see later. John 1003-09 ?? by removing the 1000 added in 583 provides a St John.

Carolingian Minuscule

gudwriter.com > carolingian-minuscule/

Carolingian minuscule was a Latin script developed in the 8th century and mostly used the end of the 11th century. It is sometimes called "old Roman" to distinguish it from its descendants, Carolingian minuscules.

"11th" century; after deducting 1000 yrs means the first century (Elite-run) Britannica says 308, "mentored by Eusebius 310 pope", so this 308 is not Constantine the First, but Constantine The Great.

The other problem to address is this, the difference between j583 which travelled from i46 Before Crucifixion... still a calendar over i80 / continuing to 583 but at i80 becoming 1 a.d. as the Christian Era. Up to 524, it was i524, after that, j525. Using CURRENT ERA refers to the Age of Pisces. When Nemesis arrived 54BCE.

1000. This is a fiction. Not a fact. The M refers to Magnus Annus – at the time, Great Year or Era. Period between Nemesis visits, around 7 centuries. The Roman numeral for 1000 was ϕ from where came the D for 500. There is a portrait by Albrecht Dürer of supposed Charlemagne, with his name Karolius Karolignian imperitor to the left of his head, and Magnus Later, with help from Albrëcht Dürer- May 471 ~ April 534/ we are enabled to place the subjects he painted into their proper time-slots. Charlemagne is one.

Annis 14 to the right of his head. Was this 4 in the Iulus/julius kalends? or the fourth year of being emperor? Just to add insult to injury, there are other portraits on google, all the same one by the same Albrëcht Dürer, with very different date texts. Two are shown above, found on gooogle. Another one appears to say 142, with an obvious handwritten 2. Another has the date as 14 & one has no 'Magnus Annus' at all, but very Roman Imperial all upper case words, in pretend 800s font, which looks very much like Greco Roman FELIX TITLE, FOOTLIGHT or PERPETUA.

CHARLEMAGNE TRANSLATED Karolius (Charles) imperator Magnus the Great year/era 4 usually immediately follows a visit by the Nemesis mini system, truly a new age/era. See the forged number after J4, a 2 HAS BEEN ADDED. I did find that the 4 was not a year 4 of his reign= iulus 42

So 42 BC – by which I mean 4 years after Julius 1st yr of 46 BC Some idiot has written in the 42 meaning Before Crucifixion, proving they changed it after the original 4, which was in truth – Julian 4. So how is it that Charlemagne is dated so early? We have four proofs of a 523-Charles

A pope Adrian is reported to be the pope alongside Karolignian Charlemagne... how Charlemagne/Karolius was in reality not the 2nd century, (11th minus 1000) ? just one choice by some scholars, or the 14th century by others, by which they must mean the 400s, because he was painted by Albrëcht Dürer ~ May 471 ~ April 534/ and how do we know it was j 534 for Dürer's death? Because he died one year after the "King's Matter" (Henry the 8th) media, which had AD looking like anno domini, a paradigm promoted by papal interests, so they left his signature there in deceit.

ROTTEN GREEN-EYED SARAN messiah FLYER FOR pope LEO REGENT'S GREY (4724)

A pope Adrian is recorded as the pope alongside Karolignian Charlemagne, in the [1]4th century, yet there does not seem to be another Adrian until the 500s. It is the 500s Adrian with Charlemagne. Because Clement is there (who "set back Julian Kalends", leaving it to Gregorius to establish) and Dürer was alive then, who painted Charlemagne.

According to John Wilcock, the Adrian popes were as follows:

 Going forward with the Dürer Charlemagne works, the Adrian could only have been the one of i522-23. This would then make Charlemagne emperor at the same timing of Henry 8th. The 722-75 Adrian at first glance seems the logical pope if the straddling of 800 was the real date for the Karolignian. Trouble with that is, Albrächt Dürer was almost 300 years dead.

There are three reasons Charlemagne was with pope Adrian, then Clement 1 in the early 500s. First reason, that is when Dürer was alive and painting them. Including Henry 8th

Second reason: there are other works by Dürer telling the story of the emperor himself and or his Karolignian knights confronting Blenny. By the 800s the Blenny were gone, just as biblical passages speak of the horrors washed away by great flooding (but leaving well hidden Nephylim* still alive "after that") so it was the Blenny with their face on their chest being unable to survive the great flooding. We see on the i718 Archipelago Map of the Isles of Scotland, Ireland and England. Consequent to the arrival of Ison December j680 and Wormwood January j689. We will see later in the DINOSAURS & FALSE AGES PART FIVE pdf, that the Newton, Hevelius and Gadoury finds tried to let us know. Not forgetting the Lost Book of Manuscripts by Nostradamus – clearly describing many asterisms in reverse. Because Nostradamus lived in the 500s, before the j689 event.

*the word Nephyl was Greek for Orion.

Third reason: in the Nostradamus quatrain/s – written in the 500s Script which developed as a calligraphic standard in the medieval Europe: period so that the Latin alphabet of Jerome's Vulgate Bible could be easily recognized by the literate class from one region to another. It is thought to have originated before AD 778 at the scriptorium of the Benedictine monk:

LETTER J - NOT UNTIL 524

Was set into the alphabet i524. After i524 it was acceptable to use the Iulius/Julius prefix j524. In the "King's Matter" of i527, by Albrecht Dürer, he actually left us a concise dating. Even Nostradamus left us the hint in Presage J562.

Therefore St. Jerome of the i382 – i455 Vulgate Bible (printed by Gutenberg) was not Jerome with a J. Nor even Jesus, which was Ysus/leosus followed by Yeshua.

Yes, that's correct! In fact, the letter "j" was originally a variant of the letter "i" and was used to represent the sound of both "i" and "j". So, when you see a diphthong over two letter "i"s or an "i" and a "j", it is pronounced like the letter "y" in English.

<sup>183</sup>Constantine the Great appointed his sons Caesars before his death: Crispus & Constantine II [sic] in 317, and in 333 Constans. Cronographia – Michael Psellus the Younger.

[sic]: my copy may have lost much in translation, and or been "revised" as they did with Newton's Chronology of Kings; "revised" by American luminati Larry & Marion Pierce 2008. How do I know they were luminati? Their work would never have been published & sold by google otherwise.

4. Carolingian minuscules are derived from the cursive scripts of the period since these were the only legible scripts at the time. Spread and revival of Carolingian in the 4th century. The Carolingian minuscule is widely credited with being used for most of the oldest surviving manuscripts in Europe 4th century. Formerly stated as 14th.

So we see interesting developments with the letter J. In Holland (as it was then) and in Portugal, the J MEANT year of. In Spanish it is pronounced as an H. And now we know why the J499 map describing the expeditions of Celumbo, Drakos, Candijk/Cavendish and Magella used different forms of j prefix. Celumbo/Italy-Spain. Drakos/England. Candisk/UK. Magella/Portugal, as was De Gama. In many countries, both the i and the j up to 492 were the same letter character. I would love to see the real date on Hartog's pewter plate left on the west coast of Australia!

Until i524 – there was nothing to distinguish i from j. I for Iulius was pronounced Yulius.

i496 – border of tapestry, Cetus facing the other way. Cetus is in the southern hemisphere.

Nostradamus born 1503 – died 1566 July 2nd.

This is the only possible pope Adrian for a Karolignian Charlemagne. Yet search details say the 14th century

CLEMENT ONE . . . ACCORDING TO NOSTRADAMUS who was alive at the same time, as was Albrecht Dürer, who painted Charlemagne sometime straddling 500 a.d. Art says 14 Great Anno

"CLEMENT b. Florence as Giulio de Medici. Elected 26 Nov 1523, d. 25 Sept 1534, aged 56.

I have a book frontispiece Of the Jerome VULGATE BIBLE which has CLEMENT 8TH in the same sentence as DAMASUS 2 AND MAXIMI (or Maxim 1) published by Gutenberg 1455 – During Durer's lifetime.

There seems to have been some fiddling with numbers even then, with still some 70 years before Satanic James 6th and his Version, the KJV.

Despite the illegitimacy of his birth, he was created cardinal by his cousin, Pope Leo X. His election was supported by Emperor Charles V (nephew of Katherine of Aragon) who later confessed: "I poured out streams of gold to get de' Medici elected". Clement's vacillation between the French king Francis I and the emperor eventually prompted an invasion of Rome by the imperial army whereupon Clement hid away in Castel Sant'Angelo to the invaders' taunts of "Luther for pope". From John Wilcock

LUTHER WAS IN THE EARLY 500s

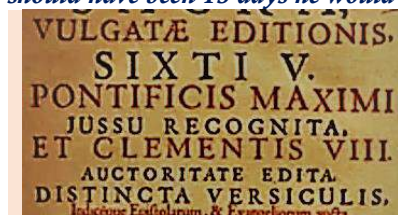

LVR says: "He was not known to indulge in any kind of luxury or pleasure" quoting a 1526 despatch by ambassador Marco Foscarelli who added: "His only amusement is the conversation of engineers with whom he talks about waterworks and such matters".

CLEMENT'S subservience to Charles /Charlemagne (who called him "a poltroon") was subsequently emphasized by his crowning of the emperor--the last such coronation by a pope -- at Bologna in 530. This pope excommunicated England's Henry VIII after the king divorced the emperor's aunt, Catherine of Aragon. The inevitable schism--never to be resolved--between England and Rome, was supplemented by the spread of Lutherism in Scandinavia. Under Clement's rule such figures as Machiavelli, Michelangelo, Cellini and Raphael received considerable patronage and the contemporary chronicler Francesco Vettori wrote approvingly of him: "Not proud, no trafficker in church property, not avaricious, not given to pleasure, moderate in food, frugal in dress, religious and devout" (LVR)

- 1) Ignore the activity in his own heavens & environment
- 2) not write about the northern hemisphere freezing, nor
- 3) mention the arrival of Ison and Wormwood. He had died just as he finished his Amended Kings' Chronology

I believe the works of Newton were censored under the word "Revised" in America

The use of the diphthong over two letter "i's or an "i" and a "j" was common in medieval Latin manuscripts, particularly in the Carolingian period (8th-9th century) <sup>1</sup>. This period saw the development of the Carolingian minuscule script, which was used for writing Latin and was the precursor to modern lowercase letters <sup>2</sup>. The use of the diphthong was also common in Old English manuscripts, which were written in the Anglo-Saxon period (5th-11th century) <sup>3</sup>.

See the "j" and the "j" as the heading? Now look at the full stop after the number one in the date. All pointers contain eight or 16 'spokes'. Set in stone.

FIX THE CALENDARS. See the INTERNATIONAL NEW FIXED CALENDAR

Benedict IV ( )	900-903	Notice the word FIXED – copying the pdf FIX THE CALENDARS, insinuates both repaired and permanent. It also Insinuates pleasing the public who have been clamoring for a 13 month Lunar Calendar believing that the moon is also “fixed”. Ancient and religious calendar systems : “formula was probably invented in Mesopotamia in third millennium” * ... *2000BCE/ to j689 C.E. had too many turns of Earth and orbit changes, not forgetting lunar changes, to the point a calendar cannot consist of lunar counts. In 705BCE our orbit gained 5 days then in 2013, October, it began what is today (2024) a 378 day orbit. Taking advantage of a 13 month fit, the powers that be have issued a NEW INTERNATIONAL FIXED CALENDAR of 13 months, hoping ppl will think it is just a lunar calendar (at last!they say) not realizing it is a cover for our larger and new seasonal measure; which they have been calling climate change. One good example of “repaired” is the July of j676, when the top of our planet froze suddenly, so much so, that prince Otto declared it a New Age, made a New Age Calendar beginning at a year 1,000 – and in this process losing 324 and a half years. The folk knew about this lost summer – and even put the ½ a year in writing.

The reason we know this period here of the "1200s" is invented, is because we are in 1348 at 2024, which would mean the previous century would have been the real 1200s. I am sure we would all be cognisant of Magna Carta and the advent of gunpowder arriving if it had been last century.

Heribert Illig. 1991 – postulated a phantom gap of 297 years from j614 to 911 - and why stop at j.911?

Why choose j614? What happened then that might cause someone in authority to pull forward 297 years?

ANSWER: Steven Guth discovered that a major event in 535-36 had affected the planet. To see if Illig's 614 had been that year, he met a brick wall because of 79 years difference. The reason for that eluded him. You will see it.

A 1939 London School book of Latin Dictionary just came my way – with the very first finding here; Lower case a.d. = ante diem. Meaning, it says here, in [the] dates This could also be saying before the day – as in “before the next, or new, era” Taking this from the day of A.D. IS IT ALSO telling us to expect the same in the next “reset”? As if all folk knew of the mini solar system.

Biography

Early life (1471–1490)

Dürer was born on 21 May 1471, the third child and second son of Albrecht Dürer the Elder and Barbara Holper, who married in 1467 and had eighteen children together. Albrecht Dürer the ... See more

According to Wikidpedia the dates for Dürer were 1471 to 1490. Encyclopaedia Brit. Says [i]471 to [i]534

We now know to dispense with the extra 1000 years, making Dürer’s dates May 471 ~ April 534

From many maps – all dated under j676 including the Piri Reis and Hereford maps – showing Blemmye on Antarctica while Antarctica was at the Equator – yet never appearing on any maps after j718 – due to the Wormwood world wide flooding and mini ice age that followed until j857. Celumbo also reported in his logs meeting Blemmye and Dogheaded men, returning to Spain j499. Carrying the j271 works of Marco Polo with him.

The Frankish king Charlemaigne Carolingian Minuscule, 9/10th C

The Carolingian minuscule, was used for all legal and literary works to unify communication between the various regions of the expanding European empire. Alexander Nesbitt writes of the importance of this letterform development;

The minuscule was developed from uncials and half-uncials, exploiting the Roman characteristics of rounded, open and clean forms, uniformity, and above all, legibility. Because both ligatures and abbreviations were avoided each letter became a fully realized and independent form.

Attributed to 6th Century Albrëcht Dürer. Died j534. Charlemagne also known as the Karolignian, is supposed to have filled the times of a pope Adrian in the 780s to the early 800s. With other details saying 4th century, the 300s. Neither can be correct The saddlery here, the clothing, the friar monks – the Frankish cross of Lorraine ~ all point to a much earlier time very close to that of Byzantine Roman. The popes Adrian are listed in the years as follows: 276, 3rd century. 522-23, 6th century, when Dürer was still alive. He did not live in 772-75, 8th C. More Adrians in 867-872. 884-885 9th century and I154-I159 ... which is not the 11th century, this is the 12th century. If the 1 is not an i.

This Karolignian miniscule is a swash on the letter J

The title of the text here says 9/10th C.

They can't even get THAT right.

Charlemagne was supposed to have straddled the 800s, so this should be saying from the 8th to the 9th Century.

HOWEVER

If Albrëcht Dürer painted the Karolius Imperator painting dated M̄agnus year J4 using this very swashed J for Julius shown here, then both he and this font come from the late 400s straddling the 500s, because Dürer died i534.

Similar to the i,ii,iij swash of the Roman numerals still in use for legal matters today.

THESE LATTER TWO HAD NO EXAMPLE TO SHOW

I am guessing there will be a growing minority of readers who have used a camera which develops the photo in front of your eyes. And it was not a phone in the 1970s. These were called polaroid cameras. There was no chance of a double exposure nor CGI with these. Billy Meier was taken back to the Younger Dryas Event to catch that new moon (our current-old one) arriving and the previous ancient one leaving. Here we can see the two moons. What do you see in the background? From the video Billy Meier Secret Photo Album. A worthwhile viewing, because he captured living dinosaurs as well. He was a lifelong Contactee, receiving many Earth warnings from his visitors.

This goooge representation had the 1350 etc dated fonts AFTER the "1066" (which had no examples)

HOWEVER

We now know to remove the #1 before the century number – and when we do that here, the fonts begin to make sense as they progress.

This is exactly the same with fashions of the day.

A good example is here above, and in the Clothing of Ngliterra/Angleterre Viking king Harald Hadrata at Hastings in 496.

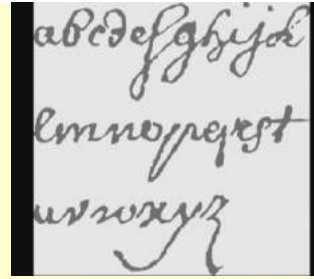

The battle with no gunpowder anywhere. If it had been 1066, there would have been cannon at least. Even at Culloden in 746 there were cannon and muskets.

Fonts of 1467 are not available yet. Making them fonts of i467. The same with no letter j yet.

We are still in the 1300s, at 1348 in "2024".

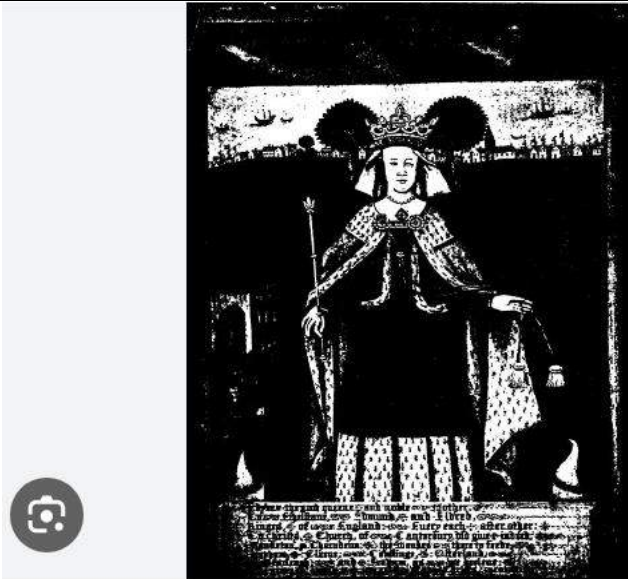

So far as expecting to find information on maps and tapestries sourced from either goooge, wikidpedia or youtube – that is clear enough to read or reproduce – rest assured it is not your eyes playing up – it is the truth being hidden from you. Here is one example...

Why does the Bayeux Tapestry have an astrological date of March 15 J495 in its border with Cetus – a constellation we have in the Southern Hemisphere?

ANSWER: BECAUSE UNTIL J689, HASTINGS WAS IN THE SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE AREA...

NOSTRADAMUS WAS DESPERATE FOR US IN OUR TIMES, 800 YEARS AFTER HIS, TO SEEK OUT AND FIND THE WHY OF IT ALL. IT IS SIMPLE AND DASTARDLY. OUR CHILDREN ARE TRADE, IN THE UNIVERSE AND 1933 SAW US ALL SIGNED AWAY BY A CLONED F.D.R. OUR BABIES TERMED UPPER CASE CARGO, AND OUR GOLD STANDARD REMOVED. THIS ESSENTIALLY MADE US ALL SLAVES TO THE SYSTEM. BY EACH OF US REALIZING WHERE WE REALLY STAND, & IN 1348 AT 2024, THUS CANCELLING THE SALE, THE FALSE PACT, & WILL NULLIFY THE UNLAWFUL CONTRACT. The Question here is, which comet was that, travelling left to right, while in the southern hemisphere?

J6J4 = Year 614

How is this explained? Zwolle church, the Netherlands

Note = NO A.D. Year 614

i 492 font

lettres doubles et autres. Le u et le v sont identiques ainsi que le i et le j letters from [this] memo accentuates letters duplicated for others. The u and the v being identical then the i and the j like so, (the same as each other)

i 492 font

abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz

because in 492 there was no J, and you will see here, that both "i" & "j" are one & the same. This was still in use up to 524 & seen as late as the 746 Culloden coins

j6j4
Heribert Illig's mystery date, which was also 535-a.d. Krakatoa & the timing of a mid era arrival

So we see interesting developments with the letter J. In Holland (as it was then) and in Portugal, the J MEANT year of. In Spanish it is pronounced as an H. And now we know why the J499 map describing the expeditions of Celumbo, Drakos, Candisk/Cavendish and Magella used different forms of j prefix. Celumbo/Italy-Spain. Drakos/England. Candisk/UK. Magella/Portugal, as was De Gama. In many countries, both the i and the j up to 492 were the same letter character. I would love to see the real date on Hartog's pewter plate left on the west coast of Australia!

HERIBERT ILLIG. 1990. Phantom Time Hypothesis J6J4

.It seems 614 was a year of note: Not only has it merited TWO clocks – but it was the focus for the research of Heribert Illig, who pinpointed (to him) an empty gap between 614 and 911. (ie. 1911)

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE YEAR 535

Now a bit of mathematics. Counting from the years 614 to 911 is 297 years. But the important number for the occurrence of events is 79. Why? Because 614 minus 79 brings us to 535. Why do I pick 535 as a real date? It probably wasn't. All dates before 1,000 are highly suspect. The Roman's kept one set of dates, the Jews another. Indians, Chinese and others kept their own dating systems. All these systems were 'normalised' after the first Millennium to match the Christian system.

DISCLAIMER REGARDING THE DATE LISTING OF POPES. ALL DATES AFTER 1348 CAN NOT BE CONSIDERED CORRECT. MY LIST IS NOT YET COMPLETE NOR YET PERFECTED

(From Gospel Book of Otto III)

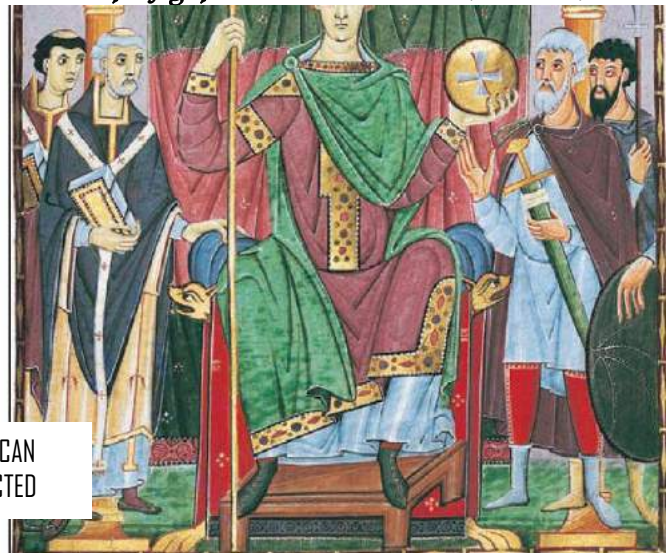

Image from Steven Guth's works, published New Dawn issue 137.

When Steven said "it probably wasn't the real date", it was. He (R.I.P. dear friend) and the rest of us, had not realized the Crucifixion date, the day before the first year of our own a.d./IC calendar, WAS the beginning. That the Julian kalends have continued along the SAME TIMELINE/S. This can cause BOTH dates to be correct, either j614 Julian <sup>(C+F+j6j4)</sup> or 535 a.d. <sup>(c+f+diem)</sup> C.E./Christian Era. Or I.C. Christ's Incarnation. per 2 13
 What outstanding number do you see here? Yes, 79. Being julius 79, year of crucifixion, therefore year of The Shroud of Turin, and the beginning of anno Domo/I.C. Incarnation of Christianity: year 1 a.d. No one seems to have taken into consideration the actual date of 1 a.d. It sits in the Julian kalends. The word Kalends means "the first". One needs to ask "of what?" The answer is, the NEW AGE following the 54BCE arrival affects of the Nemesis system, which was nominated as The Passover. Numeral i of the Julian kalends was in July 46 BCE. The 46 BCE did not have a named month of July but 42BCE did, to honour Julius. Here is a 2 year difference you may find in other researchers' travails. One thing I have noticed – the date of July 2nd. For Otto's New Age, the events of July 2nd initiated his YULE New Age Millennium calendar. QEII died July 2nd 2016. Events of July 2nd became July the 4th. Nostradamus was found dead July 2nd (having actually been killed above my farm in a mobile planet-oid attack Sept. 19 2011, for which I was made witness); and transported back via time gates found dead standing up. Another July 2nd was the last visit to me in 2017. The visit I frantically caught a photo of as it was leaving.

This visit I thought had been a reminder of the anniversary of his death, but it was not HIS death which I was being prompted. It was a reminder of 2 13 1 to take the DEATH date as the renewed age.***

"soul no longer sacrificed." In the light of recent disclosure regarding what the Moon really is, and Who is on board (40 differing off world races) with one agenda relying on the trapping of souls, tortured souls.

“the death for nativity”... it is a bit ridiculous to glorify a baby at birth – in RETROSPECT - and call that day the first day of Christianity, or the “Christian” calendar. Popes who were seeking ways to establish faith in the ideology and seek a connecting conduit (the church) were more willing to pay (hand over their children) when a virgin mother and her baby are made the idols. Instead of the tortured (by church) dead body.

SIGNIFANCE OF THE YEAR 535, set off by Krakatoa. Raises the question of what did that? TURNS OUT THAT VOLCANOES BECOME AFFECTED BY THE INTRUDING PASSING MINI SOLAR SYSTEM – and just happens that this RESET event every time it comes affects humanity. There is more research to be done, and I am on it, because between the 1486BCE, 705 BCE, i79 And i689 (Hevelius, Newton, Gadoury) Wormwood events – there were others in between each, such as this 535-536 Krakatoa event, which when we add 79 (Julius) to it gives us the 614 of Heribert Illig. Proof the Julian kalends continued into j583, (when the roman numeral j was made 1, adding 1000 years at a plume stroke). Julian continues onto j614. J614 WA S 535 a.d.! THIS is the reason for TWO clocks at that J6J4 date – and the astronomical BLACK SUN clocks.

*It was a reminder of 2 13 1 to take the DEATH date as the renewed age.*THIS IS MY BRIEF – after all!

EPIPTERIC

Here is an extreme coincidence. A topic that at first light can only have appeared in a CreepyPasta video. One to be scoffed at, to be sure, aye. After listening and taking notes, I could pick up on only one discrepancy. The wording “cross taken up to Golgotha” ... when it should have been “over to”.

Let us collect some pointers from previous pdf forums. We learned about the CAENEUS (in DIRECTIVES) We learned about the EPIPTERIC BONE... We learned about PARALYZE GATHERING...next pg

Best to use YANDEX SEARCH for plenty of choices with which to feel comfortable. My main warning is the five biblical passages regarding shape-shifting Jesus, as a clone

Over to Golgotha should have been the wording by the Tribune Gaius Cassius Longinus in his j80 letter... because Ron Wyatt in his book The Ark Of The Covenant, describes finding the BASE OF GOLGOTHA for the placing of the three crosses, complete with large earthquake evidence... caused by the PASS-OVER.

Listen, take notes, sift through the chaff, especially the description of the entity, an insectoid. Tribune Cassius is not affected because he has no epipteric bone, which entity manipulates via frequencies. My friend's dog was badly affected when taking on a grey Always, but always – look sideways at anything on Ewe Tube, giggle and Wikidpedia. They use the OMISSION of important details to disinform you. They do the same to their frontmen such as Wilcock They are all run by the puppet mil-itary of the Orion-SiriusB Group Subnasals. Maitre, Mabus Grayles by any other moniker and maybe even the Igigi.

Nibiru caught on tape from the middle east. The tapes keep coming and the southern hemisphere has had multiple views of the planet. The pole shift looks like its on its way.

Here is an example – The Nemesis system, was first spotted by R. Harrington in 1981. Also here in 2010, and...

Barcarole - first spoken word, mentioned in the Template.
 Explanation: not to keep talking about me, it is not about me, it is about finishing stuff knowing I am running out of time.

THIS is the reason for the little comment in the computerized Template of a truth and one which validates all the other truths:
 my first spoken word, at eleven months of age, was "barcarole" when I was jumping up and down trying to convince my grand mother to bring out the wireless. Talking with dad on one occasion I said to him:
 "I remember clearly, the act of being born, and learning to walk on grandma's carpet, and once asking grandma (pointing) to get out the wireless and put on the "music". Dad said "you were not saying "music" you were saying "barcarole" over and over." So, when I saw 6 64 4 in Allan Webber's Template... it is no wonder They speak of "coronaries".

Just to play the devil's advocate ~ let's say, that first "n" might be an accident attached to a period as it is. Go to the other "n"s in the line and compare them. Subtle, isn't it! Although there is only one other "a" in the line; had nonante been the word – look how clear and distinct the first "a" is, meaning there is no reason it would not be just as clear in nonante!

The clauses which nominate a date are null and void because we were not in 1933 at 1933 nor are we in the twenty first century yet. One thousand years was tacked onto our calendars by changing the “i” to a “1” and 324½ years were removed in July 1676 turning that month into a new 1,000A.D. to create a “fiscal” calendar. The difference between the 1000 added and 324 years deducted is 676+ which still needs to be removed from the Anno Domini calendar. This skulduggery was arranged between Constantinople and Rome. The edict involved is kept well hidden. This is why the Vatican knows the Shroud of Turin is real.

3 56 4 After sixth seventh century past/parsed and/add twenty three. When you comprehend the number of other calendar experts – some who had nearly all the clues, and some who were obfuscating (such as Illig on behalf of the Vatican – which has an extreme vested interest in changing calendars without leaving proof) yet all the while clung onto the one piece of evidence that was often referred to as a hoax – the Shroud of Turin, the Rosetta stone of the junction of all modern calendars – the Adamic, Iulius, Coptic, Gotique and Y2K. The Muslim calendar cannot be included here because Mahomet was not born until just before pope Gregory did his magic trick with the Gotique kalends in j583.

After sixth seventh century past/parsed and . add twenty three. So saying; in among 3 56 a quatrain of other topics, now that the juncture of change of centuries 6 (the 500s) and 7 (the 600s) has been discovered with its Wormwood visit effects, here is just one more thing to be done. To add to the often mentioned 3 missing centuries lost (never to be made published again, in his own times). This was an extremely clever way to hide the true number of years* missing and/or added to our current calendars, without agencies such as the modern alphabet agencies, actually making the discovery, then making use or misuses of the find. In order to reconcile the dis-combination one had to be almost autistically tenacious. As always, Allan Webber's Template of hidden text Quatreins held the clues. Most of which appear in the pdf FIX THE CALENDARS. Do you still need to know why? We are in 1348 at '2024'. ### HEVELIUS January j689

Here we see Orion facing the “wrong way” to what we have had since j689.

All of the asterism animals (Taurus, Unicorn/Monoceros, Vulpecula, Cetus, Ursa, Leo) in the works of Nostradamus are also back to front. This proves Nostradamus was alive BEFORE j689. This was his “revolting astronomies”.

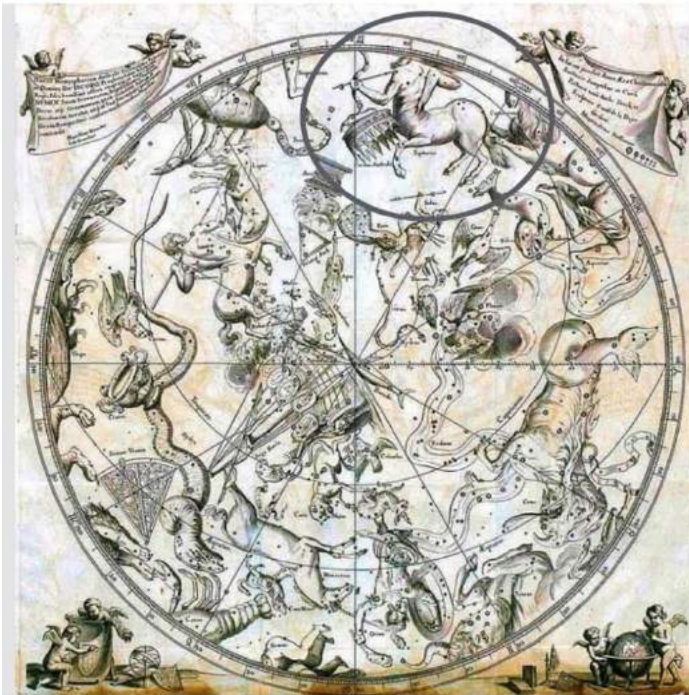

It also gives us the date for White Horse of Uffington, which is Sagitatrius after it reversed.

HEVELIUS January j689

Skymap Johannes Hevelius i611 – i687

I have used the lower case “i” here because the letter found under the Tudor Mansion was dated i633.

Have you begun to ask yourself why?

Why did all the pre 720 astronomers depict the constellations facing the opposite way to how we see them?

That prior to 719 A.D. the Animal for Cancer was a crayfish or lobster – and post 720 A.D. it became a crab.!

proving, again, that Nostradamus was in Pre 720. He used the lobster.

That here in this image pre 720 we see Sagittarius very much facing the wrong way. With Corvus before Leo, which was the Epiphany that led me here.

The OTHER detail that now comes to light is the actual date for the Uffington Horse. This ground glyph is actually Sagittarius complete with bow and arrow to its RIGHT.

THIS was the hint left to us here in their future.

That THERE WAS A RESET OF THE HEAVENS, that they had a NEW SAGITTARIUS after 719 AD

and that it has been maintained since post 719.

How does this come about?

If our heavens turn - SO DO WE – and THIS IS WHY T.P.T.B. stick to their Orions Belt mythology regarding Giza.

that photo has to be in reverse. It is Sagittarius constellation with Corona Australis as the curved leg. In Hieroglyphs, when in reverse it means it holds a secret message. The White Horse of Uffington is Sagittarius, even with the cross of the bow and arrow which part has not been made white for a very long time but can still be seen from the air.

dated 20/8/912.

What does this actually tell us?

First: that it is NOT written by an American, because it would read in that case as 8/20/912.

Adding here that the handwriting is almost identical to my grandmother's, and she was born Dec.29th 1900, or if you prefer, 900 C.E. (a.k.a. A.D.). She was born in England.

Second: the author of the hand written date remembers & KNOWS the date he-she was writing was NOT 1,912. So that would point to an elderly person, had they been, say, 80 in 1,912; that would place them as a child very close to the 1.820 date "set in stone", reminding folk that a lower case j and an upper case J does not a Jesus prefix make.

Nor does the suffix A.D. necessarily mean Anno do[m]mini.

Third: this person in just the same way that we now believe we are in 2022 or so, considered themselves to be around 912 years from the beginning of their own particular calendar.

THIS TIMELINE of 912 HAS BYPASSED the Greco-Roman Edict/bull of Otto & continued direct to us from Gregory 110 years later some might say this puts us into the 1022 year of 2022-minus-just-the-1000-added by pope Gregory. Now, this image shows beautiful huge trees. What type are they? Does it look like England? Or Australia, U.S.A? And is it a photo or a drawing? Before you think there were no cameras in the j800s, please research camera obscura. I ask, because a refugee person from an event in the j800s. (we will come to that later) sent to wherever in the world, would take with them the calendar they were raised with, whichever it was sourced just like Agafya did. Alfred Putney thank you for your complement.
After you remove the 1 prefix that pope Gregory placed in January of Julian 583 (to make the calendar fiscal) and after you return the 324 that prince Otto lost in j676, calling July the new age of 1000 (simply losing 324 and a half years) THEN you can calculate the following.
Remove the extra 1000
add back the 324
equals 676 years too many - deduct that from 2024 and voila we are in 1348. WHICH happens to make the Shroud of Turin the right dating.
